PREFACE.

THE CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK, in the preparation of which no labour or expense has been spared, will, it is hoped, be welcomed by many as the most careful and comprehensive attempt yet made to supply a long felt need. Hymn-singing has found its way into nearly every family circle; the Sunday School has been largely developed within the Church of England; Children's Services have multiplied; Guilds, Bands of Hope, and kindred societies have been formed in hundreds of parishes; and the demand for hymns suited to the young, on all subjects within the range of their interests, is becoming daily more and more urgent.

The object of this Collection is to provide a Hymnal for the young, in which, whilst a high standard of excellence and a healthy religious tone are preserved, every hymn shall be, as regards the sentiments conveyed and the expressions used, within their possible experience, and, as far as may be, within their comprehension. In adhering to this rule, the Compilers have necessarily been obliged to exclude from their pages many hymns, which, however valuable and beautiful in themselves, it would be impossible for children to use without a simulation of religious experience dangerous to the simplicity and truthfulness of their relations with God. At the same time, they have not forgotten the necessity of making children familiar in childhood with such hymns as they can love and value all their lives. Many of the hymns generally used in Divine Service deal with thoughts and ways which are common to the younger and older members of the Church, and may be a life-long help to both in the realization and love of Divine things. Care has been taken to secure a large number of the more beautiful and vigorous of these.

The Compilers feel it impossible adequately to express their gratitude to the Revisers of this work—the Right Rev. W. Walsham How, Bishop of Bedford, the Right Rev. Bishop Ashton Oxenden, and the Rev. John Ellerton—for the careful and patient consideration which they have given to every hymn, and for the invaluable assistance and advice rendered by them in the work.

To all who have aided them by original contributions, careful criticisms, and valuable suggestions, they feel it incumbent to give their special thanks. First of all must be named the Rev. W. Pulling, Chairman of the Committee of "Hymns Ancient and Modern," (whose letter in reply to the Acting Editor of the CHILDREN'S HYMN

Book is subjoined), to whose kind co-operation and valuable introductions the Compilers are deeply indebted, as they are also to the Committee, for the generosity with which they placed at their disposal all their valuable copyright hymns.

For hymns composed expressly for this work, or first published in it, the Compilers are under special obligations to the Bishop of Bedford, to the Rev. Canon Baynes, to the Rev. Gerard Blunt, to Miss Butler, to the Rev. S. Baring-Gould, to the Rev. Gordon Browne, to Lady Baker, to Mrs. Charles, to Mrs. Curteis, to Miss Sarah Doudney, to Mrs. de Lisle Dobrée, to the Rev. John Ellerton, to Mrs. Hernaman, to the Rev. Geoffrey Hughes, to Mrs. Mitchell, to the Rev. J. E. Millard, to the Rev. T. B. Pollock, to the Rev. C. W. Power, to Miss Christina Rossetti, to Mrs. Charles Streatfeild, to the Rev. S. J. Stone, to the Rev. Canon Alfred Stowell, to the Rev. Lawrence Tuttiett, to Mr. A. H. Turner, to Miss Wigglesworth, and also to two kind and sympathizing helpers, who have passed from earth whilst this work was in the press—Miss Frances Ridley Havergal and Miss Jennette Threlfall.

For the use of hymns already published, they desire to render their warm thanks to several of the writers already mentioned, and also to Mrs. Alexander, to the Rev. H. Bonar, D.D., to the Rev. W. Bright, D.D., to the Rev. J. E. Bode, to the Rev. W. St. Hill Bourne, to Sister M. F. Clare, to the Rev. S. Childs Clarke, to the Rev. J. Erskine Clarke, to Mr. W. Chatterton Dix, to the Rev. H. Downton, to Miss Elliott, to the Rev. Canon Farrar, to Mr. Gilbert, to the Rev. J. W. Hewett, to the Rev. E. Harland, to the Rev. Cecil Hook, to Messrs. Hatchard, to the Rev. Vernon Hutton, to the Rev. J. W. Irons, D.D., to the Rev. J. S. Jones, to the Rev. T. Keble, to the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, to the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lichfield, to Mrs. Luke, to the Rev. R. F. Littledale, LL.D., (to whom they are under special obligation for much valuable assistance), to Mrs. Monsell, to the Rev. Cecil Moore, to the Rev. Gerard Moultrie, to Messrs. Masters, to the Earl Nelson, to Messrs. Novello, to the Rev. Francis Pott, to the Rev. G. R. Prynne, to the Rev. E. H. Plumptre, to the Rev. J. Parson, to Messrs. Parker, to the Rev. G. F. Smyttan, to Messrs. Skeffington, to the Rev. Godfrey Thring, to the Rev. Henry Twells, to the Rev. B. Webb, to the Very Rev. the Dean of Westminster.

Of the tunes it may equally be said that neither labour nor expense has been spared in their preparation, and that the endeavour worthily to set the hymns to music, has been the work of several years.

One great object has been to provide pleasing melodies, such as children can easily learn, and at the same time to secure the sound harmonies which shall accustom their ears to what is good. A simpler tune has occasionally been substituted for that generally set.

Where tunes of small merit have been admitted on account of their long-standing popularity, and in some other cases, a second tune has been given as an alternative. Counsel having been taken throughout with some of our most eminent Church composers, and especially with those well experienced in the requirements of children, it is earnestly hoped that the end sought will not be altogether unattained.

Although the tunes are mostly printed in the modern notation, it is not intended that they should be sung too rapidly. The style of each hymn, with its tune, should indicate, to the reverent mind, its proper speed. There is now, as regards the singing of hymns, an increasing reaction from the unseemly haste widely adopted some years ago, and a just medium between a careless drawl and an irreverent hurry is steadily gaining ground.

It is impossible to acknowledge adequately, the exceeding kindness shown towards the work throughout its progress, by proprietors of tunes, publishers, and composers; but special thanks must be expressed to the Rev. W. Pulling and the Committee of "Hymns Ancient and Modern" for their generous permission to make use of their copyright tunes as set to their own words; to Mr. Arthur Sullivan for his free permission to print many tunes from "Church Hymns," and his valuable information as to other tunes in that collection; to the Committee of the "Irish Church Hymnal"; to Sir Robert Stewart; and to the late Miss Frances Ridley Havergal, who kindly allowed the free use of tunes by the late Rev. W. H. Havergal and herself, published in "Songs of Grace and Glory."

Grateful and regretful mention must be made of the latest services rendered to Church and home psalmody by Mr. Henry Smart in the invaluable help he gave to this work during the last two years of his life, by writing tunes for it, and by giving his sanction to some of the new tunes, his revision to the harmonies of many standard tunes, and his much prized advice on many points.

Special acknowledgements are also due to the Rev. Sir Frederick A. Gore Ouseley, Bart., Mus. Doc., for his revision of other of the harmonies, for a new tune, and for the re-harmonizing of a melody of his own for this work; also to Professor W. H. Monk for his kind and important advice, and his readiness to afford assistance. Grateful thanks are also offered to Captain Bowdler Bell, for his efficient help in the revision of the proofs.

For tunes written expressly for this work, many thanks are offered to Dr. Armes, to Dr. Arnold, to Mr. E. W. Barber, to Mr. C. A. Barry, to * Mr. Cyril Bowdler, to Mr. Cameron W. H. Brock, to Mr. A. H.

* Who has also given permission to use some tunes taken from his forthcoming "Occasional Hymnal."

Brown, to the Rev. R. Brown-Borthwick, to Mrs. Jeffery Browning, to Mrs. Bruce, to the Rev. E. W. Bullinger, to Mrs. Callow, to Dr. Champneys, to Mrs. E. C. Chepmell, to Mr. Langdon Colborne, to Mr. Matthew Cooke, to Mr. W. de P. Crousaz, to the Rev. R. F. Dale, to the Rev. C. J. Dickinson, to Mr. J. W. Elliott, to Sir George J. Elvey, Mus. Doc., to Major A. Ewing, to the Rev. J. Hampton, to Mr. George Hinton, to Mr. R. Hoar, to Mr. E. J. Hopkins, to Dr. Iliffe, to Mr. Henry Lahee, to Mr. Lavington, to Mr. C. H. Lloyd, to Dr. Longhurst, to Prof. G. A. Macfarren, Mus. Doc., to Mr. Walter Macfarren, to Mr. F. A. Mann (Organist of Lowestoft), to the Rev. T. R. Matthews, to the late Rev. Peter Maurice, D.D., to Dr. E. G. Monk, to Prof. W. H. Monk, to Mr. T. Morley, to Dr. Naylor, to Prof. Sir Herbert Oakeley, Mus. Doc., to Prof. the Rev. Sir F. A. G. Ouseley, Bart., Mus. Doc., to Mr. T. German Reed, to the Rev. S. J. Rowton, to Madame Sainton-Dolby, to the Rev. H. F. Sheppard, to the Rev. Henry Sidebotham, to Mr. Joseph W. Sidebotham, to Mr. Samuel Smith, to Prof. Sir R. P. Stewart, Mus. Doc., to Mr. E. A. Sydenham, to Mr. Berthold Tours, to Mr. Turle, to Mr. A. H. Turner.

Some of the already-mentioned contributors are also sincerely thanked for permission to use tunes already published or written by them. Acknowledgements for kind assistance thus given by other composers, and by several proprietors and publishers, are also made as follows :—To HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, for her gracious permission to print the tune “Gotha,” composed by H.R.H. the late PRINCE CONSORT, to the Proprietors of the “Anglican Hymn Book,” to Mr. W. S. Bambridge, to the Rev. W. J. Blew and Mrs. Gauntlett, to the Rev. James Boulton, to the Rev. Lord T. Butler, to the Proprietors of the “Canterbury Tune Book,” to the Rev. E. S. Carter, to Messrs. Cassell, Petter, Galpin, & Co., to the Rev. R. R. Chope, to the Rev. S. Childs Clarke (for the use of a tune by the late Rev. J. B. Dykes, M.A., Mus. Doc.), to Mr. Cooper (for the use of a tune by the late Mr. George Cooper), to Mrs. Curteis, to the Rev. L. Darwall, to Mrs. Dykes (for the use of tunes by the late Rev. J. B. Dykes), to the Lady Victoria Evans Freke, to Mr. J. Farmer, to Mr. J. Downing Farrer, to Mr. W. Freestone, to Mrs. Gauntlett, to Mr. W. Gilbert, to the Rev. F. A. J. Hervey, to Mr. Burnham W. Horner, to the Rev. F. G. Hume, to Miss Hutton, to Miss A. C. Jackson, to Mr. Jekyll, to Mr. James Langran, to the Bishop of Lichfield, to the family of the late Dr. Cæsar Malan, of Geneva, to Messrs. Masters, to Mr. R. N. Matthews, to the Rev. W. Mercer, to Messrs. Metzler & Co., to Messrs. Nisbet & Co., to Messrs. Novello & Co., to Mrs. Palmer, to Mr. Arthur Patten, to the Rev. F. Peel, to the Rev. Clement Powell, to the Proprietors of the “Presbyterian Hymnal,” to Mr. S. D. Routh, to the Editors of the “Sarum Hymnal,” to the Rev. D.

Smith, to Mr. T. W. Staniforth, to Dr. Steggall, to Mr. R. Minton Taylor, to Mr. Trembath, to the Rev. H. A. Walker, to the Rev. F. A. Wesley for the use of the tune "Aurelia," by the late Dr. S. S. Wesley.

Great pains have been taken to discover the names of authors of hymns and of composers of tunes used; and should a copyright, in any case, have been infringed, it is hoped that the proprietors may be pardoned for what has been unintentional. Any such error, if pointed out, shall be remedied in a future edition.

Many thanks are also due to the Bishop of Bedford and the Rev. J. Ellerton, to the Rev. T. W. Sidebotham, to the Rev. H. Walter Brock, and to the numerous friends who have kindly afforded information respecting both hymns and tunes, and have rendered much valuable help in the preparation of the work.

In conclusion the Compilers desire to ask the prayers of all, that this work—the result of years of thought and labour—may, notwithstanding all imperfections, be acceptable to the Church of Christ and promote the glory of God.

Applications for permission to print copyright tunes, or words, must be addressed (accompanied by a stamped directed envelope) to the Editor,

MRS. CAREY BROCK,

The Deanery, Guernsey.

Eastnor Rectory, Leicestershire, 29th October, 1877.

Dear Madam,

I brought your letters before my colleagues at our general meeting on Thursday.

I am desired by them to communicate to you our unanimous and unhesitating decision to abandon our own long-cherished intention to bring out a children's hymn book, and to afford you the co-operation which you desire to obtain from us in your own arduous undertaking.

We were led to this conclusion by the knowledge, conveyed to us for the first time by your letters, that you had been engaged in the compilation of a child's hymn book, that you had been making for it long and anxious preparation, and that you had accumulated for it a large store of materials. We felt also that, in giving up our own book, long contemplated by us, and postponed only by other great, if not more important labours, we cannot resign this work into better hands than your own, or to a compiler more competent to meet successfully a want which we have always recognised, and which we had hoped to be permitted to provide for in behalf of Christ's little ones.

I remain, dear Madam,

Faithfully yours,

W. PULLING.

Chairman "H. A. M."

TO MRS. CAREY BROCK,
The Deanery, Guernsey.

THE
CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK.
MORNING.

1.—ARDBRACCAN.

L.M.

REV. C. J. DICKINSON.

"Hold Thou me up, and I shall be safe."

ALmighty Father, God of Love, Look down in mercy from above ; And be Thy gracious Hands outspread, In blessing o'er Thy children's head.	Preserve our feet from every snare, Help us to keep our hearts with care ; That though our threefold foes assail, They may not over us prevail.

We thank Thee for the care which kept Our homes in safety while we slept ; And now we pray that through the day, Thy loving Eye would guide our way.	As children guarded by Thine Arm, We feel ourselves secure from harm ; And go rejoicing on our way, Thy Presence all our joy and stay.
---	---

Then when the evening comes once more,
We will again Thy grace implore :
And lay us down in peace and sleep,
For Thou wilt watch around us keep. Amen.

Morning.

2.—PRIMA LUX.

L.M.

M. A. S.

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps) and common time (C). The melody is primarily in the Treble staff, with the Bass staff providing harmonic support. The piece concludes with the word 'A-men.' written below the final notes of the Treble staff.

"I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the Lord sustained me."

A GAIN the morning shines so bright, Again I see the pleasant light; The gloom of night has passed away, And I kneel down once more to pray. O gracious FATHER! Thou art kind, Upon Thine Arm I have reclined; And Thou hast given me peaceful sleep, And watched Thy child from harm to keep.	O blessed JESUS, kind and true, Thou, too, hast watched the long night through, And with an elder brother's care Hast guarded me from every snare. O HOLY SPIRIT! Thou hast shed Thy blessings also round my bed; No evil dream, no thoughts of fear, Could trouble me whilst Thou wert near.

O THREEFOLD GOD! who reign'st above,
 I thank Thee for this tender love;
 And now I kneel, and humbly pray,
 Oh, keep me through another day! Amen.

3.—DEW DROPS.

7.7.7.7. D.

DR. CHAMPNEYS.

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps) and common time (C). The melody is primarily in the Treble staff, with the Bass staff providing harmonic support. The piece concludes with a final double bar line.

Morning.

"I will sing a new song unto Thee, O God."

AS the bird in meadow fair,
Or in lonely forest, sings,
Till it fills the summer air,
And the greenwood sweetly rings,
So my heart to Thee would raise,
O my God, its song of praise,
That the gloom of night is o'er,
And I see the sun once more.

If Thou, Sun of Love, arise,
All my heart with joy is stirred,
And to greet Thee upward flies,
Gladsome as a soaring bird.
Shine Thou in me clear and bright,
Till I learn to praise Thee right :
Guide me in the narrow way,
Let me ne'er in darkness stray.

Bless to-day whate'er I do,
Bless whate'er I have and love ;
From Thy holy precepts true,
Suffer not Thy child to rove.
By Thy SPIRIT strengthen me
In the faith that leads to Thee ;
Then, an heir of life on high,
Fearless, I may live and die. Amen.

Morning.

4.—MORNING HYMN. [1st Tune.] L.M.

F. H. BARTHÉLÉMON.

4.—MORNING. [2nd Tune.] L.M.

W. BOYCE, Mus. Doc.
Har. E. G. MONK, Mus. Doc.

"I myself will awake right early."

AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise,
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past,
And live this day as if thy last ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great day thyself prepare,

Morning.

Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how all-seeing GOD thy ways,
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart
And with the angels hear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the Eternal King.

LORD, I to Thee my vows renew,
Disperse my sins as morning dew,

Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
To Thy sole glory may unite.

Praise GOD, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly hosts,
Praise FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST.

Amen

5.—DAY BY DAY.

S. 7. 8. 7.

REV. E. S. CARTER.

"Let Thy Name be magnified for ever."

DAY by day we magnify Thee—

When our hymns in school we raise;
Daily work begun and ended
With the daily voice of praise.

Day by day we magnify Thee—

When, as each new day is born,
On our knees at home we bless Thee
For the mercies of the morn.

Day by day we magnify Thee—

In our hymns before we sleep;
Angels hear them, watching by us,
CHRIST'S dear lands all night to keep.

Day by day we magnify Thee—

Not in words of praise alone;

Truthful lips and meek obedience

Show Thy glory in Thine own.

Day by day we magnify Thee—

When, for JESUS' sake, we try
Every wrong to bear with patience,
Every sin to mortify.

Day by day we magnify Thee—

Till our days on earth shall cease,
Till we rest from these our labours,
Waiting for Thy day in peace.

Then, on that eternal morning,

With Thy great eternal host,

May we fully magnify Thee—

FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST!

Amen.

Morning.

6.—THE BOURNE

6.5.6.5.

M. A. S.

In unison.

" Our Father which art in heaven."

FATHER, Holy FATHER,
Now the sun has come,
Bringing light and glory
From Thy Heavenly Home,
We Thy little children,
To Thy Throne above
We would hymn Thy praises,
We would sing Thy love.
Thou art wise and loving,
Thou art great and strong ;
Glad when we do rightly,
Grieved when we do wrong.
Hear us, Holy FATHER,
As to Thee we pray,
Asking Thee to keep us
Safe from harm to-day.

As our Saviour JESUS,
When a little child,
Gentle was, and holy,
Pure, and meek, and mild,
He shall be our copy ;
We will try to be Patient and obedient,
Leving, kind as He.
FATHER GOD, our FATHER,
Guide us every hour ;
Keep us safe, and shield us
From temptation's power.
So, when night returneth,
Holier may we be,
Kept from sin and sorrow,
All the nearer Thee. Amen.

7.—LUX MATUTINA.

5.5.10. D.

REV. J. B. DYKES, M.A.

Morning.

" Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God."

FRAMER of the light, Who from out the night The dawn of joyous day again dost bring, On our darkened eyes, Bid Thy bright beams rise ; Of endless glory teach us, LORD, to sing.	Raised from death-like sleep, Ever may we keep Alive within us thoughts of that great day ! Grant the ready mind, Give us grace to find, The strait gate unto life—the narrow way.

By Thy mercy still Spared our place to fill, O FATHER, be it ours Thy Name to bless ; Sheltered by Thy power, In each fleeting hour, Thy children guide to paths of holiness.	Onward to the goal Lead each striving soul, Upheld by strength Divine Thy grace supplies ; While it still is day, May we win our way Towards the mark and our high calling's prize. Amen.

E. W. BARBER.

A - men.

8.—BRANDENBURG. [2nd Tune.] 7.7.7.7.

German.

A - men.

"I will sing of the mercies of the Lord.

GOD of mercy and of love,
Listen from Thy heaven above,
While to Thee my voice I raise,
In a morning hymn of praise.

It was Thine Almighty Arm
Kept me all night long from harm ;
It is only, LORD, by Thee,
That another morn I see,

Morning.

Lo, the happy light of day
Drives the shadows all away !
Lo, it brings again to sight
All things beautiful and bright.

White clouds sailing in the air,
Little flowers so fresh and fair,
Greenest fields and rippling streams,
Glitter in the morning beams.

FATHER, keep me all day long
From all hurtful things and wrong ;
Make me an obedient child,
Make me loving, gentle, mild.
Hark ! the birds are singing gay ;
Let me sing as well as they,
Praise to Him Who reigns above,
For His mercies and His love. Amen.

9.—HYMNS FOR INFANT CHILDREN, No. 4. 7.7.7.7. REV. J. B. DYKES.

"Lead me into the land of uprightness."

JESUS, holy, undefiled,
Listen to a little child ;
Thou hast sent the glorious light,
Chasing far the silent night.
Thou hast sent the sun to shine
O'er this glorious world of Thine —
Warmth to give, and pleasant glow,
On each tender flower below.
Now the little birds arise,
Chirping gaily in the skies ;
Thee their tiny voices praise,
In the early songs they raise.
Thou, by Whom the birds are fed,
Give to me my daily bread ;
And Thy HOLY SPIRIT give,
Without Whom I cannot live.

Make me, LORD, obedient, mild,
As becomes a little child ;
All day long, in every way,
Teach me what to do and say.
Help me never to forget
That in Thy great book is set
All that children think and say,
For the awful judgment-day.
Let me never say a word
That will make Thee angry, LORD ;
Help me so to live in love,
As Thine Angels do above.
Make me, LORD, in work and play,
Thine more truly every day ;
And when Thou at last shalt come,
Take me to Thy Heavenly Home.

Amen.

Morning.

10.—ST. TIMOTHY.

C.M.

REV. SIR H. BAKER, Bart.
Arr. PROF. MONK.

*"Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."
"Do all in the name of the Lord Jesus."*

MY FATHER, for another night
Of quiet sleep and rest,
For all the joy of morning light,
Thy Holy Name be blest.
Now with the new-born day I give Myself anew to Thee,
That as Thou wilt I may live,
And what Thou wilt be.

Whate'er I do, things great or small,
Whate'er I speak or frame,
Thy glory may I seek in all,
Do all in JESUS' Name.
My FATHER, for His sake, I pray,
Thy child accept and bless;
And lead me by Thy grace to-day
In paths of righteousness. Amen.

11.—MELCOMBE.

L.M.

S. WEBBE.

Morning.

"His compassions fail not: they are new every morning"

NEW every morning is the love,
Our wakening and uprising prove,
Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.
New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.
If on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,

New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.
The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.
Only, O LORD, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

12.—JAM LUCIS. [1st Tune.] L.M.

Ancient Plain Song.

12.—KILLIN. [2nd Tune.] L.M.

"Early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee."

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That He, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm to-day.
May He restrain our tongues from strife,
And shield from anger's din our life,
And guard with watchful care our eyes
From earth's absorbing vanities.
Oh, may our inmost hearts be pure,
From thoughts of folly kept secure,

And pride of sinful flesh subdued
Through sparing use of daily food.
So we, when this day's work is o'er,
And shades of night return once more,
Our path of trial safely trod,
Shall give the glory to our God.
All praise to God the FATHER be,
All praise, Eternal SON, to Thee,
Whom with the SPIRIT we adore
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

Morning.

13.—O HELP ME, LORD.

L.M.

CYRIL BOWDLER.

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus."

O H, help me, LORD, this day to be
Thy own dear child, and follow
Thee ;
And lead me, Saviour, by Thy Hand
Onward toward Thy Holy Land.

When Thou didst leave Thy Throne on high
To dwell with men, for men to die,
All childhood's troubles Thou didst feel,
That Thou our childish wounds might heal.

The simple cross which I may bear
Is not too small for Thee to share,
And Thou canst make me kind and true
In everything I say or do.

Thus lead and teach me that I may
Grow more like Thee with each new day ;
For Thou, in Thy poor cottage home,
Wast tried, and Thou didst overcome.

And help me, more than all, to love
Thy FATHER, LORD, and mine above,
And then, as Thou wouldst have me do,
Honour my earthly parents too.

So day by day Thy love shall guide
Thy child still nearer to Thy Side,
Until in heaven I may be
For ever Thine, and dwell with Thee.

Amen.

14.—TATHAM. [1st Tune.] 7.6.7.6.

ROBERT HOAR.

Morning.

14.—MORNING LIGHT. [2nd Tune.] 7.6.7.6.

E. T.

"He setteth an end to darkness."

THE darkness now is over,
And all the world is bright ;
Praise be to CHRIST, Who keepeth
His children safe at night !

We cannot tell what gladness
May be our lot to-day,
What sorrow or temptation
May meet us on our way.

But this we know most surely,
That through all good or ill,
God's grace can always help us
To do His holy will.

Then, JESU, let the angels,
Who watched us through the night,
Be all day long beside us,
To guide our steps aright ;

And help us to remember,
In thought, and deed, and word,
That we are heirs of heaven,
And children of the LORD.

Then, when the evening cometh,
We'll kneel again to pray,
And thank Thee for the blessings
Bestowed throughout the day. Amen.

Morning.

15.—ST. STEPHEN. [1st Tune.] C.M.

REV. W. JONES,

15.—BERTHA. [2nd Tune.] C.M.

E. A. CURTEIS.

"My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning, O Lord."

THE morning, bright with rosy light,
Has waked me from my sleep ;
FATHER, I own Thy love alone
Thy little one doth keep.

All through the day, I humbly pray,
Be Thou my Guard and Guide ;

My sins forgive, and let me live,
LORD JESUS, near Thy Side.

Oh, make Thy rest within my breast,
Great SPIRIT of all grace ;
Make me like Thee, then shall I be Prepared to see Thy Face.

Morning.

16.—ANASTASIS.

Irregular.

REV. E. W. BULLINGER.

"He wakeneth morning by morning, He wakeneth mine ear to hear."

THE morning, the bright and the beautiful morning
Is up, and the sunshine is all on the wing ;
With its fresh flush of gladness the landscape adorning,
A gladness which nothing but morning can bring.
The earth is awaking : the sky and the ocean,
The river and forest, the mountain and plain ;
The city is stirring its living commotion ;
The pulse of the world is reviving again.
And we too awake, for our heavenly FATHER,
Who soothed us so gently to sleep on His Breast,
And made the soft stillness of evening to gather
Around us, now calls us again from our rest.
But, ere to our labours and duties returning,
We hasten to give Him the praise that is meet ;
In solemn devotion the first hours of morning
Our freest and freshest, we lay at His Feet.
Oh, now let us haste to our heavenly FATHER,
And ere the fair skies of life's dawning be dim,
Let us come with glad hearts, let us come all together ;
The morn of our youth let us hallow to Him. Amen.

* The quavers to be used for the 3rd line of verses 1 and 5.

Morning.

17.—THERFIELD.

6.5.6.5.7.7.

REV. R. F. DALL.

"My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest."

WHEN the morning breaketh,
And the dawn of day,

All creation waketh

With its joyous ray,
JESU, grant that Thou mayst be
Light and life again to me.

When the day, declining,
Fades in evening light,
And the stars' soft shining
Cheers the gloom of night,
JESU, may Thy child be blest
With Thy gifts of sleep and rest.

While my life is flowing
Onward through the years,
And Thy Hand bestowing
Joy, entwined with tears,
JESU, guide me by Thy love
To my home prepared above.

When life's shadows lengthen,
And its day dreams cease,
Then my spirit strengthen,
Give to me Thy peace;
JESU, let Thy Presence be
Life for evermore to me. Amen.

EVENING.

18.—DAY IS PAST.

5.5.7.7.

REV. L. DARWALL.

Evening.

"The darkness is no darkness to Thee, but the night is as clear as the day."

DAY is past and gone,
Darkness hastens on;
Blessed LORD, in mercy keep
Angel-guards around Thy sheep.

Work again is past,
Rest has come at last;
Blessed LORD, forgive, I pray,
All I have done wrong to-day.

Soon, in silence deep,
GOD will give me sleep;
Blessed LORD, be Thou my Light,
In the watches of the night.

When the night is o'er,
And I wake once more,
Blessed LORD, Who lovest me,
Make Thy child to follow Thee.
Amen.

19.—WOOLWICH.

L.M.

A. EWING.

"I will make them to lie down safely."

ERE evening shadows round me close,
And ere I seek my night's repose
To Thee, O LORD, I humbly raise
My simple infant hymn of praise.
Oh, give my voice sweet melody
To sing my evening hymn to Thee,
And in my heart pour Thy sweet love,
That it may reach Thine Ear above.

Oh, take this youthful heart of mine
And teach it from Thy Heart Divine
To praise Thy mercy and Thy power,
From morning's dawn to evening's hour.
O'er me, dear LORD, Thy night-watch keep,
And be my safety while I sleep,
And when the rays of morn I see,
My wakening thoughts shall turn to Thee.

Evening.

20.—SHADOWS.

7.7.7.7.8.5.8.5.

PROF. W. H. MONK.

A- men.

"At evening time it shall be light."

FATHER, while the shadows fall,
With the twilight, over all,
Deign to hear my evening prayer,
Make a little child Thy care.

Take me in Thy holy keeping
Till the morning break ;
Guard me through the darkness sleeping,
Bless me when I wake.

Evening.

Tw'as Thy Hand that all the day
Scattered joys along my way,
Crowned my life with blessings sweet,
Kept from snares my careless feet.
Take me, &c.

Like Thy patient love to me,
May my love to others be ;
All the wrong my hands have done,
Pardon, LORD, thro' CHRIST, Thy SON.
Take me, &c. Amen.

21.—TALLIS'S CANON.

L. M.

TALLIS.

"He shall defend thee under His wings."

GLORY to Thee, my GOD, this night,
For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings,
Beneath Thine own Almighty Wings !

Forgive me, LORD, for Thy dear SON,
The ill that I this day have done,
That, with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

Oh, may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my GOD when I awake.

When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply ;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Praise GOD, from Whom all blessings flow ;

Praise Him, all creatures here below ;
Praise Him above, angelic host ;
Praise FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST,
Amen.

Evening.

22.—TEMPLE.

8.4.8.4.8.8.8.4.

E. J. HOPKINS.

The musical score is written for two staves (treble and bass clef) in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). It consists of four systems of music. The first three systems each contain two measures of music. The fourth system contains two measures of music, with the second measure ending with the text 'A - men.' written below the staff. The music is a simple, rhythmic setting of the text, using eighth and quarter notes.

"He shall give His angels charge over thee."

G OD, Who madest earth and Heaven,	Guard us waking, guard us sleeping,
Darkness and light ;	And, when we die,
Who the day for toil hast given,	May we in Thy mighty keeping
For rest the night ;	All peaceful lie :
May Thine Angel-guards defend us,	When the last dread call shall wake us,
Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us,	Do not Thou our GOD forsake us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,	But to reign in Glory take us
This livelong night	With Thee on high. Amen.

Evening.

23.—SANCTUARY.

8.7.8.7.

REV. C. J. DICKINSON.

"The darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day."

HEAR Thy children, gentle JESUS,
While we breathe our evening
prayer ;
Save us from all harm and danger,
Take us 'neath Thy sheltering care.

Shield us from the wiles of Satan,
From the perils of this night ;
Safely may the guardian Angels
Keep us in their watchful sight.

Gentle JESUS ! look in pity
From Thy glorious Throne above ;
Though we sleep, Thy Heart is wakeful,
Still for us It beats with love.

Shades of evening fast are falling,
Day is fading into gloom ;
When our earthly life is ended,
Lead Thy ransomed children home.

Gentle JESUS ! hear Thy children
When they sing their hymns to Thee ;
Who, with FATHER and with SPIRIT,
Art ONE GOD Eternally. Amen.

"He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom."

JESUS, tender Shepherd, hear me,
 Bless Thy little lamb to-night ;
 Through the darkness be Thou near me,
 Watch my sleep till morning light.
 All this day Thy Hand has led me,
 And I thank Thee for Thy care ;

Thou hast clothed me, warmed, and fed me,
 Listen to my evening prayer.
 Let my sins be all forgiven,
 Bless the friends I love so well ;
 Grant me, LORD, a place in heaven,
 Happy there with Thee to dwell. Amen.

8.7.8.7.4.7

W. H. LONGHURST, Mus. Doc.

"Under His wings shalt thou trust."

NOW the solemn shadows darken,	Some in conflict sore have striven
And the daylight slowly dies ;	With temptation fierce and strong ;
Holy Saviour, Thine will hearken	Lord, to them let strength be given,
When Thy children's prayers arise :	If the battle should be long !
Blessed JESUS,	Blessed JESUS,
Look on us with loving Eyes.	Change their mourning into song.
Some are tried with doubts and dangers,	By Thy passion in the garden,
Some have found their hearts grow cold,	By Thine anguish on the tree,
Some are aliens now, and strangers	By that precious gift of pardon,
To the faith they loved of old :	Won for us alone by Thee !
Blessed JESUS,	Blessed JESUS,
Bring them back into the fold.	Set the sin-bound captives free.
When our earthly day is closing,
And the night grows still and deep,
Let us, in Thine Arms reposing,
Feel Thy power to save and keep :
Blessed JESUS,
Give Thine own beloved sleep. Amen.

Evening.

26.—KELSO.

6.6.6.6.

R. BROWN-BORTHWICK.

"I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest."

MY FATHER, hear my prayer
Before I go to rest ;
It is Thy little child
That cometh to be blest.

LORD, help me every day
To love Thee more and more,
And try to do Thy will
Much better than before.

Forgive me all my sin,
And let me sleep this night
In safety and in peace
Until the morning light.

Now look upon me, LORD,
Ere I lie down to rest,
It is Thy little child
That cometh to be blest. Amen.

27.—ANGEL TOWER.

7.6 7.6. D.

W. H. LONGHURST, Mus. Doc.

Evening.

"Be not far from me."

MY Saviour, be Thou near me
 When I lie down to sleep,
 And safe from every danger
 My soul and body keep.
 With Thee there is no darkness,
 The light it shineth still;
 My Saviour, be Thou near me,
 And I will fear no ill.

My Saviour, be Thou near me
 When Satan doth assail,
 To strengthen and protect me,
 That he may not prevail.
 When sorrows come upon me,
 And days are dark and sad,
 My Saviour, be Thou near me,
 And I shall still be glad.

My Saviour, be Thou near me
 In sickness and in pain,
 To teach my spirit patience,
 To make my sorrow gain.
 When heart and flesh are failing,
 Receive my parting breath;
 My Saviour, be Thou near me
 To comfort me in death.

And then, for ever near Thee,
 Safe in that happy place
 Where angels sing Thy praises,
 And saints behold Thy Face;
 My joy shall be Thy Presence,
 Yes, this my Heaven will be,
 My Saviour will be near me
 Through all eternity. Amen.

28.—UPTON CRESSETT. [2nd Tune.] 6.5.6.5.

G. HINTON.

"When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet."

NOW the day is over
Night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.

Now the darkness gathers,
Stars begin to peep;
Birds and beasts and flowers
Soon will be asleep.

Jesu, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose:
With Thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

Grant to little children,
Visions bright of Thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep blue sea.

Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain;
Those who plan some evil
From their sin restrain.

Through the long night watches
May thine Angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise,
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In Thy holy Eyes.

Glory to the FATHER,
Glory to the SON,
And to Thee, blest SPIRIT
Whilst all ages ran. Amen.

"Have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer."

NOW the sun has passed away
 With the golden light of day ;
 Now the shades of silent night
 Hide the flowers from our sight ;

Now the little stars on high
 Twinkle in the mighty sky ;
 FATHER, merciful and mild,
 Listen to Thy little child.

Evening.

Heavenly FATHER, put away
All things wrong I've done to-day ;
Make me gentle, true, and good,
Make me love Thee as I should ;
Make me feel by day and night
I am ever in Thy sight :
JESUS was a little child,
Make me, like Him, meek and mild.

Heavenly FATHER, hear my prayer,
Take Thy child into Thy care !
Let Thy Angels, good and bright,
Watch around me through the night ;
Keep me now, and, when I die,
Take me to the glorious sky :
FATHER, merciful and mild,
Listen to Thy little child. Amen.

7·7·7·7.

REV. W. H. HAVERGAL.

" Abide with us, for it is toward evening."

NOW the daylight goes away,
Saviour, listen while I pray,
Asking Thee to watch and keep,
And to send me quiet sleep.

JESUS, Saviour, wash away
All that has been wrong to-day ;
Help me every day to be
Good and gentle, more like Thee.

Let my near and dear ones be
Always near and dear to Thee ;
Oh, bring me and all I love
To Thy happy home above !

Now my evening praise I give ;
Thou didst die that I might live,
All my blessings come from Thee ;
Oh, how good Thou art to me !

Thou, my best and kindest Friend,
Thou wilt love me to the end ;
Let me love Thee more and more,
Always better than before. Amen.

"The sun shall no more go down."

THE day, O LORD, is spent,
Abide with us, and rest ;
Our heart's desires are fully bent
On making Thee our guest.

Our sun is sinking now ;
Our day is almost o'er ;
O Sun of Righteousness, do Thou
Shine on us evermore !

We have not reached that Land,
That happy Land, as yet,
Where holy Angels round Thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

From men below the skies,
And all the Heavenly Host,
To GOD the FATHER praise arise,
The SON and HOLY GHOST. Amen.

32.—HURSLEY. [2nd Tune.] L.M.

"Abide with us."

SUN of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes!

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's Breast.

Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the Voice Divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin,
Let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick, enrich the poor,
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
We lose ourselves in Heaven above.

Amen.

"Abide with us."

SUN of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near ;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes !

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,

Evening.

"The shadows of evening are stretched out."

THE day is done,
O GOD the SON
Look down upon Thy little one.

Thy gentle Eye
Is ever nigh,
It watches me when none is by.

O Light of light
Keep me this night,
And shed round me Thy Presence bright. Thy little children's prayers to hear.

I need not fear
If Thou art near,
Thou art my SAVIOUR, kind and dear. I lay me down to rest in Thee.

TO FATHER, SON,
AND SPIRIT, ONE
In Heaven and earth, all praise be done. Amen.

4.4.6.4.4.6.

R. BROWN-BORTHWICK.

Quietly.

"The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

THE daylight fades,
The evening shades
Are gathering round my head;
FATHER above,
I praise that love
Which nightly guards my bed.

While Thou art near
I need not fear
The gloom of midnight hour;

Blest JESUS, still
From every ill
Defend me with Thy power!

Pardon my sin,
And enter in
To sanctify my heart;
SPIRIT Divine,
Oh, make me Thine,
And ne'er from me depart! Amen.

7.6.7.6. D.

REV. T. R. MATTHEWS.

A-men.

"Thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer."

THE hours of day are over,
The evening calls us home ;
Once more to Thee, O FATHER,
With thankful hearts we come ;
For all Thy countless blessings
We praise Thy holy Name,
And own Thy love unchanging,
Through days and years the same.

For life, and health, and shelter,
From harm throughout the day,
The kindness of our teachers,
The gladness of our play ;
For all the dear affection
Of parents, brothers, friends,
To Thee our thanks we render,
Who these, and all things, sends.

Evening.

But these, O LORD, can show us
Thy goodness but in part ;
Thy love would lead us onward
To know Thee as Thou art ;
Thy SON came down from Heaven
To take away our sin,
Thy SPIRIT dwells among us
To make us clean within.
For this, O LORD, we bless Thee,
For this we thank Thee most—
The cleansing of the sinful,
The saving of the lost ;

The Teacher ever present,
The Friend for ever nigh,
The home prepared by JESUS
For us beyond the sky.
LORD, gather all Thy children
To meet Thee there at last,
When earthly tasks are ended,
And earthly days are past ;
With all our dear ones round us
In that eternal home,
Where death no more shall part us,
And night shall never come ! Amen.

"I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest."

THROUGH the day Thy love has spared us ;
Now we lay us down to rest ;
Through the silent watches guard us ;
Let no foe our peace molest ;
JESUS, Thou our Guardian be ;
Sweet it is to trust in Thee.

Pilgrims here on earth and strangers,
Dwelling in the midst of foes,
Us and ours preserve from dangers ;
In Thine Arms may we repose,
And, when life's brief day is past,
Rest with Thee in Heaven at last.
Amen.

Sunday.

"O Lord, open Thou my lips, and my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise."

AGAIN the morn of gladness,
The morn of light, is here ;
And earth itself looks fairer,
And heaven itself more near :
The bells, like angel voices,
Speak peace to every breast ;
And all the land lies quiet
To keep the day of rest.

After each verse.

Glory be to JESUS,
Let all His children say ;
He rose again, He rose again,
On this glad day !

Again, O loving Saviour,
The children of Thy Grace
Prepare themselves to seek Thee
Within Thy chosen place :
Our song shall rise to greet Thee,
If Thou our hearts wilt raise ;
If Thou our lips wilt open,
Our mouth shall show Thy praise.
Glory be, &c.

The shining choir of angels
That rest not day nor night,

The crowned and palm-decked martyrs,
The saints arrayed in white,
The happy lambs of JESUS
In pastures fair above,
These all adore and praise Him
Whom we, too, praise and love
Glory be, &c

The Church on earth rejoices
To join with these to-day ;
In every tongue and nation
She calls her sons to pray :
Across the northern snow-fields,
Beneath the Indian palms,
She makes the same "pure offering,"
And sings the same sweet psalms.
Glory be, &c.

Tell out, sweet bells, His praises !
Sing, children, sing His Name !
Still louder and still further
His mighty deeds proclaim !
Till all whom He redeemed
Shall own Him Lord, and King ;
Till every knee shall worship,
And every tongue shall sing—
Glory be, &c. Amen

S. S. WESLEY, Mus. Doc.

A-men.

"This is the day which the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it."

O DAY of rest and gladness,
 O day of joy and light,
 O balm of care and sadness,
 Most beautiful, most bright;
 On thee the high and lowly,
 Through ages join'd in tune,
 Sing, Holy, Holy, Holy,
 To the great GOD Triune.

On thee, at the creation,
 The light had first its birth;
 On thee, for our salvation,
 CHRIST rose from depths of earth;
 On thee, our Lord victorious
 The spirit sent from heaven;
 And thus on thee most glorious,
 A triple light was given.

Sunday.

Thou art a port protected
From storms that round us rise ;
A garden intersected
With streams of paradise ;
Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand :
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view the promised land.

Thou art a holy ladder
Where angels go and come ;
Each Sunday finds us gladder,
Nearer to heaven, our home :
A day of sweet refection
Thou art, a day of love ;
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

To-day on weary nations
The heavenly Manna falls ;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls ;
Where Gospel-light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

New graces ever gaining
From this, our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining,
To spirits of the blest.
To HOLY GHOST be praises,
To FATHER and to SON ;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest THREE in ONE.

Amen.

"Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house : they will be always praising Thee."

HAIL ! sacred day of earthly rest,
From toil and trouble free ;
Hail ! day of light, that bringest light
And joy to me.

A holy stillness, breathing calm
On all the world around,
Uplifts my soul, O God, to Thee,
Where rest is found.

No sound of jarring strife is heard,
As weekly labours cease ;

No voice, but those that sweetly sing
Sweet songs of peace.

On all I think, or say, or do,
A ray of light divine
Is shed, O God, this day by Thee,
For it is Thine.

Accept, O God, my hymn of praise,
That Thou this day hast given ;
Sweet foretaste of that endless day
Of rest in heaven. Amen.

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day."

BLEST day of God, how calm, how bright,
A day of joy and praise ;
The labourers rest, the saints delight :
The first and best of days.

This day the Lord, our Saviour, rose
Victorious from the dead :
And as a conquerer, His foes
In glorious triumph led.

This day believers doth enrich ;
May grace rest on them all :
It is their Pentecost, on which,
The HOLY GHOST doth fall.

As the first fruits an earnest prove
Of all the sheaves behind,
So they who do the Sabbath love,
A happy week shall find. Amen.

COME, and let us hail the dawning
Of our Saviour's rising day;
Let us hail the happy morning
When His people first could say,
"He is risen, He is risen :"
Let us sing as well as they.

Come, and let us seek the blessing
Which He gives His saints to-day;
Peace to all their sins confessing,
Grace to help them to obey;
He is waiting, He is waiting,
Now to hear us : Let us pray. Amen.

"This day shall be unto you for a memorial."

THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours His own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the Throne.

To-day He rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell:
To-day the saints His triumphs spread,
And all His wonders tell.

Hosanna to the anointed King,
To David's Holy Son!
Help us, O Lord! descend and bring Salvation from Thy Throne.

Hosanna in the highest strains
The Church on earth can raise;
The highest heaven in which He reigns,
Shall give Him nobler praise. Amen.

"Ye are all the children of light."

THIS is the day the light was made,
That glorious gift of Heaven;
This is the day the Lord arose,
The best of all the seven.

This is the day the darkness fled,
And death to life gave way;
To light and life for evermore
God calls His saints to-day.

Then wake, ye children of the light,
And hearken to His Voice;

With early songs of praise draw nigh,
And in His courts rejoice.

Let sin, and sloth, and faithless fear,
From every heart be driven;
Spend we this day as they that hope
To gain the joys of Heaven.

Praise to the FATHER and the SON,
And equal praise be Thine,
Blest SPIRIT, Who our hearts dost fill
With light and life Divine. Amen.

Two systems of musical notation for the organ. The first system consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The second system also consists of two staves with the same key signature and time signature. The music is written in a style typical of 17th-century German organ music, featuring block chords and simple melodic lines. The piece concludes with the text 'A - men.' written above the final notes of the second system.

This block contains the musical score for the hymn 'ON THIS DAY' (2nd Tune). It is divided into two main sections. The first section is for the VOICES, with a single staff of music. Below the vocal line, the lyrics are written: 'On this day, the first of days, GOD the FATHER'S Name we praise;'. The second section is for the ORGAN, with two staves of music. Above the organ staves, the word 'Dolce.' is written. Below the organ staves, the lyrics continue: 'Who, creation's Lord and Spring, Did the world from darkness bring. A - men.'. The organ part is written in a style that complements the vocal line, using block chords and simple melodic lines. The page number '46' is printed at the bottom center of the page.

"Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul."

AND now this holy day
Is drawing to its end,
Once more, to Thee, O LORD,
Our thanks and prayers we send.

We thank Thee for this rest
From earthly care and strife ;
We thank Thee for this help
To higher, holier life.

We thank Thee for Thy house ;
It is Thy palace gate,
Where Thou, upon Thy Throne
Of mercy, still dost wait.

We thank Thee for Thy Word,
Thy Gospel's joyful sound ;

Oh, may its holy fruits
Within our hearts abound !

Yet ere we go to rest,
FATHER, to Thee we pray,
Forgive the sins which stain
E'en this Thy holy day.

Through JESUS let the past
Be blotted from Thy sight ;
And let us all now sleep
At peace with Thee this night.

To GOD the FATHER, SON,
And SPIRIT, glory be,
From all in earth and Heaven,
Through all eternity. Amen.

REV. T. R. MATTHEWS.

"On the seventh day He rested and was refreshed."

ERE another Sunday close,
 Ere again we seek repose,
 LORD, our song ascends to Thee,
 At Thy Feet we bow the knee.
 For the mercies of the day,
 For this rest upon our way,
 Thanks to Thee alone be given,
 Lord of earth and King of Heaven.
 Cold our services have been,
 Prayers and praises stained with sin ;

But Thou canst and wilt forgive ;
 By Thy grace alone we live.

Whilst this thorny path we tread,
 May Thy love our footsteps lead ;
 When our journey here is past,
 May we rest with Thee at last.

Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
 Foretastes of our rest above ;
 While their steps Thy pilgrims bend
 To the rest which knows no end.

One, O LORD, we meet to-day,
 One in heart and voice to pray,
 Soon to bend our peaceful way,
 Homeward with the sun;
 May the bonds of living love
 Bind us closer as we move
 Onward to our home above,
 When our day is done.

One we meet to pray and sing
 Praises to our heavenly King;
 LORD, in this and everything,
 Make us one in Thee,
 One in heart and one in mind,
 One in fellowship combined,
 Seeking good in all to find,
 Good in all to see.

One from rise to set of sun,
 One, our working-day, and one,
 When our day of work is done,
 In our home above;
 One with all we love the most,
 Praising with the Angel Host,
 FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST,
 ONE in Heavenly Love, Amen.

ASCENDED Lord, accept our praise, To tread our lowly pathway here,
 As, with adoring eye, Until we see Thy Face.
 From this dim earth we lift our gaze, And week by week we ask this day
 To Thy bright home on high. Fresh gleams of heavenly light,
 We may not stay our lingering feet To cheer us on our toilsome way,
 Upon the sacred hill, And brighten all our night.
 Nor with blest dreams and visions sweet Then praise to Thee ascended Lord,
 Stand gazing upwards still. O FATHER, praise to Thee!
 For Thou, Lord, shalt once more appear, And Thou, O SPIRIT, be adored,
 And we would seek Thy grace, One GOD in TRINITY. Amen.

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and follow Me."

O JESU, crucified for man! Oh, may we bear Thy marks below,
 O Lamb, all glorious on Thy Throne! In conquered sin and chastened life!
 Teach Thou our wondering love to scan And week by week, this day we ask,
 The mystery of Thy love unknown. That holy memories of Thy Cross
 We pray Thee grant us strength to take May sanctify each common task,
 Our daily cross, whate'er it be; And turn to gain each earthly loss.
 And gladly, for Thine own dear sake, Grant us, dear Lord, our cross to bear,
 In paths of pain to follow Thee. Till at Thy Feet we lay it down;
 As on our daily way we go, Win through Thy Blood our pardon there.
 Through light or shade, in calm or strife, And through the Cross attain the crown.

"God did rest the seventh day from all His works."

SABBATH of the saints of old,
Day of mysteries manifold,
By the great Creator blest,
Type of His eternal rest!

Resting from His work, the LORD
Spake to-day the hallowing word;
Resting from His work to-day,
In the tomb the Saviour lay.

Till that tomb she might draw near,
Till the morrow should appear,
All the seventh day between,
Rested mournful Magdalene.

So with Thee till life shall end,
LORD, our vigil we would spend;
So in patient watch remain
Until Thou appear again.

Then, Thy new creation done;
Then, Thy endless rest begun;
Saved from danger, freed from sin,
We with Thee shall enter in. Amen.

1. For all Thy love and goodness, so bounti-ful and free, Thy Name, LORD,

Spring.

Last verse. Slower.

"The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come."

FOR all Thy love and goodness, so bounti-ful and free,
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored!
 On the wings of joyous praise our hearts soar | up to Thee :
 Glory to the LORD !

The spring-time breaks all round about, waking from | winter's night :
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 The sunshine, like GOD's love, pours down in floods of | golden light :
 Glory to the LORD !

A voice of joy is in all the earth, a voice is in | all the air :
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 All nature singeth aloud to GOD ; there is gladness | everywhere :
 Glory to the LORD !

The flowers are strewn in field and copse, on the hill and | on the plain :
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 The soft air stirs in the tender leaves that clothe the | trees again :
 Glory to the LORD !

The works of Thy Hands are very fair, and for all Thy | bounteous love
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 But what, if this world is so fair, is the better | land above ?
 Glory to the LORD !

Oh, to awake from death's short sleep, like the flowers from their | wintry grave!
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 And to rise all glorious in the day when CHRIST shall | come to save !
 Glory to the LORD !

Oh, to dwell in that happy land, where the heart cannot | choose but sing !
 Thy Name, LORD, be adored !
 And where the life of the blessed ones is a beautiful | endless spring !
 Glory to the LORD ! Alleluia. Amen.

Over land and sea,
Happy light is flowing
Bountiful and free.

Everything rejoices
In earth's mellow rays ;
All earth's thousand voices
Swell the psalm of praise.

Summer.—Autumn.

GOD's free mercy streameth
Over all the world,
And His banner gleameth
Everywhere unfurled.
Broad and deep and glorious
As the heaven above,
Shines in might victorious
His eternal Love.

LORD, upon our blindness
Thy pure radiance pour ;
For Thy loving-kindness
Make us love Thee more.

And when clouds are drifting
Dark across our sky,
Then, the veil uplifting,
FATHER, be Thou nigh.

We will never doubt Thee,
Though Thou veil Thy light,
Life is dark without Thee,
Death with Thee is bright.
Light of Light, shine o'er us
On our pilgrim way ;
Go Thou still before us
To the endless day. Amen.

"See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise."

SEE the leaves around us falling,
Dry and withered, to the ground,
Thus to thoughtless mortals calling,
With a sad and solemn sound :

"Sons of Adam, once in Eden—
Where, like us, he blighted fell—
Hear the lesson we are reading,
Mark the awful truth we tell !

"Ye, on length of days presuming,
Who the paths of pleasure tread,
View us, late in beauty blooming,
Numbered now among the dead."

On the tree of Life Eternal
Oh, let all our hopes be laid ;
This alone for ever vernal,
Bears a leaf that shall not fade.

Amen.

WINTER.

63.—CLARENCE.

7-7-7-7.

Arranged by ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

"And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds."

WINTER reigneth o'er the land,
Freezing with its icy breath;
Dead and bare the tall trees stand;
All is chill and drear as death.

Yet it seemeth but a day
Since the summer flowers were here,
Since they stacked the balmy hay,
Since they reaped the golden ear.

Winter.—Advent.

Sunny days are passed and gone :
So the years go, speeding fast,
Onward ever, each new one
Swifter speeding than the last.

Life is waning ; life is brief ;
Death, like winter, standeth nigh :
Each one, like the falling leaf,
Soon shall fade, and fall, and die.

But the sleeping earth shall wake,
And the flowers shall burst in bloom,
And all Nature, rising, break
Glorious from its wintry tomb.

So, LORD, after slumber blest
Comes a bright awakening,
And our flesh in hope shall rest
Of a never-fading Spring. Amen.

"The desire of all nations shall come."

COME, Thou long-expected JESUS,
Born to set Thy people free,
From our fears and sins release us,
Let us find our rest in Thee.

Israel's strength and consolation,
Hope of all the earth Thou art,
Dear desire of every nation,
Joy of every longing heart.

Born Thy people to deliver,
Born a Child and yet a King ;
Born to reign in us for ever,
Now Thy gracious Kingdom bring.

By Thine own Eternal SPIRIT
Rule in all our hearts alone ;
By Thine all-sufficient merit
Raise us to Thy glorious Throne.

HARK the glad sound ! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long ;
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

He comes, the prisoners to release
In Satan's bondage held :
The gates of brass before Him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of His grace
To bless the humble poor.

Our glad Hosannas, Prince of peace,

Who loved the Saviour so.

Hosanna, now through Advent,
With loving hearts we sing,
For JESUS CHRIST is coming
To be His children's King.

Hosanna ! blessed JESU ;
Come, in our hearts to dwell,
And let our lives and voices
Thy praise and glory tell.

For we who sing Hosanna,
Must like our Saviour be,
In gentleness and meekness,
In love and purity.

Hosanna, let this welcome
Ring out from every heart ;
Draw nigh to us, O JESU,
And never more depart.

So when we see Thee coming
With angels in the sky ;

Hosanna ! loud Hosanna !
Shall be Thy children's cry. Amen.

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace on the left. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The treble staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The melody in the treble staff is composed of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with similar rhythmic values. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system continues the musical piece. It features the same treble and bass staff arrangement. The treble staff contains a melodic line with some chromatic movement, including a sharp sign (F#) and a flat sign (B-flat). The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system of musical notation continues the piece. The treble staff shows a melodic line with various intervals, including a sharp sign (F#) and a flat sign (B-flat). The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation is the final system on the page. It includes the cres. (crescendo) and dim. (diminuendo) markings above the treble staff. The treble staff features a melodic line that rises and then falls. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line.

"The Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout."

LITTLE children, Advent bids you
 Meet your Lord upon His way ;
 Watch ! for now the night is waning,
 Soon will dawn the endless day.
 Little children, JESUS bids you
 Daily pray, Thy Kingdom come ;
 Watch ! and wait for His appearing
 Till He come to take you home.

Little children, He anoints you
 With His SPIRIT from above ;
 See then that your lamps be burning
 With the fire of faith and love.
 Little children, when we think not
 We shall hear the awful cry,
 "Go ye forth to meet the Bridegroom ;
 Haste, for JESUS draweth nigh !"

Little children, they shall meet Him,
 Faithful children of the light ;
 They whose lamps are trimmed and burning,
 And their garments pure and white.
 Oh, how blest to fall before Him !
 Oh, how blest His praise to sing !
 Love Him, serve Him, and adore Him,
 In the city of our King ! Amen.

Now redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear,
All His Saints, by man rejected,
Now shall meet Him in the air:
Alleluia!
See the day of GOD appear!

Yea, Amen, let all adore Thee,

Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.

Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim

"CHRIST is born in Bethlehem."

Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

CHRIST, by highest Heaven adored,
CHRIST, the Everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold Him come,
Offspring of a Virgin's womb.

Veiled in flesh the Godhead see!
Hail, the Incarnate Deity!

Pleased as Man with man to dwell,
JESUS, our EMMANUEL.

Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!

Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!

Light and life to all He brings,

Risen with healing in His Wings.

Mild He lays His glory by,

Born that man no more may die,

Born to raise the sons of earth,

Born to give them second birth.

Hark! the herald-angels sing

Glory to the new-born King. Amen

plain
Echoed with the joyful strain,
'Peace has come to earth again.'
Alleluia.

Bless'd hills, that heard the song
Of the glorious angel throng
Swelling all your slopes along
Alleluia !

Happy shepherds, on whose ear,
Fell the tidings glad and clear,
'God to man is drawing near.'
Alleluia !

Thus revealed to shepherds' eyes,
Hidden from the great and wise,
Entering earth in lowly guise—
Alleluia !

Entering by the narrow door,
Laid upon this rocky floor,
Placed in yonder manger poor.
Alleluia !

We adore Thee as our King,
And to Thee our song we sing ;
Our best offering to Thee bring,
Alleluia !

Mighty King of Righteousness,
King of Glory, King of Peace,
Never shall Thy kingdom cease !
Alleluia ! Amen.

HARK, what music fills the sky !
Glory be to GOD on high,
Angels sing, and Hosts reply,
Alleluia !

To the sons of men is given
God's dear SON, best gift of heaven,
Pledge of grace, and sin forgiven,
Alleluia !

Righteousness and peace embrace,
For the Prince of Peace doth place
His Right Hand on Adam's race,
Alleluia !

Would ye see the wondrous sign,
In a manger, Child Divine,
Lies the Heir of David's line,
Alleluia !

Thee we own as Lord and King,
And as tribute meet we bring
Songs which Angels cannot sing,

"Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy."

LITTLE children, wake and listen,
Songs are breaking o'er the earth;
While the stars in heaven glisten,
Hear the news of JESUS' birth.

Long ago, to lonely meadows,
Angels brought the message down,
Still each year, thro' midnight shadows,
It is heard in every town.

What is this that they are telling,
Singing in the quiet street,
While their voices high are swelling,
What sweet words do they repeat?

Words to bring us greater gladness,
Though our hearts from care are free,
Words to chase away our sadness,
Cheerless though our heart may be.

CHRIST has left His Throne of glory,
And a lowly cradle found:
Well might angels tell the story,
Well may we their words resound.

Little children, wake and listen,
Songs are ringing through the earth,
While the stars in heaven glisten,
Hail with joy your Saviour's birth!

 Told the tidings glad and free,
 "CHRIST Incarnate deigns to be."

 Rough the manger-bed that holds

 LORD all holy, laid so lowly,
 Who from highest realm of heaven
 Stoops that man may be forgiven.

7.7.7.7.6.4. REV. R. F. DALE, M.A., Mus. Bac., Oxon.

A musical score for a Christmas carol. It consists of two systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The first system ends with a double bar line. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, ending with the text 'A-men.' written below the treble staff.

"There was no room for them in the inn."

NO room" within the dwelling
For Him whose love excelling
Towards those who never sought Him,
To earth from heaven brought Him,
Who counted not the cost
To seek the lost.

"No room;" so to the manger
They bore the kingly stranger;
But angel hosts attended,
And angel voices blended,
Whilst on His mother's breast
He lay at rest.

"No room." O Babe so tender
To Thee our hearts we render,
Not meet for Thy possessing,
Yet make them by Thy blessing
A home wherein to dwell,
EMMANUEL! Amen.

"He came to Nazareth, and was subject unto His parents."

ONCE in royal David's city
 Stood a lowly cattle shed,
 Where a mother laid her Baby
 In a manger for His bed :
 Mary was that mother mild,
 JESUS CHRIST her little Child.
 He came down to earth from heaven
 Who is God and Lord of all,
 And His shelter was a stable,
 And His cradle was a stall ;
 With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
 Lived on earth our Saviour holy.
 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
 He would honour and obey,
 Love and watch the lowly maiden
 In whose gentle arms He lay :
 Christian children all must be
 Mild, obedient, good as He.

For He is our childhood's pattern,
 Day by day like us He grew,
 He was little, weak, and helpless,
 Tears and smiles like us He knew,
 And He feeleth for our sadness,
 And He shareth in our gladness.
 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
 Through His own redeeming love,
 For that Child so dear and gentle
 Is our Lord in heaven above ;
 And He leads His children on
 To the place where He is gone.
 Not in that poor lowly stable,
 With the oxen standing by,
 We shall see Him : but in Heaven,
 Set at God's Right Hand on high ;
 When like stars His children crowned,
 All in white shall wait around. Amen.

"Their sound is gone out into all lands."

WHILE the shepherds kept their vigil,
And the world in darkness lay,
Came the holy Advent-angel,
Shone the sudden glory-ray ;
Then, ten thousand times ten thousand,
Radiant heralds of the day.

Thus they sang the first sweet carol,
 "Glory be to GOD on high,
 And on earth be peace and blessing
 To the nations far and nigh!"
 So our GOD made good His promise,
 And the old prophetic cry.

Fuller, farther, o'er the wide world,
Year by year that music swells ;
Year by year to some new people
Christmas tide the story tells,
With the chanting of the children,
And the pealing of the bells.

Louder over hill and valley
Let the towers and steeples ring !
In the hamlet and the city
Sweeter carols let us sing—
Louder peals of holy pleasure,
Sweeter carols to our King !

Hear Thy children, blessed JESUS,
Once for us on earth a Child ;
Keep us in Thy great compassion
Holy, harmless, undefiled ;
Blest through Thee by God the SPIRIT,
To the FATHER reconciled.

Still we wait for Thine appearing,
O Thou bright and Morning Star!
Still we look to hear the rolling
Of Thy great triumphal car;
We, who sing Thy first glad Advent,
Know Thy second is not far. Amen.

"Rightousness and peace have kissed each other."

THE joyful morn is breaking,
 The brightest morn of earth,
 Through all creation waking
 The joy of JESUS' birth.
 His star above is glistening,
 Where JESUS cradled lies,
 And all the earth is listening
 The carol of the skies.

High strains of praise are swelling
 From angel hosts on high,
 And one soft voice is telling
 Glad tidings from the sky ;
 Tidings of free salvation,
 Of peace on earth below ;
 Through every land and nation
 The blessed word shall go !

His children's songs shall name Him
 In many a tongue to-day ;
 His Church shall yet proclaim Him
 To people far away ;
 Till idols fall before Him,
 Till strife and wrong shall cease,
 Till all the earth adore Him,
 The eternal Prince of Peace ! Amen.

ESTE'S Psalter.

"Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the LORD came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he—for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind—
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

"To you in David's town this day,
Is born of David's line,
A Saviour, who is CHRIST the Lord,
And this shall be the sign :

"The Heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the Seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising GOD, who thus
Addressed their joyful song :

"All glory be to GOD on high,
And on the earth be peace ;
Goodwill henceforth, from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease." Amen.

St. John the Evangelist.

"God is Love."

IN the blackness of the cloud,
When the thunder waxeth loud ;
In the swelling of the sea,
When the wave roars horribly ;
In the seed that first must die,
Ere the plant shall rise on high ;
In the opening of the flower,
We are taught that God is Power.

In the wandering stars that go
By a path we little know,
And their Maker's voice obey,
Travelling on their heavenly way ;
In the sun that knows his time,
To his highest point to climb ;
In the moon and starry skies,
We are taught that God is Wise.

When we mark how God's Right Arm
Keeps His people free from harm ;
And when all things else have failed,
How His promise hath prevailed ;
How, when every hope seems gone,
Still He leads His chosen on ;
Up to hoary hairs from youth,
We are taught that God is Truth.

When we turn our thoughts aside
To this holy Christmas-tide,
How He came for man below,
God of God, to suffer woe ;
Oh, how thankfully we say,
With the blessed Saint to-day,
He that dwells in heaven above,
Dwelt on earth, for "God is Love,"

Doxology.

Him by Whom mankind was made,
Him that was for man betrayed,
Him by Whom we live anew,
Praise we ever as is due. Amen.

INNOCENTS' DAY.

85.—INNOCENTS.

7.7.7.7.

Innocents' Day.—Circumcision.

"These were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits unto God and to the Lamb."

LORD, to Thee glad songs of praise
For Thine innocents we raise,
Firstlings of Thy martyr band,
Slain by Herod's cruel hand.
First to follow Thee, the Lamb,
Triumphing with crown and palm,
Death shall never touch them more,
Pain and grief for them are o'er.

Infant martyrs round Thy Throne,
Thou dost keep them for Thine own ;
Thy blest Steps they follow still,
Praise Thy Name, and work Thy Will.
With their anthems, Lord, we sing,
"Glory to the new-born King,
Glory to the FATHER, SON,
HOLY SPIRIT, THREE in ONE." Amen.

CIRCUMCISION.

86.—TRANBY.

8.7.8.7.

REV. S. M. BAKKOWTH.

"On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child."

CHRISTIAN children must be holy,
Serving GOD from day to day ;
Never is the time too early
For a Christian to obey.

JESUS taught us in His childhood,
Only eight short days He saw
Ere He suffered circumcision,
And obeyed His FATHER's law.
He who is our great Example
Let no moment run to loss ;

Not one precious hour He wasted
From the cradle to the Cross.
Soon He sorrowed, soon He suffered ;
We must meek and gentle be,
Little pain and childish trial
Ever bearing patiently.
Soon He showed a SON's obedience ;
We must early learn to do,
Not our own will, but our FATHER's,
And be found obedient too. Amen.

Circumcision.

"God hath given Him a Name which is above every name."

JESUS! Name of wondrous love,
Name all other names above,
Unto which must every knee
Bow in deep humility.

JESUS! Name decreed of old,
To the maiden-mother told,
In her lowly cottage cell,
By the angel Gabriel.

JESUS! Name of priceless worth
To the fallen sons of earth,
For the promise that it gave,
"JESUS shall His people save."

JESUS! Name of mercy mild,
Given to the Holy Child
When the cup of human woe
First He tasted here below.

JESUS! Only Name that's given
Under all the mighty heaven.
Whereby man, to sin enslaved,
Bursts his fetters, and is saved.

JESUS! Name of wondrous love!
Human Name of GOD above;
Pleading only this we flee
Helpless, O our GOD, to Thee. Amen.

REV. F. A. J. HERVEY.

In unison.

"Though He were a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered."

NOW a new year opens,
Now we newly turn
To the holy Saviour,
Lessons fresh to learn.

This the holy lesson
On the year's first day,
JESUS by obedience
Teaches to obey.

Of Thy Cross thus early
Tokens I thou dost give;
By Thy wounds Thou healest,
By Thy death we live.

Not to suffer only,
Jesus, didst Thou come,
But to leave us way-marks
Pointing to our home.

In Thy Blessed Footsteps
Ever may we tread,
Safe when keeping near Thee,
By Thy SPIRIT led, Amen.

New Year's Day.

89.—FATHER, LET ME DEDICATE. 7.5.7.5. D.

PROF. G. A. MACFARREN.

"I will glorify Thy Name."

FATHER, let me dedicate
All this year to Thee,
In whatever worldly state
Thou wilt have me be :

Not from sorrow, pain, or care
Freedom dare I claim ;
This alone shall be my prayer,
"Glorify Thy Name."

New Year's Day.

Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a FATHER's love refuse
All the best to give?
More Thou givest every day
Than the best can claim,
Nor withholdest aught that may
"Glorify Thy Name."

If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine;
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine;

Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
"Glorify Thy Name."

If Thou callest to the cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home,
Let me think how Thy dear SON
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on,
"Glorify Thy Name." Amen.

90.—CANTERBURY.

7.7.7.7.

ORLANDO GIBBONS.

"Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life."

FOR Thy mercy, and Thy grace,
Faithful through another year,
Hear our song of thankfulness;
JESU, our Redeemer, hear,

In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength, be Thou our Stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.

Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread,
With Thy rod and staff, O GOD
Comfort Thou his dying bed.

Keep us faithful, keep us pure,
Keep us evermore Thine own;
Help, oh, help us to endure,
Fit us for the promised crown.

So within Thy palace gate
We shall praise, on golden strings,
Thee, the only Potentate,
Lord of lords, and King of kings. Amen.

New Year's Day.

"Certainly I will be with Thee."

STANDING at the portal of the opening year,
 Words of comfort meet us, hushing every fear ;
 Spoken through the silence by our FATHER'S Voice,
 Tender, strong, and faithful, making us rejoice.
 Onward then, and fear not, children of the day !
 For His Word shall never, never pass away !

I, the LORD, am with thee, be thou not afraid,
 I will help and strengthen, be thou not dismayed !
 Yea, I will uphold thee with My own Right Hand,
 Thou art called and chosen in My sight to stand.
 Onward then, &c.

For the year before us, oh, what rich supplies !
 For the poor and needy living streams shall rise ;
 For the sad and sinful shall His grace abound ;
 For the faint and feeble perfect strength be found.
 Onward then, &c.

He will never fail us, He will not forsake ;
 His eternal covenant He will never break.
 Resting on His promise, what have we to fear ?
 GOD is all-sufficient for the coming year.
 Onward then, &c. Amen.

New Year's Day.

"Let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love and the helmet of salvation."

THE old year's long campaign is o'er,
Behold a new begun ;
Not yet is closed the holy war,
Not yet the triumph won.
Not yet the end, not yet repose ;
We hear our Captain say,
"Go forth again to meet your foes,
Ye children of the day."

"Go forth, firm faith on every heart,
Bright hope on every helm ;
Through that shall pierce no fiery dart,
And this no fear o'erwhelm.
Go in the SPIRIT and the might
Of Him Who led the way ;
Close with the legions of the night,
Ye children of the day."

So forth we go to meet the strife,
We will not fear nor fly ;
We love the holy warrior's life,
His death we hope to die.
We slumber not, that charge in view,
"Toil on while toil ye may,
Then night shall be no night to you,
Ye children of the day."

LORD GOD, our Glory, THREE in ONE,
Thine own sustain, defend ;
And give, though dim this earthly sun,
Thy true light to the end.
Till morning tread the darkness down,
And night be swept away,
And infinite, sweet triumph crown
The children of the day. Amen.

"When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."

AS with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright,
So, most gracious LORD, may we
Evermore be led to Thee.

As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to Thy lowly bed,
There to bend the knee before
Thee, Whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we, with willing feet,
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

As they offered gifts most rare,
At Thy cradle rude and bare,
So may we, with holy joy,

Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
CHRIST, to Thee, our heavenly King.

Holy JESUS, every day
Keep us in the narrow way,
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last,
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown;
Thou its Sun, which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing,
Alleluias to our King. Amen.

"There shall come a star out of Jacob."

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning !

Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid ;

Star of the East ! the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dewdrops are shining ;

Low lies His bed with the beasts of the stall :

Angels adore Him, in slumber reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

Say, shall we yield Him, in costly devotion,

Odours of Edom and offerings divine,

Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,

Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine ?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation ;
Vainly with gifts would His favour secure ;

Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to GOD are the prayers of the poor.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning !

Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid ;

Star of the East ! the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid. Amen.

EARTH has many a noble city;
Bethlehem, thou dost all excel:
Out of thee the Lord from heaven
Came to rule His Israel.

Fairer than the sun at morning
Was the star that told His birth,
To the world its GOD announcing,
Seen in fleshly form on earth.

Eastern sages at His cradle
Make oblations rich and rare;
See them give, in deep devotion,
Gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Sacred gifts of mystic meaning:
Incense doth their GOD disclose,
Gold the King of kings proclaimeth,
Myrrh His sepulchre foreshows.

JESU, Whom the Gentiles worshipped
At Thy glad Epiphany,
Unto Thee, with GOD the FATHER
And the SPIRIT, glory be. Amen.

"There came wise men from the East to Jerusalem."

FROM the eastern mountains,
Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom,
To His humble home ;
Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

There their LORD and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way ;
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.

Thou Who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.

Gather in the outcasts,
All who go astray,
Throw Thy radiance o'er them,
Guide them on their way ;
Those who never knew Thee,
Those who wander far,
Guide them by the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.
Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light.
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy kindly star.
Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
JESU, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains,
To that heavenly home,
Where no sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come. Amen.

Softly, subtly entered in !
War and pestilence and dearth
Spoil and sadden GOD's fair earth ;
Human sorrow fills the air,
Death is reigning everywhere.

Yet rejoice ! for GOD on high
Hath not left His world to die ;
GOD's dear SON with dying breath
Conquered sin and woe and death ;
Wait in hope and patience too,
CHRIST is making all things new !

And thirst for such as we? For us to ponder o'er.
And in the lonely wilderness
Did none Thine anguish see?

Ah ! who can tell the sufferings
Of those long forty days ?
We kneel in silence to adore,
We may not dare to gaze.

We only know the strife was great,
The conflict fierce and sore,

For love of us He would not heed
The tempter at His side ;
"Man shall not live by bread alone,"
The Holy One replied.
"Man shall not live by bread alone ;
Then grant us grace, dear Lord,
That we through this life's wilderness
May feed upon Thy word. Amen.

"Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God."

HIGH o'er the glittering temple,
 Above its radiant walls,
 Where in the far, far distance
 The silver trumpet calls,
 There, in the light and glory,
 The Saviour stands and waits,
 While eager crowds adoring,
 Press through the opening gates.

But he, the prince of darkness,
 Why is he lingering there?
 What are those words of evil
 That quiver through the air?
 "Cast Thyself down," he whispers,
 "What danger canst Thou see?
 Doth He not give His angels
 Their charge concerning Thee?"

Lent.

Oh, voice of the deceiver !

The written words are sweet ;
But calm and stern the answer

Those lips divine repeat ;
And thus the power of Satan
Beneath His feet He trod ;

"Is it not also written,
'Thou shalt not tempt thy God?'"

O Friend of little children !

Hear Thou the prayer we raise—
Deliver us from evil,

Keep us in all our ways ;
And if within Thy Temple
The voice of sin is heard,

Oh, let us listen only,
Sweet Saviour, for Thy Word ! Amen,

"Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve."

HOW beautiful the hills of GOD
Around the city stand !

Upheld through all the eternal years
By His Almighty Hand.

Where may we find the hill, dear Lord,
Thy Sacred Feet did press ?

Was there a mount "exceeding high"
In that vast wilderness ?

We know that in a lightning glance
The world before Thee lay,
The kingdoms of the earth shone forth
In all their bright array.

The dazzling vision moved Thee not ;
Thy tender Heart flowed o'er
As the long wail of misery
Rose up from every shore.

The tears of all the helpless ones
Thou couldst not bear to see ;

"All power is Thine," the tempter said,
"If Thou wilt worship me.

"All will I give without the cross,
Without the bitter pain—
A world restored, a kingdom bought ;
Begin at once Thy reign."

Then as still nearer to the Lord
The prince of evil came,
The mighty sentence hurled him back—
"Depart, I know thy name."

O JESU ! by Thy victory,
By all Thy pangs unknown,
Help us in this our trial-hour
To worship GOD alone !

And when the world seems bright and fair,
May we, on bended knee,
First give our hearts to own Thy love,
And then love all in Thee. Amen.

"And Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days He did eat nothing."

FORTY days and forty nights
Thou wast fasting in the wild ;
Forty days and forty nights
Tempted, and yet undefiled.

Sunbeams scorching all the day ;
Chilly dew-drops nightly shed ;
Prowling beasts about Thy way ;
Stones Thy pillow ; earth Thy bed.

Shall not we Thy sorrow share,
Learn Thy discipline of pain,
Strive, like Thee, through fast and prayer,
Strength for after time to gain ?

Then if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his Vanquisher before,
Wilt not suffer us to fail.

So shall we have peace divine ;
Holier gladness ours shall be ;
Round us, too, shall angels shine,
Such as ministered to Thee.

LORD, Thy mercy now entreating,
Low before Thy Throne we fall,
Our misdeeds to Thee confessing,
On Thy Name we humbly call.

Sinful thoughts, and words unloving,
Rise against us one by one ;
Acts unworthy, deeds unthinking,
Good that we have left undone :

Hearts that far from Thee were straying,
While in prayer we bowed the knee ;
Lips that, while Thy praises sounding,
Lifted not the voice to Thee :

Precious moments idly wasted,
Precious hours in folly spent ;
Christian vow and fight unheeded,
Scarce a thought to wisdom lent :

LORD, Thy mercy still entreating,
We with shame our sins would own ;
From henceforth, the time redeeming,
May we live to Thee alone.

Heavenly FATHER, bless Thy children ;
Hearken from Thy Throne on high ;
Loving Saviour, Holy SPIRIT,
Hear and heed our humble cry. Amen.

"Forasmuch as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind."

OUR solemn Lent has come again,
A time for fast and prayer,
For all who, tempted like their Lord,
His victory would share.
Fast crowding on our childish hearts
Come mournful thoughts of Thee,
Thoughts of Thy loneliness and pain,
Thy want, Thy misery.

And bitter thoughts of all the sin
That brought our Lord so low,
When in the awful wilderness
He battled with our foe.
Those wicked tempers that arise,
Those words and deeds of ill,
Oh, how they pressed upon Him then,
Oh, how they grieve Him still !

JESUS, our Saviour, can it be
That we should see Thee there,
See Thee in all that bitter grief,
Without a thought or care?
No ; let us rather daily strive
Against besetting sin,
And look to Thee, our conquering Lord,
New victories to win.

The strength that made Thee triumph then,
The patience and the power,
The all-prevailing grace and love,
That brought Thee through that hour ;
These Thou dost promise unto us,
Whom Thou hast loved so well ;
We triumph in Thy victory won,
Thy conquest over hell. Amen.

"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise."

ALL glory, laud, and honour,
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet Hosannas ring !

Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou, David's royal SON,
Who in the LORD's name comest,
The King and Blessèd One.
All glory, &c.

The company of Angels
Are praising Thee on high,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply.
All glory, &c.

The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went ;
Our praise, and prayer, and anthems,
Before Thee we present.
All glory, &c.

To Thee, before Thy Passion,
They sang their hymns of praise ;
To Thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.
All glory, &c.

Thou didst accept their praises,
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King
All glory, &c. Amen.

"And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying Hosanna to the Son of David! they were sore displeased."

WHEN, His salvation bringing,
 To Zion JESUS came,
 The children all stood singing
 Hosanna to His Name;
 Nor did their zeal offend Him,
 But as He rode along
 He let them still attend Him,
 And listened to their song.
 Hosanna to JESUS we'll sing.
 And since the Lord retaineth
 His love for children still,
 Though now as King He reigneth
 On Zion's heavenly hill,
 We'll flock around His banner
 Who sits upon the Throne,
 And cry aloud Hosanna
 To David's royal Son.
 Hosanna to JESUS we'll sing.
 For should we fail proclaiming
 Our great Redeemer's praise,
 The stones, our silence shaming,
 Would their hosannas raise.
 But shall we only render
 The tribute of our words?
 No: while our hearts are tender,
 They, too, shall be the Lord's.
 Hosanna to JESUS we'll sing. Amen.

"Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."

"FORGIVE them, O My FATHER,
They know not what they do,"
The Saviour spake in anguish,
As the sharp nails went through.

No pained reproaches gave He
To them that shed His Blood,
But prayer and tenderest pity,
Large as the love of GOD.

For me was that compassion,
For me that tender care;
I need His wide forgiveness
As much as any there.

It was my pride and hardness
That hung Him on the Tree;
Those cruel nails, O Saviour,
Were driven in by me.

And often I have slighted
Thy gentle Voice that chid;
Forgive me too, Lord JESUS;
I knew not what I did.

Oh, depth of sweet compassion!
Oh, love divine and true!
Save Thou the souls that slight Thee,
And know not what they do. Amen.

"What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ."

WHEN I survey the wondrous Cross See, from His Head, His Hands, His Feet,
On which the Prince of Glory died, Sorrow and love flow mingling down ;
My richest gain I count but loss, Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
And pour contempt on all my pride. Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?

Forbid it, LORD, that I should boast Were the whole realm of nature mine,
Save in the Cross of CHRIST my GOD ; That were an offering far too small ;
All the vain things that charm me most, Love so amazing, so divine,
I sacrifice them to His Blood. Demands my life, my soul, my all.

To CHRIST, Who won for sinners grace
By bitter grief and anguish sore,
Be praise from all the ransomed race
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

"The Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all."

A TIME to watch, a time to pray,
A day of wonders is to-day ;
The saddest, yet the sweetest too,
That ever man or angel knew.

And yet the sweetest ; for this day
Our load of sins was borne away,
And hopes of joy that never dies
Hang on our Saviour's Sacrifice.

The saddest, for our Saviour bore
His death, that man might die no more ;
The agony, the scourge, the fear,
The crown of thorns, the cross, the spear.

Like straying sheep we wandered wide,
Thy laws we broke, Thy Name defied ;
On Thee the guilt of all was laid,
By Thee the debt of all was paid.

O Saviour, blessed be Thy Name ;
Thine is the glory, ours the shame :
By all the pains Thy love endured,
Let all our many sins be cured. Amen.

“ They crucified Him.”

LO ! at noon 'tis sudden night !
 Darkness covers all the sky !
 Rocks are rending at the sight !
 Children, can you tell me why ?
 What can all these wonders be ?
 JESUS dies at Calvary !

Nailed upon the Cross, behold
 How His tender limbs are torn !
 For a royal crown of gold,
 They have made Him one of thorn !
 Cruel hands, that dare to bind
 Thorns upon a Brow so kind !

See, the Blood is falling fast
 From His Forehead and His Side !
 Hark ! He now has breathed His last !

With a mighty groan He died !
 Children, shall I tell you why
 JESUS condescends to die ?

He, Who was a King above,
 Left his kingdom for a grave,
 Out of pity and of love,
 That the guilty He might save !
 Down to this sad world He came,
 Bore the Cross, despised the shame.

You were wretched, weak, and vile ;
 You deserved His holy frown ;
 But He saw you with a smile,
 And to save you hastened down.
 Listen, children ! this is why
 JESUS condescends to die. Amen.

Who loved me, and gave Himself for me."

OH, dark and dreary day,
When JESUS died to pay
Sin's awful penalty!
The sun kept back its light,
To hide that mournful sight,
When JESUS died for me.

Oh, who can tell those pangs,
As on that Cross He hangs,
My dearest Lord, for me!
For me He died that death,
For me He yields His Breath,
My sinful soul to free.

And as He bows His Head,
Have I no tears to shed,
When I look back and see
Those loving Arms spread wide
To draw me to His Side,
My ransom thus to be?

O JESU, may Thy love
My strength and succour prove,
That I to Thee may live!
Thou gavest all for me,
May I devote to Thee
What little I can give. Amen.

"The precious Blood of Christ."

GLORY be to JESUS,
Who, in bitter pains,
Poured for me the life-Blood
From His sacred veins.
Grace and life eternal
In that Blood I find ;
Blest be His compassion,
Infinitely kind.
Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torments
Did the world redeem.
Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies ;

But the Blood of JESUS
For our pardon cries.
Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs ;
Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel hosts rejoicing
Make their glad reply.
Lift ye then your voices ;
Swell the mighty flood ;
Louder still and louder
Praise the precious Blood. Amen.

IT is finished ! Blessèd JESUS, Thou hast breathed Thy latest sigh, Teaching us, the sons of Adam, How the SON of GOD can die. Lifeless lies the broken Body, Hidden in its rocky bed, Laid aside like folded garment : Where is now the Spirit fled ? In the gloomy realms of darkness Shines a light unknown before, For the Lord of dead and living Enters at the open door. See ! He comes, a willing victim, Unresisting hither led ; Passing from the Cross of sorrow To the mansions of the dead. Lo ! the heavenly light around Him As He draws His people near ; All amazed they stand rejoicing At the gracious words they hear.	For Himself proclaims the story Of His own incarnate life, And the death He died to save us, Victor in that awful strife. Patriarch and priest and prophet Gather round Him as He stands, In adoring faith and gladness, Hearing of the piercèd Hands. Oh, the bliss to which He calls them, Ransomed by His precious Blood, From the gloomy realm of darkness To the paradise of GOD ! There in lowliest joy and wonder Stands the robber at His Side, Reaping now the blessèd promise Spoken by the Crucified. JESUS, Lord of dead and living, Let Thy mercy rest on me ; Grant me too, when life is finished, Rest in Paradise with Thee. Amen.

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

WEEPING, as they go their way
Their dear Lord in earth to lay,
Late at even—who are they?

These are they who watched to see
Where He hung in agony,
Dying on the accursed tree.

All is over—in the tomb
Sleeps He, as in death's dark womb,
Till the dawn of Easter come.

All is over—fought the fight;
Heaviness is for the night,
Joy comes with the morning light.

Leave we in the grave with Him
Sins that shame and doubts that dim,
If our souls would rise with Him.

Glory to the Lord, who gave
His pure Body to the grave,
Us from sin and death to save. Amen.

"And He led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His Hands, and blessed them."

HE led them unto Bethany,
He raised His Hands on high,
And, while He blessed them, upward rose
All glorious to the sky.

A cloud received Him from their sight,
A cloud of Angels fair,
Yet they continued gazing up,
As if He still were there!

So well they loved the Incarnate GOD,
Their hearts were borne away
To heaven with Him—earth seemed so poor
That first Ascension Day.

But at the Angel's voice they turned Back to Jerusalem,

In faith to wait the Gift from Heaven,
Their Lord had promised them.

Then, filled with GOD the HOLY GHOST,
They preached, baptised, and taught,
Till they, through suffering, pain, and death,
To perfect joy were brought.

O Master, when our hearts are sad,
Uplift them unto heaven,
If sloth should tempt us, show the crowns
To faithful servants given.

In danger guide and guard our steps,
Be nigh when earth seems fair,
Be here our Friend, our Strength, our

Our Joy and Glory there! Amen.

"He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight."

HE is gone—a cloud of light
Has received Him from our sight ;
High in heaven, where eye of men
Follows not, nor Angel's ken ;
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed into the holiest place ;
All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won.

He is gone—towards their goal
World and Church must onward roll :
Far behind we leave the past ;
Forward are our glances cast :
Still His words before us range
Through the ages, as they change ;
Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

He is gone—but we once more
Shall behold Him as before ;
In the heaven of heavens the same
As on earth He went and came.
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare :
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we may yet be one.

He is gone—but not in vain,
Wait until He comes again :
He is risen, He is not here,
Far above this earthly sphere ;
Evermore in heart and mind
There our peace in Him we find ;
To our own Eternal Friend,
Thitherward let us ascend. Amen.

"Who is even at the Right Hand of God, Who also maketh intercession for us."

IN deep humiliation
The Lord came down to earth,
To give regeneration
To sinners by His birth.

Shame, poverty, and anguish,
It pleased Him to endure,
That they in sin who languish
Might have a hope secure.

Upon the Cross outstretchèd
He yielded up the ghost,
And purchased for the wretched
Relief, and saved the lost.

The price He paid was ample ;
And, as He died to save,
He rose on death to trample,
And overcome the grave.

For forty days concerning
The kingdom of His grace,
His faithful ones were learning,
And saw Him face to face.

Until the clouds were parted,
And angels met their Lord,
Whilst those few faithful-hearted
Gazed upwards and adored.

And now the SON is seated
Beside His FATHER'S Throne ;
The FATHER is entreated
By His belovèd One.

The Comforter is dwelling
In hearts by CHRIST set free,
And all the Church is telling
The praise of ONE and THREE.

True GOD, Almighty to relieve.

For every soul in every need
He ever lives to intercede,
Presenting there within the veil

A light still breaks behind the cloud,
That veiled Thee from our eyes.

Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds,
Let Thy dear grace be given,
That while we wander here below,
Our treasure be in heaven.

Dwell thou in us, that we may dwell
For ever, Lord, in Thee. Amen.

"As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

COME, gracious SPIRIT, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above ;
Be Thou our Guardian, Thou our Guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.

The light of truth to us display,
And make us know and choose Thy way ;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from GOD may ne'er depart.

Lead us to CHRIST, the Living Way,
Nor let us from His precepts stray ,
Lead us to holiness, the road
That we must take to dwell with GOD.
Lead us to heaven that we may share
Fulness or joy for ever there :
Lead us to GOD, our final rest,
To be with Him for ever blest ! Amen.

"If I go not away the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart I will send Him unto you."

OUR blest Redeemer, ere He breathed
His tender last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.

He came sweet influence to impart,
A gracious willing Guest,
While He can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

And His that gentle Voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,

That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.

And every virtue we possess,
And every conquest won,
And every thought of holiness,
Are His alone.

SPIRIT of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see :
Oh, make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
And worthier Thee. Amen.

"And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost."

THIS day the Lord's disciples met
According to His word,
Still waiting for the promised gift
Of their ascended Lord.

But louder than the noise without
Rushed down the wind Divine ;
And brighter than the morning sun
Shone out the fiery sign.

All Israel that happy morn,
From farthest west to east,
With gladness for the ripened corn
Kept their great harvest feast.

Wondering, the strangers gathered round
From Parthia, Libya, Rome,
For each ear heard the praise of GOD
In the dear tongue of home.

They pressed along the city streets,
And up the holy hill,
And past that upper chamber where
The faithful waited still.

That mighty wind is silent now,
Those fires not seen to-day ;
But that great gift our Master gave
Shall never pass away.

O greatest Teacher, surest Guide,
True Comforter, be here !
Make all Thy children feel and know
That Thou indeed art near ! Amen.

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty rushing wind."

WHEN GOD of old came down from heaven, In power and wrath He came ; Before His Feet the clouds were riven, Half darkness and half flame : But when He came the second time, He came in power and love ; Softer than gale at morning prime Hovered His Holy Dove. The fires that rushed on Sinai down In sudden torrents dread, Now gently light, a glorious crown, On every sainted head.	And as on Israel's awe-struck ear The voice exceeding loud, The trump, that angels quake to hear, Thrilled from the deep dark cloud ; So, when the SPIRIT of our GOD Came down His flock to find, A voice from heaven was heard abroad, A rushing, mighty wind. It fills the Church of GOD ; it fills The sinful world around ; Only in stubborn hearts and wills No place for it is found.

GOD Almighty, in Thy Temple
Low before Thy Throne we bow,
From Thy dwelling-place in glory
Hear our supplications now,
While we offer
Earnest prayer and solemn vow.

CHRIST our Saviour, Thou who carest
For the youngest of Thy fold,
Give us now Thy heavenly blessing,
As Thou didst in days of old,
Priceless treasure,
Richer far than gems or gold.

GOD the Holy GHOST, be near us,
Ever dwell our hearts within;
Keep them pure, and brave, and earnest,
Give us grace to conquer sin,
And, through JESUS,
Heaven's eternal crown to win.

Holy TRINITY, defend us
In a world with evil rife,
Let Thine angel-guards surround us,
In each sore and bitter strife,
Oh, preserve us
Unto everlasting life! Amen.

FATHER, Friend, on Thee we call,
Hear Thy children's prayer.
Guard us, rule us, as is best,
With Thy loving favour blest,
Till we reach Thy home of rest,
And are with Thee there.

JESU, Who for man didst die,
Who dost plead Thy death on high,
And our place prepare,
From sin's bondage set us free,
Lead us onward after Thee,
Till with joy Thy Face we see,
And thy likeness wear.

Holy SPIRIT, Life, and Light,
Wisdom, Pureness, Love, and Might,
Fallen souls restore;
Guide our Spirits when we pray,
Cheer us, help us on our way,
Make us holier day by day,
Till we sin no more.

Ever blessed THREE in ONE
May Thy will in us be done,
Show in us Thy love;
Keep us Thine while here below,
Make us in Thy grace to grow,

REVERENTLY we worship Thee,
High and Holy TRINITY!
ONE in THREE and THREE in ONE,
Seated on Thy heavenly Throne;
Thanks and praise to Thee we pay,
Who art GOD and LORD for aye.

Day and night unceasing praise
All the hosts of heaven upraise;
Saints, their life of trial past,
Crowns of gold before Thee cast;
All things cry, with one accord,
Holy, Holy, Holy, LORD!

Holy FATHER, Who in love
Sentest JESUS from above;
Very man, yet GOD the SON,

Who for us hast glory won.
Holy GHOST, our Life and Light,
We to bless Thy Name unite.

Wondrous is the mystery
Of the Holy TRINITY;
Not the angels bright, who stand
Near the Throne at GOD's Right Hand,
Deepest secrets can declare
Which our GOD hath hidden there.

Only this, O LORD, we know,
'Tis from thence all blessings flow;
We, who see not, may adore,
We may love Thee more and more,
Praising, with the heavenly host,

 Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
 Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
 Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, Holy, Holy! though the darkness hide Thee,
 Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
 Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee
 Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

"O Lord, how manifold are Thy works, in wisdom hast Thou made them all."

THERE is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore i s scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

The works of GOD, above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book to show
How GOD Himself is found.

The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.

The moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run ;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its Sun.

The Saviour lends the light and heat
That crowns His holy hit ;

The saints, like stars, around His seat
Perform their courses still.

The dew of heaven is like Thy grace,
It steals in silence down ;
But where it lights, the favoured place
By richest fruits is known.

One Name, above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs.

The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display ;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy SPIRIT's viewless way.

Thou, Who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee,
And read Thee everywhere. Amen.

"And yet there is room."

THOU didst leave Thy Throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me ;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy nativity.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee !

Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree ;
But of lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee !

The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the forest tree ;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou SON of GOD !
In the deserts of Galilee.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee !

Thou camest, O Lord, with the living Word
That should set Thy people free ;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS !
Thy Cross is my only plea.

When heaven's arches shall ring, and her choir shall sing
At Thy coming to victory ;
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My Side for thee ;"

And my heart shall rejoice, Lord JESUS,
When Thou comest and callest for me. Amen.

How CHRIST, the King of glory,
Once deigned with man to dwell.

General Hymns.

We sing a holy JESUS,
No taint of sin defiled
The Babe of David's city,
The pure and stainless Child ;
Oh, teach us, blessed Saviour,
Thy heavenly grace to seek,
And let our whole behaviour,
Like Thine, be mild and meek.

We sing a lowly JESUS,
No kingly crown He had ;
His Heart was bowed with anguish,
His Face was marred and sad ;
In deep humilitation
He came, His work to do,
O Lord of our salvation,
Let us be humble too.

We sing a mighty JESUS,
Whose Voice could raise the dead ;
The sightless eyes He opened,
The famished souls He fed.
Thou camest to deliver
Mankind from sin and shame ;
Redeemer and Life giver,
We praise Thy holy Name.

We sing a coming JESUS,
The time is drawing near,
When CHRIST with all His angels

Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

What pains He had to bear;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious Blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin;
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming Blood,
And try His works to do. Amen.

He whom heavenly hosts adore
Lived on earth among the poor.

Thus He laid His glory by,
When for us He stooped to die:
How I wonder when I see
His unbounded love to me!

He the sick to health restored,
To the poor He preached the Word;
Even children had a share
Of His love and tender care.

Every bird can build its nest,
Foxes have their place of rest;
He by Whom the world was made
Had not where to lay His head.

Then was poorer far than I,

Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy Wing.

Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cleanse from every sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within;
Thou of Life the Fountain art;
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity. Amen.

Ancient Plain Song.

"The love of Christ, which passeth knowledge."

IT is a thing most wonderful,
Almost too wonderful to be,
That GOD'S OWN SON should come from heaven,
And die to save a child like me.

And yet I know that it is true;
He came to this poor world below,
And wept and toiled, and mourned and died,
Only because He loved us so.

I cannot tell how He could love
A child so weak and full of sin;
His love must be most wonderful,
If He could die my love to win.

I sometimes think about the Cross,
And shut my eyes, and try to see
The cruel nails and crown of thorns,
And JESUS crucified for me.

But even could I see Him die,
I could but see a little part
Of that great love which, like a fire,
Is always burning in His Heart.

It is most wonderful to know
His love for me so free and sure;
But 'tis more wonderful to see
My love for Him so faint and poor.

And yet I want to love Thee, Lord!
Oh, light the flame within my heart!
And I will love Thee more and more,
Until I see Thee as Thou art. Amen.

DR. MILLER.

"He was manifested to take away our sins."

BEYOND the holy city wall
They set the cruel Cross on high,
Where the dear Lord, Who saved us all,
Did hang in pain, and bleed, and die.

The Hands that touched the blind to sight,
That gave the sick man strength anew,
That raised the dead to life and light,
Were pierced and wounded through and through.

The Feet that walked the stormy sea,
That ever turned at sorrow's prayer,
By sharp nails fastened to the Tree,
Hung torn and hurt and bleeding there.

SINCE GOD'S own SON must suffer thus,
Our souls from Satan's grasp to win;
Since only He could ransom us,
Oh, what a fearful thing is sin!

How can we yield to Satan's power,
And let our sinful passions reign,
When hearing of that awful hour,
And thinking of our Saviour's pain?

Oh, by Thy griefs that dreadful day,
Dear Lord, and by Thy precious Blood,
Wash all our guilty stains away,
And make Thy sinful children good!

Amen.

"Whom have I in heaven but Thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire in comparison of Thee."

JESU, my Lord, my GOD, my All,
Hear me, Blest Saviour, when I call;
Hear me, and from Thy dwelling-place
Pour down the riches of Thy grace:

JESU, my Lord, I Thee adore,
Oh, make me love Thee more and more.

JESU, too late I Thee have sought,
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how extol Thy matchless fame,
The glorious beauty of Thy Name?

JESU, my Lord, &c.

JESU, what didst Thou find in me,
That Thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that Thou hast brought,
So far exceeding hope or thought!

JESU, my Lord, &c.

JESU, of Thee shall be my song,
To Thee my heart and soul belong;
All that I have or am is Thine,
And Thou, blest Saviour, Thou art mine:

JESU, my Lord, I Thee adore,
Oh, make me love Thee more and more.

"Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me."

JESUS, high in glory,
Lend a listening ear;
When we bow before Thee,
Children's praises hear.

Though Thou art so holy,
Heaven's Almighty King,
Thou wilt stoop to listen,
When Thy praise we sing.

We are little children,
Weak and apt to stray;
Saviour, guide and keep us
In the heavenly way.

Save us, Lord, from sinning;
Watch us day by day;
Help us now to love Thee;
Take our sins away:

Then, when Thou dost call us
To our heavenly home,
We shall gladly answer,
Saviour, Lord, we come. Amen.

JESU, meek and gentle,
SON of GOD most high;
Pitying, loving Saviour,
Hear Thy children's cry.
Pardon our offences,
Loose our captive chains,
Break down every idol
Which our soul detains.
Give us holy freedom,
Fill our hearts with love,

Draw us, Holy JESUS,
To the realms above.
Lead us on our journey,
Be Thyself the way,
Through terrestrial darkness
To celestial day.

O JESU, Thou art standing
Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er :
Shame on us, Christian brothers,
His Name and sign who bear,
O shame, thrice shame upon us
To keep Him standing there !

O JESU, Thou art knocking :
And lo ! that Hand is scarred,
And thorns Thy Brow encircle,
And tears Thy Face have marred :
O love that passeth knowledge
So patiently to wait !
O sin that hath no equal
So fast to bar the gate !

"In Him was life, and the Life was the light of men."

O LIGHT, Whose beams illumine all
From twilight dawn to perfect day !
Shine Thou before the shadows fall

That lead our wandering feet astray :
At morn and eve Thy radiance pour,
That youth may love, and age adore.

O Way, through Whom our souls draw near
To yon eternal home of peace,
Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
And earth's vain toil and wandering
cease ;

In strength or weakness may we see
Our heavenward path, O Lord, through
Thee.

O Truth, before Whose shrine we bow !
Thou priceless pearl for all who seek !
To Thee our earliest strength we vow ;

Thy love will bless the pure and meek :
When dreams or mists beguile our sight,
Turn Thou our darkness into light.

O Life, the well that ever flows
To slake the thirst of those that faint ;
Thy power to bless, what seraph knows ?
Thy joy supreme, what words can paint ?

In earth's last hour of fleeting breath
Be Thou our Conqueror over death.

O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life,
O JESU, born mankind to save !
Give Thou our peace in deadliest strife,
Shed Thou Thy calm on stormiest
wave ;

Be Thou our hope, our joy, our dread,
Lord of the living and the dead. Amen.

"Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith."

SAVIOUR, we are young and weak,
Yet we have a race to run,
Glorious is the crown we seek,
Hard the fight that must be won;
Lest we faint, and lest we flee,
Keep us ever near to Thee.

Many are our foes and strong,
Foes without, and fears within,
Great temptations to go wrong,
And an evil heart of sin;
We shall surely conquered be
If we keep not near to Thee.

When the dark and cloudy day
Comes to bow our hearts in grief,
Earthly comforts pass away,

Earthly hopes give no relief;
To Thy Bosom we will flee,
Clinging ever near to Thee.

When the hour of death draws near,
Fails our trembling flesh and heart,
Yet no evil we will fear,
Calmly waiting to depart,
If amid the gloom we see
That we still are near to Thee.

Then the prize of victory won,
And the weary contest o'er,
We shall hear the glad "Well done,"
Greet us on the heavenly shore,
And through all eternity,
Evermore be near to Thee. Amen.

"Those that seek Me early shall find Me."

THOU bid'st us seek Thee early,
And we shall surely find;
We come, oh, blessed JESUS,
Our Saviour true and kind!

We come in time of gladness,
We come in hours of grief,
With childhood's joys so transient,
With childhood's sorrow brief.

General Hymns.

We have not seen the glory
Which Bethlehem's shepherds saw,
Nor heard the midnight anthem
They heard with wondering awe ;
In rapturous haste they sought Thee,
The Christ so lowly born ;
We too would seek Thee early
In life's rejoicing morn.

No gifts have we to bring Thee,
O Saviour, but our love !
Harp notes are ever ringing
To angel-songs above ;

Yet will Thou deign to listen
To hymns which children raise,
Though all unskilled our music,
And faint our highest praise.

Lord, give us now Thy SPIRIT ;
Grant us Thy constant grace,
Till, having sought Thee early,
At length we see Thy Face ;
See Thee in cloudless glory,
The Lamb Who once was slain ;
And join the host of ransomed
Who follow in Thy Train. Amen.

REDHEAD.

"Thy name is as ointment poured forth."

JESU ! the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills the breast ;
But sweeter far Thy Face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than JESUS' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,

To those who ask how kind Thou art,
How good to those who seek !

But what to those who find ? Ah ! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show ;
The love of JESUS, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

JESU, our only Joy be Thou,
As Thou our Prize wilt be ;
In Thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity. Amen.

I wish that His Hands had been placed on my head,
 That His Arm had been thrown around me,
 And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
 "Let the little ones come unto Me."

Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
 And ask for a share of His love ;
 And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,
 I shall see Him and hear Him above :

In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
 For all who are washed and forgiven ;
 And many dear children are gathering there,
 "For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
 Never hear of that heavenly home ;
 I should like them to know there is room for them all,
 And that JESUS has bid them to come.

I long for that blessed and glorious time,

 When the dear little children of every clime
 Shall crowd to His Arms and be blest. Amen.

"He made Himself of no reputation."

JESUS was once a little child,
 A little child like me ;
 Was cradled in His mother's arms,
 And sat upon her knee.

Once He was just the age I am,
 And was as helpless too ;
 He used to sleep, and walk, and speak,
 Just as all children do.

And yet, though He was once a Child,
 He is the GOD of all ;

And angel hosts before His Throne
 In lowly worship fall.

And why was it He chose to be
 A Child so poor and weak ?
 It was that I might learn from Him
 How blessed are the meek ;

It was that I might learn from Him
 My parents to obey,
 And, like the Child of Nazareth,
 Grow holier every day. Amen.

"The love of Christ."

I LOVE to hear the story
Which Angel voices tell,
How once the King of glory
Came down on earth to dwell.
I am both weak and sinful,
But this I surely know,

The Lord came down to save me,
Because He loved me so.
I love to hear the story
Which Angel voices tell,
How once the King of glory
Came down on earth to dwell.

General Hymns.

I know my blessed Saviour

To show how pure and holy

And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forget me,
Because He loves me so.
I love to hear the story, &c.

To sing His love and mercy,
My sweetest songs I'll raise ;
And though I cannot see Him,
I know He hears my praise ;
For He has kindly promised
That even I may go
To sing among His Angels,
Because He loves me so.
I love to hear the story, &c.

From this world of sin and sorrow,

Keep, O Lord, Thy children free ;
Lord and Saviour,
Give us grace to follow Thee.
Still through every earthly trial

Thy childhood's law, a mother's will,
Obedience meek Thy brightest grace.

Lead every child that bears Thy Name
To walk in Thine own guileless way,
To dread the touch of sin and shame,
And humbly, like Thyself, obey.

Oh, let not this world's scorching glow
Thy SPIRIT's quickening dew efface,

Nor blast of sin too rudely blow,
And quench the trembling flame of grace.

Gather Thy lambs within Thine Arm,
And gently in Thy Bosom bear ;
Keep them, O LORD, from hurt and harm,
And bid them rest for ever there.

So shall they, waiting here below,
Like Thee their Lord, a little span,
In wisdom and in stature grow,
And favour with both GOD and man.

With burning words and signs of power,
Shine, Lord, upon my spirit's night
In dark temptation's direst hour.

Nor let me only think of Thee,
In bitterest death triumphant still ;
But strive, through all my thoughtless glee,
Like Thee, to do my FATHER's will.

My faith is weak, my heart is proud,
And this world's love is strong within ;
Youthful temptations round me crowd,
And urge my soul to youthful sin.

I bless Thee for Thy human birth,
And for the years that won for Thee
The favour both of heaven and earth
In the lone vales of Galilee.

CHARLES H. LLOYD, M.A.,
Mus. Bac., Oxon.

"Let your little ones go with you."

WHEN from Egypt's house of bondage
Israel marched—a mighty band,
Little children numbered with them,
Journeyed to the promised land,
Little children
Trode the desert's trackless sand.
Little children crossed the Jordan,
Landed on fair Canaan's shore,
'Neath the sheltering vine they rested,
Homeless wanderers now no more,
Little children
Sang sweet praise for perils o'er.
Saviour, like those Hebrew children,
Youthful pilgrims we would be ;
From the chains of sin and Satan,
Thou hast died to set us free.
We would traverse
All the wilderness to Thee.

Guide our feeble, erring footsteps,
Shade us from the heat of day ;
Be our light from shadowy nightfall
Till the darkness pass away.
JESUS, guard us
From the dangers of the way !
When we reach the cold dark river,
Bid us tremble not nor fear ;
Be thou with us in the waters,
We are safe if Thou art near.
Through the billows
Let Thy guiding light appear.
Then, our pilgrim journey ended,
All Thy glory we shall see,
Dwell with saints and holy angels,
Rest beneath life's healing tree ;
Happy children,
Praising, blessing, loving Thee. Amen.

And He loves us well ;

We must keep our promise
Made Him at the font,
Since He is our Shepherd,
That we may not want.

General Hymns.

There it was they laid us
In those tender Arms,
Where the lambs are carried
Safe from all alarms ;
If we trust His promise,
He will let us rest
In His Arms for ever,
Leaning on His Breast.

Though we may not see Him
For a little while,
We shall know He holds us,
Often feel His smile ;
Death will be to slumber
In that sweet embrace,
And we shall awaken
To behold His Face.

He will be our Shepherd
After as before,
By still heavenly waters
Lead us evermore ;
Make us lie in pastures
Beautiful and green,
Where none thirst or hunger,
And no tears are seen.

JESUS, our good Shepherd,
Laying down Thy Life,
Lest Thy sheep should perish
In the cruel strife.
Help us to remember
All Thy love and care,
Trust in Thee, and love Thee
Always, everywhere. Amen.

And yet in love He sought me,
And on His Shoulder gently laid,
And home rejoicing brought me.

He will take care of you. All through the year,
Crowning each day with His kindness and love
Sending you blessings, and shielding from fear,
Leading you on to the bright home above.

"The Lord is my Shepherd."

JESUS is our Shepherd, wiping every tear ;
Folded in His Bosom, what have we to fear
Only let us follow whither He doth lead,
To the thirsty desert, or the dewy mead.

JESUS is our Shepherd, well we know His Voice ;
How its gentlest whisper makes our hearts rejoice !
Even when it chideth, tender is its tone ;
None but He shall guide us, we are His alone.

JESUS is our Shepherd : for the sheep He bled ;
Every lamb is sprinkled with the Blood He shed ;
Then on each He setteth His own secret sign,
"They that have my SPIRIT, these," saith He, "are mine."

JESUS is our Shepherd, guarded by His Arm,
Though the wolves may raven, none can do us harm ;
When we tread death's valley, dark with fearful gloom
We will fear no evil, victors o'er the tomb. Amen.

JESUS, Lord of all,
Leading, though we linger,
Hearing when we call.

Thee we love to follow
Joyful all the way ;

General Hymns.

Shepherd good, defend us
Through the garish day,
When the flowery pathway
Lures our feet astray ;
Then, Thyself revealing,
Bring that better joy
Earth could never promise,
Death can ne'er destroy.

Shepherd good, be near us
Through the gloomy night,
When the foes we see not,
Most our hearts affright ;

Round the home of sorrow,
O'er the couch of pain,
Breathe, oh, pitying Saviour,
Peace and health again !

Shepherd good, recall us
If we fall away ;
Plead for us in mercy
When we cannot pray ;
When our wasted bodies
Yield their latest breath,
Draw our life to glory
Through the gate of death.

Of Thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly love.

Love is kind, and suffers long ;
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong ;
Love than death itself more strong ;
Therefore give us love.

Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day ;

Faith will vanish into sight,
Hope be emptied in delight,
Love in heaven will shine more bright,
Therefore give us love.

Faith, and hope, and love, we see,
Joining hand in hand agree ;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is love.

From the overshadowing
Of Thy gold and silver wing,
Shed on us, who to Thee sing
Holy, heavenly love. Amen.

"The Good Shepherd."

YES ; our Shepherd leads with gentle Hand
Through the dark pilgrim-land,
His flock so dearly bought,
So long and fondly sought.
Alleluia !

When in clouds and mist the weak ones stray,
He shows again the way,
And points to them afar
A bright and guiding star.

"He is the Head of the body, the Church."

THE Church's one foundation
Is JESUS CHRIST her LORD;
She is His new creation
By Water and the Word:

From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy Bride;
With His own Blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

General Hymns.

Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one Faith, one Birth ;
 One Holy Name she blesses,
 Partakes one Holy Food,
 And to one hope she presses
 With every grace endued.
 Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore oppress,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distrest ;
 Yet saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, " How long ?"
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song. '

Mid toil, and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore ;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.
 Yet she on earth hath union
 With GOD the THREE in ONE,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won ;
 Oh, happy ones and holy !
 LORD, give us grace that we,
 Like them the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with Thee.

Amen.

REV. LORD T. BUTLER.

"Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock."

FAITHFUL Shepherd, feed me
 In the pastures green ;
 Faithful Shepherd, lead me
 Where Thy steps are seen,
 Hold me fast, and guide me
 In the narrow way ;
 So, with Thee beside me,
 I shall never stray.
 Daily bring me nearer
 To the heavenly shore ;
 May my faith grow clearer,
 May I love Thee more.

Hallow every pleasure,
 Every gift and pain ;
 Be Thyself my treasure,
 Though none else I gain.
 Give me joy or sadness,
 This be all my care,
 That eternal gladness
 I with Thee may share.
 Day by day prepare me
 As Thou seest best,
 Then let angels bear me
 To Thy promised rest, Amen.

"We are members of His body."

MEMBERS of Christ are we ;
 He is our living Head,
 That henceforth we should ever be
 By His good SPIRIT led

In the same narrow path
 Our Lord and Saviour trod—
 The path that leadeth by the Cross
 To glory and to GOD.

General Hymns.

Children of GOD are we :
 Such grace to us is given,
 To kneel and pray in Christ's own words,
 "FATHER, Who art in heaven ;"
 Seeking to do His will
 As angels do above,
 And walking in obedient ways
 Of holy truth and love.

Of heaven's kingdom we
 Inheritors were made,
 Each at the font in CHRIST's own robe
 Of spotless white arrayed.

Upon our forehead now
 Is traced the suffering sign,
 That one day on each saintly brow
 A glorious crown may shine.

CHRIST's little ones are we,
 And unto us are given
 Angelic guards, who ever see
 Our FATHER's face in heaven.
 To walk in folly now
 We may not, must not, dare,
 Mindful whose seal is on our brow,
 Whose holy Name we bear. Amen.

"Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light."

GOD hath two families of love ;
 One is on earth and one above ;
 One is in battle sharp and sore ;
 And one at rest for evermore.

For they who loved their Saviour here,
 And died in GOD's true faith and fear,
 Are waiting now in Paradise
 To join the Church beyond the skies.

The Church on earth maintains the fight
 Against the devil and his might ;
 The Church at rest with war hath done ;
 And yet the two are only one.

We thank Thee, Saviour, for the grace
 By which they reached that blessed place ;
 Oh, teach us so to live that we
 May follow them, as they did Thee :

Teach us to live in faith and love
 Until Thou callest us above,
 To see Thee as Thou art, and stand
 Before Thee in the far off land. Amen.

General Hymns.

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand."

HARK ! hark, my soul ! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore ;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more !
Angels of JESUS, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night !

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for JESUS bids you come ;"
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.
Angels of JESUS, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night !

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of JESUS sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.
Angels of JESUS, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night !

Rest comes at length ; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past ;
Faith's journey ends in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
Angels of JESUS, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night !

Angels ! sing on, your faithful watches keeping,
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above ;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.
Angels of JESUS, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night ! Amen.

IN the Paradise of JESUS
There are many homes of light,
And they shine beyond the darkness
With a radiance clear and bright.

Oh, that I might hear the angels
Singing o'er the crystal sea,
And amidst the many mansions
Find a home prepared for me!

General Hymns.

There are sounds of many voices
In the golden streets above,
Filling all the air with gladness,
Blended in eternal love.
Oh, that, &c.

In those quiet resting-places,
Midst the pastures green and fair,
JESUS gathers in the homeless,
And He dwells among them there.
Oh, that, &c.

Can we see the happy faces
Of the dear ones gone before?

They are ready now to greet us
When we gain that blessed shore.
Oh, that, &c.

Then the pearly gates, unfolding,
Never shall be closed again,
We shall see within the city
JESUS, 'mid His white-robed train.
Oh, that, &c.

Oh, to join the alleluia,

With the ransomed hosts of JESUS,
In their songs of endless praise!

"Doubtless Thou art our Father."

FATHER of love, our Guide and Friend,
Oh, lead us gently on,
Until life's trial-time shall end,
And heavenly peace be won.

We know not what the path may be,
As yet by us untrod;
But we can trust our all to Thee,
Our FATHER and our GOD.

If called, like Abraham's child, to climb
The hill of sacrifice;
Some angel may be there in time,
Deliverance shall arise.

Or if some darker lot be good,
Oh, teach us to endure
The sorrow, pain, and solitude,
That make the spirit pure.

CHRIST by no flowery pathway came,
And we, His followers here,
Must do Thy will, and praise Thy Name,
In hope, and love, and fear.

And till in heaven we sinless bow,
And faultless anthems raise,
O FATHER, SON, and SPIRIT, now
Accept our feeble praise. Amen.

Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow ;

Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

General Hymns.

There is a land of peace,
 Good angels know it well ;
 Glad songs that never cease
 Within its portals swell ;
 Around its glorious Throne
 Ten thousand saints adore
 CHRIST, with the FATHER ONE,
 And SPIRIT, evermore.
 Oh, joy all joys beyond,
 To see the Lamb Who died,
 And count each sacred wound
 In Hands, and Feet, and Side !

To give to Him the praise
 Of every triumph won,
 And sing through endless days
 The great things He hath done.
 Look up, ye saints of GOD,
 Nor fear to tread below
 The path your Saviour trod
 Of daily toil and woe ;
 Wait but a little while
 In uncomplaining love,
 His own most gracious smile
 Shall welcome you above. Amen.

O HAPPY band of pilgrims,
 If onward ye will tread,
 With JESUS as your Fellow,
 To JESUS as your Head !
 O happy if ye labour
 As JESUS did for men !
 O happy if ye hunger
 As JESUS hungered then !
 The Cross that JESUS carried,
 He carried as your due ;
 The Crown that JESUS weareth,
 He weareth it for you.
 The faith by which ye see Him,
 The hope in which ye yearn,

The love that through all troubles
 To Him alone will turn ;
 The trials that beset you,
 The sorrows ye endure,
 The manifold temptations
 That death alone can cure ;
 What are they but His jewels,
 Of right celestial worth ?
 What are they but the ladder
 Set up to heaven on earth ?
 O happy band of pilgrims,
 Look upward to the skies,
 Where such a light affliction
 Shall win so great a prize. Amen.

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

HOW beautiful is earth !
 Its woods and fields, how fair !
 Its sunny hills and smiling vales,
 Bright streams and balmy air.
 What then is heaven ?
 Brighter than eye e'er saw,
 Nought can on earth compare
 With that glad land, all bathed in light,
 All glorious, passing fair.

How happy is our home,
 How sweet the loving care
 Which compasseth each one around ;
 All in home's gladness share.
 What then is heaven ?
 Each heart with joy o'erflows ;
 Filled with the FATHER'S love ;
 The brightest home faint image gives
 Of that dear home above,
 Our home in heaven. Amen.

General Hymns.

The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint ;
How many a spot defiles the robe

Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher ;
But there are perfectness, and peace,

General Hymns.

"And the city was pure gold."

JERUSALEM the golden,
With milk and honey blest,
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not
What joys await us there,
What radiancy of glory,
What bliss beyond compare.

All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng ;
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene ;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David ;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast ;
And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

Line 5, verse 4, to be sung thus :

"A better country, that is, an heavenly."

EVERY morning the red sun
 Rises warm and bright ;
 But the evening cometh on,
 And the dark, cold night :
 There's a bright land far away,
 Where 'tis never-ending day.
 Every spring the sweet young flowers
 Open fresh and gay,
 Till the chilly autumn hours
 With them away :
 There's a land we have not seen,
 Where the trees are always green.
 Little birds sing songs of praise
 All the summer long,
 But in colder, shorter days

They forget their song :
 There's a place where angels sing
 Ceaseless praises to their King.

CHRIST our Lord is ever near
 Those who follow Him ;
 But we cannot see Him here,
 For our eyes are dim :
 There is a most happy place,
 Where men always see His Face.

Who shall go to that fair land ?
 All who love the right :
 Holy children there shall stand,
 In their robes of white ;
 For that heaven, so bright and blest,
 Is our everlasting rest. Amen.

 Worthy is our Saviour King !
 Loud let His praises ring,
 Praise, praise for aye.

Come to this happy land,
 Come, come away ;
 Why will ye doubting stand ?
 Why still delay ?
 Oh, we shall happy be,
 When from sin and sorrow free !
 Lord, we shall live with Thee !
 Blest, blest for aye.

Bright in that happy land
 Beams every eye,
 Kept by a FATHER'S Hand
 Love cannot die.
 On then to glory run ;

AROUND the Throne of GOD in Heaven

 Children whose sins are all forgiven,
 A holy, happy band,
 Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

In flowing robes of spotless white
 Each one shall be arrayed ;
 Shall dwell in everlasting light,
 And joys that never fade ;
 Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

How shall they reach that world above,
 That heaven so bright and fair,
 Where all is peace and joy and love ?
 How came those children there,
 Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

Because the Saviour shed His Blood
 To wash away their sin ;
 Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
 Behold them white and clean,
 Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

On earth they sought their Saviour's grace,
 On earth they loved His Name.
 At last they see His blessed Face,
 And stand before the Lamb,
 Singing, Glory, glory, glory. Amen.

General Hymns.

"Jesus took a child, and set him by Him."

THERE'S a Friend for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A Friend Who never changes,
Whose love will never die ;
Our earthly friends may fail us,
And change with changing years,
This Friend is always worthy
Of that dear Name He bears.

There's a rest for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Who love the blessed Saviour,
And to the FATHER cry ;
A rest from every turmoil,
From sin and sorrow free,
Where every little pilgrim
Shall rest eternally.

There's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where JESUS reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy ;
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare ;
For every one is happy,
Nor could be happier, there.

There's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look for JESUS
Shall wear it by-and-by ;
A crown of brightest glory,
Which He will then bestow
On those who found His favour,
And loved His Name below.

There's a song for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A song that will not weary,
Though sung continually ;
A song which even angels
Can never, never sing ;
They know not CHRIST as Saviour,
But worship Him as King.

There's a robe for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And a harp of sweetest music,
And palms of victory.
All, all above is treasured,
And found in CHRIST alone ;
LORD, grant Thy little children
May know Thee as their own. Amen.

"Thine eyes shall behold the land that is very far off."

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign,
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers ;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unclouded eyes ;

Could we but climb where Moses stood
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore. Amen.

"There remaineth a rest to the people of God."

OH, what the joy and the glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see !
Crown for the valiant, to weary ones rest :
GOD shall be All and in all ever blest.

What are the Monarch, His Court, and His Throne ?
What are the peace and the joy that they own ?
Oh that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare !

Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
Vision of peace, that brings joy evermore ;
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
We the sweet anthems of Sion thall sing ;
While for Thy grace, LORD, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people eternally raise.

There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore ;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh ;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all ;
Of Whom, the FATHER ; and in Whom, the SON ;
Through Whom, the SPIRIT, with them ever ONE. Amen.

"O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts."

PLEASANT are Thy courts above
In the land of light and love ;
Pleasant are Thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe.
Oh, my spirit longs and fains
For the converse of Thy saints,
For the brightness of Thy Face,
For Thy fulness, GOD of grace.

Happy birds that sing and fly
Round Thy altars, O Most High ;
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly FATHER's Breast ;
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

Happy souls, their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe ,
Waters in the deserts rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies ;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach Thy Throne at length,
At Thy Feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

LORD, be mine this prize to win,
Guide me through a world of sin,
Keep me by Thy saving grace,
Give me at Thy Side a place.
Sun and Shield alike Thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart ;
Grace and glory flow from Thee ;
Shower, oh, shower them, LORD, on me!

"Thy word is a lantern unto my feet, and a light unto my paths."

LORD, Thy Word abideth,
And our footsteps guideth;
Who its truth believeth
Light and joy receiveth.

When our foes are near us,
Then Thy Word doth cheer us;
Word of consolation,
Message of salvation.

General Hymns.

When the storms are o'er us,
And dark clouds before us,
Then its light directeth,
And our way protecteth.

Who can tell the pleasure,
Who recount the treasure,
By Thy Word imparted
To the simple-hearted ?

Word of mercy, giving
Succour to the living ;
Word of life, supplying
Comfort to the dying !

Oh, that we discerning
Its most holy learning,
LORD, may love and fear Thee,
Evermore be near Thee ! Amen.

"Hosanna in the highest."

HOSANNA to the living LORD !
Hosanna to the Incarnate Word !
To CHRIST, Creator, Saviour, King,
Let earth, let Heaven Hosanna sing,
Hosanna in the highest !

O Saviour, with protecting care
Abide in this Thy House of Prayer,
Where we Thy parting promise claim,
Assembled in Thy sacred Name.

Hosanna in the highest !

But chiefest, in our cleansèd breast
Bid Thine Eternal SPIRIT rest ;
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy Thee.

Hosanna in the highest !

To GOD the FATHER, GOD the SON,
And GOD the SPIRIT, THREE in ONE,
Be honour, praise, and glory given
By all on earth, and all in Heaven.

Hosanna in the highest ! Amen.

General Hymns.

Hath He diadem as Monarch
That His Brow adorns?
"Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns."

If I find Him, if I follow,
What His guerdon here?
"Many a sorrow, many a labour,
Many a tear."

If I still hold closely to Him,
What hath He at last?

"Sorrow vanquished, labour ended,
Jordan past."

If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay?
"Not till earth, and not till Heaven
Pass away."

Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is He sure to bless?

"Angels, martyrs, prophets, virgins,
Answer, Yes!" Amen.

REV. E. W. BULLINGER.

"Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy heart be hasty to utter anything before God."

WHEN we in holy worship
Would to our GOD draw near,
Let us rejoice with trembling,
And serve the LORD in fear.

The nearer we approach Him,
The clearer we shall see,
How awful is His beauty,
And how defiled are we.

His Eye is resting on us
When most we feel alone;
He notices each gesture,
Each word, and look, and tone.

He watches in what spirit
His holy Word we hear,
If with all loving reverence,
Or with dull heart and ear.

He hears when for a blessing
Upon our knees we pray,
If we, indeed, are thankful,
Or think not what we say.

He hears when we use lightly
His holy, awful Name;
He will not count us guiltless,
Though we may feel no shame.

Oh, Holy LORD, ALMIGHTY,
Thou biddest us draw near,
As Thine own sons and daughters,
Yet with all holy fear.

Thou art so great and holy,
So vile and weak are we;
LORD, fold Thine Arms around us,
And draw us unto Thee. Amen.

O GOD of hosts, the mighty LORD,
How lovely is the place
Where Thou, enthroned in glory, shew'st
The brightness of Thy Face.

My longing soul faints with desire
To view Thy blest abode ;
My panting heart and flesh cry out
For Thee, the living GOD.

For in Thy courts one single day
'Tis better to attend,

Than, LORD, in any place besides
A thousand days to spend.

O LORD of hosts, my King and God,
How highly blest are they,
Who in Thy Temple always dwell,
And there Thy praise display !

To FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST,
The GOD Whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

"He that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst."

I HEARD the Voice of JESUS say,
 "Come unto Me and rest;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy Head upon My breast."
 I came to JESUS as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad;
 I found in Him a resting-place,
 And He has made me glad.

I heard the Voice of JESUS say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live."
 I came to JESUS, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.

I heard the Voice of JESUS say,
 "I am this dark world's light;
 Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright."
 I looked to JESUS, and I found
 In Him my Star, my Sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk,
 Till travelling days are done. Amen.

"Quit you like men; be strong."

FIGHT the good fight with all thy might,
 CHRIST is thy strength, and CHRIST thy right;
 Lay hold on life, and it shall be
 Thy joy and crown eternally.

Life with its way before thee lies,
 CHRIST is the path, and CHRIST the prize.
 Cast care aside, upon thy Guide
 Lean, and His mercy will provide;
 Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
 CHRIST is its life, and CHRIST its love.

Run the straight race, through God's good
 grace,
 Lift up thine eyes and seek His Face:

Faint not, nor fear, His Arms are near,
 He changeth not, and thou art dear;
 Only believe, and thou shalt see
 That CHRIST is all in all to thee. Amen.

"That Rock was Christ."

ROCK of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee ;
Let the Water and the Blood,
From Thy riven Side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Not the labours of my hands
Can fulfil Thy law's demands ;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone ;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy Cross I cling ;
Naked, come to Thee for dress ;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace ;
Foul, I to the Fountain fly ;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar through tracts unknown,
See Thee on Thy Judgment Throne ;
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee. Amen.

HENRY SMART.

"Him that cometh to Me, I will in no wise cast out."

JUST as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy Blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of GOD, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of GOD, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of GOD, I come.

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of GOD, I come.

Just as I am (Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down),
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of GOD, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love,
The breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of GOD, I come. Amen.

220.—KIMBERWORTH. [2nd Tune.] 8.7.8.7.

REV. D. SMITH.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It features two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps, F# and C#) and common time (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The music consists of several measures, including a double bar line and a repeat sign.

General Hymns.

"Leaving us an example, that ye shall follow His steps."

JESUS CHRIST, my Lord and Saviour,
Once became a child like me;
Oh, that in my whole behaviour
He my pattern still might be!

All my nature is unholy;
Pride and passion dwell within;
But the Lord was meek and lowly,
And was never known to sin.

While I'm often vainly trying
Some new pleasure to possess,
He was always self-denying,
Patient in His worst distress.

Let me never be forgetful
Of His precepts any more;
Idle, passionate, and fretful,
As I've often been before.

Lord, though now Thou art in glory,
I have Thine example still;
I can read Thy sacred story,
And obey Thy holy will.

Help me by that rule to measure
Every word and every thought,
Thinking it my greatest pleasure
There to learn what Thou hast taught.
Amen.

"Reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

LOOKING upward every day,
Sunshine on our faces;
Pressing onward every day
Toward the heavenly places.

Growing every day in awe,
For Thy Name is holy;
Learning every day to love
With a love more lowly.

Walking every day more close
To our Elder Brother;

Growing every day more true
Unto one another.

Leaving every day behind
Something which might hinder;
Running swifter every day,
Growing purer, kinder.

LORD, so pray we every day
Hear us in Thy pity,
That we enter in at last
To the Holy City. Amen.

222.—SCARBOROUGH.*

6.6.6.6.8.8.

R. BROWN-BORTHWICK.

The first system of the musical score for 'Scarborough' consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a 6/8 time signature. The middle staff is in bass clef with a 6/8 time signature. The bottom staff is labeled 'PEDAL. (For Organ only.)' and is in bass clef with a 6/8 time signature. The music features a melody in the treble and bass staves, with the pedal providing a harmonic accompaniment.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It consists of three staves: treble, bass, and a lower bass staff for the pedal. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

The third system of the musical score concludes the piece. It features the same three-staff arrangement. The final measure of the system includes the text 'A-men.' written above the treble staff.

* The Composer is not answerable for the varied accent in the second line of the stanzas.

General Hymns.

" Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus.

BEHOLD a little Child,
Laid in a manger bed ;
The wintry blasts blow wild
Around His infant Head.
But who is this so lowly laid ?
'Tis He by Whom the worlds were made.

Alas ! in what poor state
The SON of GOD is seen ;
Why doth the Lord so great
Choose out a home so mean ?
That we may learn from pride to flee,
And follow His humility.

Where Joseph plies his trade,
Lo ! JESUS labours too ;
The Hands that all things made
An earthly craft pursue,
That weary men in Him may rest,
And faithful toil through Him be blest.

Among the doctors see
The Boy so full of grace ;
Say, wherefore taketh He
The scholar's lowly place ?
That Christian boys with reverence meet,
May sit and learn at JESUS' Feet.

CHRIST ! once Thyself a Boy,
Our boyhood guard and guide ;
Be Thou its light and joy,
And still with us abide,
That Thy dear love, so great and free,
May draw us evermore to Thee. Amen.

"A good soldier of Jesus Christ."

GO forward, Christian soldier,
 Beneath His banner true ;
 The Lord Himself thy Leader
 Shall all thy foes subdue.
 His love foresees thy trials ;
 He knows thine hourly need ;
 He can, with Bread of Heaven,
 Thy fainting spirit feed.

Go forward, Christian soldier ;
 Fear not the secret foe ;
 For more o'er thee are watching
 Than human eyes can know.
 Trust only CHRIST, thy Captain ;
 Cease not to watch and pray ;
 Heed not the treacherous voices
 That lure thy soul astray.

General Hymns.

Go forward, Christian soldier ;
 Nor dream of peaceful rest,
 Till Satan's host is vanquished,
 And Heaven is all possessed ;
 Till CHRIST Himself shall call thee
 To lay thine armour by,
 And wear in endless glory
 The crown of victory.

Go forward, Christian soldier ;
 Fear not the gathering night ;
 The Lord has been thy shelter ;
 The Lord will be thy light.

12.9.12.9.

E. C. A. CHEPMELL.

"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong."

WE are soldiers of CHRIST, Who is mighty to save,
And His banner the Cross is unfurled ;
We are pledged to be faithful and steadfast and brave
Against Satan, the flesh and the world.

We are brothers and comrades, we stand side by side,
And our faith and our hope are the same ;
And we think of the Cross on which JESUS has died,
When we bear the reproach of His Name.

At the fount we were marked with the cross on our brow,
Of our grace and our calling the sign ;
And the weakest is strong to be true to his vow ;
For the armour we wear is Divine.

We will watch ready armed if the tempter draw near,
If he come with a frown or a smile ;
We will heed not his threats, nor his flatteries hear,
Nor be taken by storm nor by wile.

General Hymns.

We will master the flesh, and its longings restrain,
We will not be the bondslaves of sin,
The pure SPIRIT of GOD in our nature shall reign,
And our spirits their freedom shall win.

For the world's love we live not, its hate we defy,
And we will not be led by the throng;
We'll be true to ourselves, to our FATHER on high,
And the bright world to which we belong.

Now let each cheer his comrade, let hearts beat as one,
While we follow where CHRIST leads the way,
'Twere dishonour to yield, or the battle to shun,
We will fight, and will watch, and will pray.

Though the warfare be weary, the trial be sore,
In the might of our GOD we will stand;
Oh, what joy to be crowned and be pure evermore
In the peace of our own Fatherland! Amen.

General Hymns.

"Work while it is called to-day."

WHILE the sun is shining
 Brightly in the sky,
 Ere his rays declining
 Tell that night is nigh ;
 Ere the shadows falling,
 Lengthen on our way,
 Hark ! a voice is calling,
 " Work while it is day."

Work for God in Heaven,
 Seek the Saviour's Face,
 Plead to be forgiven,
 Strive to grow in grace ;
 Watch against temptation,
 Watch, and fight, and pray,
 Each in his own station,
 " Work while it is day."

Work, but not in sadness,
 For your Lord above ;
 He will make it gladness
 With His smile of love.
 When that Lord returning
 Knocketh at the gate,
 Let your lights be burning,
 Be like men who wait.

Happy then the meeting,
 When you see His Face ;
 Welcome then the greeting
 From the Throne of grace—
 " Good and faithful servant,
 Of My FATHER blest,
 Now your work is ended,
 Enter into rest." Amen,

Though 'tis hard for you

To resist the evil,
And the good to do.

For ye promised truly,
In your infant days,
To renounce him wholly,
And forsake his ways.

Ye are new-born Christians;

"Lord, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest."

O JESUS, I have promised
To serve Thee to the end ;
Be Thou for ever near me,
My Master and my Friend ;
I shall not fear the battle
If Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If Thou wilt be my Guide.

Oh, let me feel Thee near me :
The world is ever near ;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear ;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within ;
But, JESUS, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

General Hymns.

Oh, let me hear Thee speaking
In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
The murmurs of self will ;
Oh, speak to reassure me,
To hasten or control ;
Oh, speak, and make me listen,
Thou Guardian of my soul.

O JESUS, Thou hast promised
To all who follow Thee,
That where Thou art in glory
There shall Thy servant be ;

And, JESUS, I have promised
To serve Thee to the end ;
Oh, give me grace to follow
My Master and my Friend.

Oh, let me see Thy Footmarks,
And in them plant mine own ;
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone ;
Oh, guide me, call me, draw me
Uphold me to the end ;
And then in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend. Amen.

S. WEBBE.

"I am the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the valley."

BY cool Siloam's shady rill
How sweet the lily grows,
How sweet the breath beneath the hill
Of Sharon's dewy rose.

Lo ! such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose tender heart with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to GOD.

By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay ;

The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away.

O Thou, Whose infant Feet were found
Within Thy FATHER's shrine,
Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
Were all alike Divine.

Dependent on Thy bounteous breath,
We seek Thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still Thine own. Amen.

General Hymns.

"Who is on the Lord's side?"

WHO is on the Lord's side?
 Who will serve the King?
 Who will be His helpers
 Other lives to bring?
 Who will leave the world's side?
 Who will face the foe?
 Who is on the Lord's side?
 Who for Him will go?
 By Thy call of mercy,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine!

Not for weight of glory,
 Not for crown and palm,
 Enter we the army,
 Raise the warrior psalm.
 But for love that claimeth
 Lives for whom He died,
 He whom JESUS nameth
 Must be on His side.

 By Thy love constraining,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine!

JESUS, Thou hast bought us,
 Not with gold or gem,
 But with Thine own Life-Blood,
 For Thy diadem.
 With Thy blessing filling
 Each who comes to Thee,

Thou hast made us willing,
 Thou hast made us free.
 By Thy grand redemption,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine!

Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
 But the King's own army
 None can overthrow.
 Round His standard ranging
 Victory is secure,
 For His truth unchanging
 Makes the triumph sure.
 Joyfully enlisting
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine!

Chosen to be soldiers
 In an alien land,
 "Chosen, called, and faithful"
 For our Captain's band.
 In the service royal;
 Let us not grow cold,
 Let us be right loyal,
 Noble, true, and bold.
 Master, Thou wilt keep us,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 Always on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, always Thine! Amen.

240.—THY LIFE WAS GIVEN FOR ME. 6.6.6.6.6.6.

PROF. G. A. MACFARREN, Mus. Doc.

For the last verse only.

General Hymns.

"What reward shall I give unto the Lord for all the benefits that He hath done unto me."

THY Life was given for me,
Thy Blood, O Lord, was shed,
That I might ransomed be,
And quickened from the dead.
Thy life was given for me :
What have I given for Thee ?

Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know ;
Long years were spent for me :
Have I spent one for Thee ?

Thy FATHER's home of light,
Thy rainbow-circled Throne,
Were left for earthly night,
For wanderings sad and lone ;
Yea, all was left for me :
Have I left aught for Thee ?

Thou, Lord, hast borne for me
More than my tongue can tell
Of bitterest agony,
To rescue me from hell ;
Thou suff'redst all for me :
What have I borne for Thee ?

And Thou hast brought to me
Down from Thy home above
Salvation full and free,
Thy pardon and Thy love ;
Great gifts Thou broughtest me ;
What have I brought to Thee ?

Oh, let my life be given,
My years for Thee be spent ;
World-fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent ;
Thou gav'st Thyself for me,
I give myself to Thee. Amen.

"I press toward the mark."

MY LORD, in glory reigning
Upon the glassy sea,
By Angel hosts surrounded,
Is thinking still of me.

My heart for joy is dancing,
My lamp I trim and clear,
The Bridegroom bids me enter
If I but persevere.

General Hymns.

My Lord a land is ruling,
The land of pure delight,
Whence hate and might are banished,
And all is love and light.
What though my lot be lowly,
What though my way be drear ;
'Tis mine, 'tis mine, that kingdom,
If I but persevere.

My Lord a home is building,
A mansion passing fair,
Of pearl and gold all burnished,
Of jewels, costly, rare ;

A home where nothing lacketh,
Away with doubt and fear !
'Tis mine, 'tis mine, that mansion,
If I but persevere.

My Lord a song is teaching
The Angel choirs on high ;
They strike their harps and cymbals,
And sound the psaltery.

A song to greet the wanderer,
To Heaven's gate drawing near ;
'Tis mine, 'tis mine, the welcome,
If I but persevere. Amen.

"Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off?"

THERE is an Eye that never sleeps,
Beneath the wing of night ;
There is an Ear that never shuts,
When sink the beams of light.

There is an Arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way ;
There is a Love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.

That Eye is fixed on seraph throngs ;
That Arm upholds the sky ;
That Ear is filled with Angel-songs ;
That Love is throned on high.

But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That Eye, that Arm, that Love to reach,
That list'ning Ear to gain.

That power is prayer, which soars on high
Through Jesus to the Throne,
And moves the Hand, which moves the world,
To bring salvation down. Amen.

BLEST are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God;

Their soul is CHRIST'S abode.
The Lord, who left the heavens,
Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
Their Pattern and their King,

He to the lowly soul
Doth still Himself impart!
And for His dwelling and His throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.
Lord, we Thy Presence seek;
May ours this blessing be:
Give us a pure and lowly heart,
A temple meet for Thee. Amen.

"Behold, O Lord, how that I am Thy servant."

MAKE use of me, my GOD,
Let me not be forgot,
Let not Thy child be cast aside,
One whom Thou needest not.
Thou usest all Thy works,
The weakest things that be ;
Each has a service of its own,
For all things wait on Thee.
Thou usest the high stars,
The tiny drops of dew,
The giant peak, and little hill,
My GOD, oh, use me too !
Thou usest tree and flower,
The river vast and small ;

The eagle great, the little bird
That sings upon the wall.
Thou usest the wide sea,
The little hidden lake,
The pine upon the alpine cliff,
The lily in the brake.
The huge rock in the vale,
The sand-grain by the sea,
The thunder of the rolling cloud,
The murmur of the bee.
All things do serve Thee here,
All creatures great and small ;
Make use of me, of me, my GOD,
The weakest of them all. Amen.

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me."

TAKE up thy cross, the Saviour said, Take up Thy cross then in His strength,
If thou would'st My disciple be ; And calmly every danger brave ;
Deny thyself, the world forsake, 'Twill guide thee to a better home,
And humbly follow after Me. And lead to victory o'er the grave.
Take up thy cross ; let not its weight Take up thy cross, and follow CHRIST,
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm ; Nor think till death to lay it down ;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up, For only he who bears the cross
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm. May hope to wear the glorious crown.
Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame ; To Thee, great LORD, the ONE in THREE,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel ; All praise for evermore ascend ;
Thy Lord for thee the Cross endured, Oh, grant us in our home to see
To save thy soul from death and hell. The heavenly life that knows no end.

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus."

LORD, as to Thy dear Cross we flee,
And plead to be forgiven,
So let Thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for Heaven.

Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like Thee, to do our FATHER'S Will,
Our brethren's griefs to share.

Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine,
And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
As free and true as Thine.

If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We in our turn would meekly cry,
"FATHER, Thy Will be done."

Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
Oh, may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow Thee to Heaven. Amen.

"Speak, Lord, for Thy servant heareth."

HUSHED was the evening hymn,
The temple courts were dark ;
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark ;
When suddenly a voice Divine
Rang through the silence of the shrine.

The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept ;
His watch the temple-child,
The little Levite kept ;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed,
The LORD to Hannah's son revealed.

Oh, give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O LORD !
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of Thy Word ;

Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

Oh, give me Samuel's heart !
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy House Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy Will.

Oh, give me Samuel's mind !
A sweet, un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,
That I may read with childlike eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise.

"Who when He was reviled, reviled not again."

WHEN, for some little insult given, Excited one reviling word,
My angry passions rise, Or one revengeful thought.
I'll think how JESUS came from Heaven, And when upon the Cross He bled,
And bore His injuries. With all His foes in view,
He was insulted every day, "FATHER, forgive them," JESUS said,
Though all His words were kind : "They know not what they do."
But nothing men could do or say Dear Saviour, may I learn of Thee
Disturbed His heavenly mind. My temper to amend ;
Not all the wicked scoffs he heard And speak that pardoning word for me,
Against the truths He taught, Whenever I offend. Amen.

General Hymns.

"Even a child is known by his doings."

WE are but little children weak,
Nor born in any high estate ;
What can we do for JESUS' sake,
Who is so high and good and great ?
We know the holy innocents
Laid down for Him their infant life,
And martyrs brave and patient saints
Have stood for Him in fire and strife.
We wear the cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learned like vows to make ;
We need not die, we cannot fight ;
What may we do for JESUS' sake ?
Oh, day by day, each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within ;
A death to die for JESUS' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes ;
Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.
With smiles of peace, and looks of love,
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humour brighten there ;
And still do all for JESUS' sake.
There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take ;
His little work of love and praise,
That he may do for JESUS' sake. Amen.

Art Thou my FATHER ? Canst Thou bear And only wish to do and be
To hear my poor imperfect prayer ? Whatever seemeth good to Thee.
Or wilt Thou listen to the praise Art Thou my FATHER ? Then at last,
That such a little one can raise ? When all my days on earth are past,
Send down and take me in Thy love
Art Thou my FATHER ? Let me be To be Thy better child above. Amen.

"One hope of your calling."

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow

Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the promised land.

Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding light;
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.

One the light of God's own presence
O'er His ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread

One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
'One the hope our GOD inspires :

One the strain that lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one ;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in GOD begun :

One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the ONE ALMIGHTY FATHER
Reigns in love for evermore.

Onward therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward with the Cross our aid !
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade.

Soon shall come the great awaking,
Soon the rending of the tomb
Then the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom. Amen.

"All Thy works praise Thee, O Lord."

ALL that's good, and great, and true,
All that is and is to be,
Be it old or be it new,
Comes, O FATHER, all from Thee.

Mercies dawn with every day,
Newer, brighter, than before,
And the sun's declining ray
Layeth others up in store.

Not a bird that doth not sing
Sweetest praises to Thy Name,
Not an insect on the wing
But Thy wonders doth proclaim.

Far and near, o'er land and sea,
Mountain top and wooded dell,
All in singing, sing of Thee,
Songs of love ineffable.

Fill us then with love divine ;
Grant that we, though toiling here,
May, in spirit being Thine,
See and hear Thee everywhere.

May we all with songs of praise,
Whilst on earth, Thy Name adore,
Till with Angel choirs we raise
Songs of praise for evermore. Amen.

 ness,
 Bless and make them like to Thee.
 Bear Thy lambs, when they are weary,
 In Thine Arms and at Thy Breast ;
 Through life's desert, dry and dreary,
 Bring them to Thy heavenly rest.

Spread Thy golden pinions o'er them,
 HOLY SPIRIT, Heavenly Dove ;
 Guide them, lead them, go before them,
 Give them peace, and joy, and love.
 Temples of the HOLY SPIRIT,
 May they with Thy glory shine,

GEORGE B. ARNOLD, Mus. Doc.

"Be glad then, ye children of Zion."

O HAPPY Christian children,
Who seek a home above,
And read in all creation
A heavenly FATHER'S love.

What earthly foes can harm us,
What power can make us fear,
If GOD is watching o'er us
With succour ever near?

His Ear in all our dangers
Is listening when we call;
His Hand in all temptations
Will hold us lest we fall.

In joy we now approach Him,
In hope we kneel and pray;
For He Whose Blood redeemed us
Will wash our sins away.

When earth no help can find us,
And all its lights are gone,
He sends His blessed SPIRIT
To lead us safely on.

And when at last our bodies
Must lay them down to rest,
With Him we trust our spirits
Will be for ever blest. Amen.

255.—“ALL THINGS BRIGHT.” 7.6.7.6.

REV. SIR. F. A. G. OUSELEY, Bart.
Arr. expressly for this work.*

1st verse.

2nd and following verses.

“Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created.”

ALL things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small;
All things wise and wonderful,
The LORD GOD made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings;
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

The rich man in his castle,
The poor man at his gate;
God made them high or lowly,
And ordered their estate,
The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brighten up the sky.

* This tune, in another form, is the copyright of MESSRS. CASSELL, PETTER, GALPIN & Co., and the present arrangement is printed with their permission.

General Hymns.

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun;
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one.

The tall trees in the greenwood,
The meadows where we play;

The rushes by the water,
We gather every day.

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is GOD ALMIGHTY,
Who has made all things well. Amen.

"Giving thanks always for all things unto God."

FOR the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
LORD of all, to Thee we raise
This our grateful psalm of praise !
For the wonder of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light,
LORD of all, to Thee we raise
This our grateful psalm of praise !

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
Pleasure pure and undefiled,
LORD of all, to Thee we raise
This our grateful hymn of praise !
For Thy Church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Her pure sacrifice of love,
LORD of all, to Thee we raise
This our grateful psalm of praise !

"I will always give thanks unto the Lord : His praise shall ever be in my mouth."

THROUGH all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my GOD shall still
My heart and tongue employ.

Oh, magnify the LORD with me !
With me exalt His Name !
When in distress to Him I called,
He to my rescue came.

The hosts of GOD encamp around
The dwellings of the just ;
Deliverance He affords to all
Who on His succour trust.

Oh, make but trial of His love !
Experience will decide,
How blessed are they, and only they,
Who in His truth confide.

Fear Him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear ;
Make you His service your delight,
Your wants shall be His care.

263.—EDINA. [1st Tune.] 6.5.6.5.D. SIR HERBERT OAKELEY, M.A., Mus. Doc.

First system of musical notation for 'Edina'. It consists of a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. A 'PED.' (pedal) marking is present under the first measure of the bass staff, with a line extending to the second measure.

Second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. A 'cres.' (crescendo) marking is placed above the first measure of the treble staff.

Third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment. A 'p' (piano) marking is above the first measure of the treble staff. A 'rit.' (ritardando) marking is above the fifth measure of the treble staff. A 'PED.' marking is under the fifth measure of the bass staff, with a line extending to the sixth measure.

Fourth system of musical notation. It concludes the piece. A 'f' (forte) marking is above the first measure of the treble staff. The text 'A - men.' is written at the end of the system, aligned with the final notes of the melody.

General Hymns.

"Every day will I give thanks unto Thee, and praise Thy holy Name."

SAVIOUR, blessed Saviour,
Listen whilst we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King ;
All we have to offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

Nearer, ever nearer,
CHRIST, we draw to Thee ;
Deep in adoration,
Bending low the knee ;
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die ;
Thou that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God ;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

Higher, then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal ;

"Every day will I give thanks unto Thee, and praise Thy holy Name."

S AVIOUR, blessèd Saviour,
Listen whilst we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King ;
All we have to offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

Nearer, ever nearer,
CHRIST, we draw to Thee ;
Deep in adoration,
Bending low the knee ;
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die ;
Thou that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God ;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

Higher, then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal ;
Where, in joys unthought of,
Saints with Angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King. Amen.

"O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands."

ALL people that on earth do dwell, Praise, laud, and bless His Name always;
Sing to the LORD with cheerful voice; For it is seemly so to do.
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell, For why? the LORD our GOD is good,
Come ye before Him and rejoice. His mercy is for ever sure;
The LORD, ye know, is GOD indeed; His truth at all times firmly stood,
Without our aid He did us make; And shall from age to age endure.
We are His flock, He doth us feed, To FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST;
And for His sheep He doth us take. The GOD Whom heaven and earth adore;
O enter then His gates with praise, From men, and from the Angel host,
Approach with joy His courts unto; Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

General Hymns.

"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise."

GOD Eternal, Mighty King,
Unto Thee our praise we bring ;
All the earth doth worship Thee,
We amid the throng would be.

Holy, Holy, Holy ! cry
Angels round Thy Throne on high :
LORD of all the heavenly powers,
Be the same loud anthem ours.

Glorified Apostles raise
Night and day continual praise ;
Hast not Thou a mission too
For Thy children here to do ?

With the Prophets' goodly line
We in mystic bond combine ;
For Thou hast to babes revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of the Cross are heard to boast ;
Oh, that we our cross may bear,
And a crown of glory wear.

GOD Eternal, Mighty King,
Unto Thee our praise we bring ;
To the FATHER, and the SON,
And the SPIRIT, THREE in ONE.

Amen.

"When I laid the foundations of the earth, when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy."

SONGS of praise the Angels sang,
Heaven with Alleluias rang,
When creation was begun,
When GOD spake and it was done.

Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose when He
Captive led captivity.

Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day ;
GOD will make new heavens and earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

And will man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No, the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice,
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
FATHER, unto Thee we raise ;
JESU, glory unto Thee,
With the SPIRIT ever be. Amen.

LORD, Thy children guide and keep,
As with feeble steps they press
On the pathway, rough and steep,
Through this weary wilderness.
Holy JESU, day by day
Lead us in the narrow way.

There are sandy wastes that lie
Cold and sunless, vast and drear,
Where the feeble faint and die ;
Grant us grace to persevere.
Holy JESU, day by day
Lead us in the narrow way.

There are stony ways to tread ;
Give the strength we sorely lack :
There are tangled paths to thread ;
Shed Thy light upon the track.
Holy JESU, day by day

SAMUEL SMITH.

General Hymns.

"While I live will I praise the Lord."

COME, praise your Lord and Saviour
 In strains of holy mirth ;
 Give thanks to Him, O children,
 Who lived a Child on earth.
 He loved the little children,
 And called them to His side,
 His loving Arms embraced them,
 And for their sake He died.

(BOYS ONLY.)

O JESU, we would praise Thee
 With songs of holy joy ;
 For Thou on earth didst sojourn
 A pure and spotless Boy.
 Make us like Thee, obedient,
 Like Thee from sin-stains free,
 Like Thee in GOD's own Temple,
 In lowly home like Thee.

(GIRLS ONLY.)

O JESU, we too praise Thee,
 The lowly maiden's Son ;
 In Thee all gentlest graces
 Are gathered into one.
 Oh, give that best adornment
 That Christian maid can wear,
 The meek and quiet spirit
 Which shone in Thee so fair !

(ALL.)

O Lord, with voices blended
 We sing our songs of praise ;
 Be Thou the Light and Pattern
 Of all our childhood's days ;
 And lead us ever onward,
 That, while we stay below,
 We may, like Thee, O JESU,
 In grace and wisdom grow. Amen.

Sing of the wonders of His Power,
Who with His own Right Arm
Upholds and keeps you hour by hour,
And shields from every harm.

Sing of the wonders of His Grace,
Who made and keeps you His,
And guides you to the appointed place

General Hymns.

"My song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord."

COME, sing with holy gladness,
 High Alleluias sing;
 Uplift your loud Hosannas
 To JESUS, Lord and King:
 Sing, boys, in joyful chorus
 Your hymn of praise to-day;
 And sing, ye gentle maidens,
 Your sweet responsive lay.

'Tis good for boys and maidens
 Sweet hymns to CHRIST to sing;
 'Tis meet that children's voices
 Should praise the children's King;
 For JESUS is salvation,
 And glory, grace, and rest;
 To babe, and boy, and maiden
 The one Redeemer Blest.

O boys, be strong in JESUS!
 To toil for Him is gain;
 And JESUS wrought with Joseph
 With chisel, saw, and plane.
 O maidens, live for JESUS,
 Who was a maiden's Son!
 Be patient, pure, and gentle,
 And perfect grace begun.

Soon in the golden city
 The boys and girls shall play,
 And through the dazzling mansions
 Rejoice in endless day.
 O CHRIST, prepare Thy children
 With that triumphant throng
 To pass the burnished portals,
 And sing the eternal song. Amen.

"Lead me into the land of uprightness."

BRIGHTLY gleams our banner,
 Pointing to the sky,
 Waving on CHRIST'S soldiers
 To their home on high !
 Marching through the desert,
 Gladly thus we pray,
 Still, with hearts united,
 Singing on our way—
 Brightly gleams our banner,
 Pointing to the sky,
 Waving on CHRIST'S soldiers
 To their home on high !

JESU, Lord and Master,
 At Thy sacred Feet,
 Here, with hearts rejoicing,
 See Thy children meet.
 Often have we left Thee,
 Often gone astray ;
 Keep us, mighty Saviour,
 In the narrow way.
 Brightly gleams, &c.

Pattern of our childhood,
 Once Thyself a child,
 Make our childhood holy,
 Pure, and meek, and mild.

In the hour of danger
 Whither can we flee,
 Save to Thee, dear Saviour,
 Only unto Thee ?
 Brightly gleams, &c.

All our ways direct us
 In the way we go ;
 Crown us still victorious
 Over every foe :
 Bid Thine Angels shield us
 When the storm-clouds lour ;
 Pardon Thou and save us
 In the last dread hour.
 Brightly gleams, &c.

Then with saints and Angels
 May we join above,
 Offering prayers and praises
 At Thy Throne of love.
 When the march is over,
 Then come rest and peace,
 JESUS in His beauty !
 Songs that never cease !
 Brightly gleams, &c. Amen.

General Hymns.

A. SULLIVAN.

General Hymns.

The musical score is written for two voices (Soprano and Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in 2/4 time and the key of B-flat major (two flats). The melody is simple and march-like. The lyrics are: "war, war, With the Cross of JE - SUS A - men." The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a similar pattern in the left hand, providing a rhythmic foundation for the vocal lines.

"Be strong and of a good courage . . . And the Lord, He it is that doth go before thee."

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
 Marching as to war,
 With the Cross of JESUS
 Going on before ;
 CHRIST, the Royal Master,
 Leads against the foe ;
 Forward into battle
 Do His banners go.
 Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

Like a mighty army,
 Moves the Church of GOD,
 Brothers, we are treading
 Where the saints have trod ;
 We are not divided,
 All one body we,
 One in hope, in doctrine,
 One in charity.
 Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

At the sign of triumph
 Satan's host doth flee ;
 On then, Christian soldiers,
 On to victory ;
 Hell's foundations quiver
 At the shout of praise,
 Brothers, lift your voices,
 Loud your anthems raise,
 Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

Crowns and thrones may perish,
 Kingdoms rise and wane,
 But the Church of JESUS
 Constant will remain ;
 Gates of hell can never
 'Gainst that Church prevail,
 We have CHRIST's own promise,
 And that cannot fail.
 Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

Onward, then, ye people,
 Join our happy throng,
 Blend with ours your voices
 In the triumph song—
 Glory, laud, and honour,
 Unto CHRIST the King,
 This, through countless ages,
 Men and angels sing.
 Onward, Christian soldiers, &c. Amen.

C. H. LLOYD, M.A., Mus. Bac., Oxon.

General Hymns.

"Follow His steps."

ONWARD ! onward ! march to glory,
Tread each footprint of the Lord,
Who hath taught in gospel story
How to gain the great reward.
Here we pass through desert dreary,
Here are realms of starless night,
Yet, though weak our limbs, and weary,
We may win the City bright.
Onward ! onward ! march to glory,
Tread each footprint of the Lord,
Who hath taught in gospel story
How to gain the great reward.

Though for sin our hearts must sorrow,
Though temptations round us throng,
Hymns of Angels let us borrow,
JESUS, Saviour, be our song.
And while loud our anthems ringing,
One harmonious strain upraise,
Let our lives be like our singing,
Let no discord mar our praise.
Onward ! onward ! &c.

Let us march to take our station
With the white-robed choirs on high,
Out of every age and nation
Who to GOD's high Throne are nigh ;

We on earth like worship leading
Lives like theirs must strive to live,
And, His merits always pleading,
Unto CHRIST our being give.
Onward ! onward ! &c.

First in earliest childhood's morning,
From our sins He sets us free,
And, with all His grace adorning,
Chooses us His own to be ;
Then, when Satan's hosts would steal us
From His fold with envious might,
With His SPIRIT He doth seal us,
Strengthen, arm us for the fight.
Onward ! onward ! &c.

Onward then, nor faint, nor falter,
Onward to the rest above ;
CHRIST His promise will not alter,
But will meet us in His love.
Now with voice and understanding,
Psalms and hymns of joy upraise,
And with choirs of Angels banding,
FATHER, SON, and SPIRIT praise.
Onward ! onward ! &c. Amen.

REJOICE, ye pure in heart !
Rejoice ! give thanks and sing ;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of CHRIST, your King.

Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free exulting song,
GOD'S wondrous praises speak.

Yes, onward, onward still,
With hymn, and chant, and song,
Through gate, and porch, and columned
aisle,
The hallowed pathways throng.

With all the Angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth.

Your clear Hosannas raise,
And Alleluias loud ;
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

With voice as full and strong
As ocean's surging praise,
Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
The psalms of ancient days.

Yes, on through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go,
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high,
Still march in firm array,
As warriors through the darkness toil
Till dawns the golden day.

At last the march shall end,
The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their FATHER'S house,
Jerusalem the blest.

Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing ;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of CHRIST, your King.

Old Tune.

"Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost."

BEHOOLD us, LORD, before Thee met, Whom each bright Angel serves and fears, Who on Thy Throne rememberest yet Thy spotless Boyhood's quiet years; Whose Feet the hills of Nazareth trod, Who art true Man and perfect GOD. To Thee we look, in Thee confide; Our help is in Thine own dear Name; For who on JESUS e'er relied, And found not JESUS still the same? Thus far Thy love our souls hath brought; Oh, stablish well what Thou hast wrought! From Thee was our baptismal grace, The holy seed by Thee was sown; And now before our FATHER'S Face	We make the three great vows our own, And ask, in Thine appointed way Confirm us in Thy grace to-day. We need Thee more than tongue can speak, Mid foes that well might cast us down; But thousands, once as young and weak, Have fought the fight, and won the crown; We ask the help that bore them through; We trust the Faithful and the True. So bless us with the gift complete By hands of Thy chief pastors given, That awful presence, kind and sweet, Which comes in sevenfold might from Heaven; Eternal CHRIST, to Thee we bow: Give us Thy SPIRIT here and now. Amen.

"Our help is in the Name of the Lord."

FATHER, look upon Thy children, Thou Who knowest all our weakness,
 Who before Thy footstool bow, Strengthen us with heavenly might,
 Coming as Thy sons and daughters Temples of the HOLY SPIRIT,
 To renew their solemn vow. Fill us with His life and light.

Confirmation.

Fill us with all understanding,
Give us wisdom from above,
All the powers of ill to vanquish,
Strong in faith, and hope, and love.
Give to us all heavenly knowledge,
Fill us with Thy holy fear,
Hush our spirits, as Thy children,
For Thy blessing we draw near.

Set Thy holy seal upon us,
Write upon us Thy new Name,
Guide us wheresoe'er CHRIST leadeth,
Undefiled and free from blame.
Steadfast to the end enduring
May we win the blest reward,
Even an abundant entrance
To the kingdom of our LORD. Amen.

"Our help is in the Name of the Lord."

FATHER! Name of love and fear!
Lo! Thy children venture near;
Trembling at Thy footstool stand;
Lowly kneel beneath Thy Hand.
Stand—to speak the great "I do,"
And the threefold vow renew;
Kneel—to ask the gift Divine
Sealing us for ever Thine.
Thine we were, before our eyes
Opened first on earth and skies;
Thine before our lips could frame
This Thy dear and awful Name;
Thine, when on each infant face
Dropped the dewy pledge of grace,
Then, by JESUS' dying sign,
Marked, and claimed, and owned as Thine.
Through our childhood's joys and fears,
Through our school-tide's passing years,

Love Divine, unchanging, free,
Called and drew our hearts to Thee.
Thou hast helped us; Thou hast taught
All the works Thy love hath wrought;
All our lost and evil case;
All the marvels of Thy grace.
Sinful hearts indeed and weak
Here Thy promised blessing seek;
Small our might, and strong our foe;
Yet the saving Name we know.
In that Name our prayers we pour;
Send Thy Spirit down once more.
Let the Sevenfold Gift be shed
Largely on each bending head.
So, with strength renewed to-day,
Send us forth on life's rough way;
Bound to Thee by love's strong cords,
Living, dying, still our Lord's! Amen.

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering."

HOLY SPIRIT, LORD of glory,
Look on us Thy flock to-day,
Meekly kneeling at Thy footstool

For Thy sevenfold gifts we pray;
Guide us all our earthly journey
In the true and narrow way.

Confirmation.

Foes on every hand are round us,
And our hearts are weak and frail;
Gird us with Thy heavenly armour;
Never let us yield or quail;
Give us victory in the struggle,
When the hosts of sin assail.

Blessèd JESU, draw Thou near us,
As before Thy Cross we bow;
Help us to be true and faithful,
Seal our sacramental vow;
We Thy soldiers are, and servants;
Hear our solemn promise now.

Lead us by Thy guiding presence
Through the waste with danger rife;
Feed us with the heavenly manna,
That we faint not in the strife;
Slake our weary spirits' thirsting
From the living well of life.

Looking ever unto JESUS,
Leaning on His staff and rod;
May we follow in His Footsteps,
Tread the path that JESUS trod,
Till we dwell with Him for ever
In the paradise of GOD! Amen.

"We will serve the Lord."

LORD JESU! on our forehead
Thy Cross was signed of old;
As soldiers in Thy army,
Our names Thou hast enrolled.

Now, faithful in Thy service,
We would go forth to fight,
Beneath Thy conquering banner,
Our only strength Thy might.

With Satan's hosts around us,
And traitor hearts within,
Great Captain of Salvation!
Nerve us the fight to win.

In time of fierce temptation,
When bitter foes assail,
Oh, give us help to conquer,
Nor suffer us to fail;

Nor waver from our duty,
Nor wander from Thy side;
Our life one act of service
For Thee, the Crucified!

Then, when our work is ended,
And all our warfare past,
Grant that within Thy kingdom
We may find rest at last. Amen.

LORD, we stand before Thy Throne ;
Thee our LORD and GOD we own,
And to Thee, and Thee alone,
All our lives resign !

Then, if Thou our Leader art,
Strengthen Thou the fainting heart,
Courage, patience, help impart ;
Keep us wholly Thine.

Confirmation.

How can we, a feeble band,
Satan's gathered hosts withstand,
How resist, with sword in hand,
Hell's united powers?
Saviour, in Thy Name we go,
Thou hast conquered every foe;
And if Thou Thy strength bestow,
Saving Help is ours!

For above our mortal sight,
In the land of endless light,
Stand the victors robed in white,
Strike their harps and sing—

JESUS triumphed when He rose,
JESUS conquered all our foes;
Now His hand the Crown bestows,
Glory to our King!

Lord, if we Thy cross will bear,
We may hope Thy joy to share,
With Thy ransomed ones to wear
Crown and palm on high!
Hear us then, we humbly pray,
Take our hearts, our selves, to-day;
'Neath Thy banner may we stay
Faithful till we die. Amen.

Gifts of blessings to bestow
On Thy waiting Church below;
Once again in love draw near
To Thy children gathered here.

From their bright Baptismal day,
Through their childhood's onward way,
Thou hast been their constant guide,
Watching ever by their side;
May they now, till life shall end,
Choose and know Thee as their Friend.

Give them light, Thy truth to see,
Give them life to live for Thee,
Daily power to conquer sin,
Patient faith the crown to win;
Shield them from temptation's breath,
Keep them faithful unto death.

299.—BREAD OF HEAVEN. 7.7.7.7.7.

THE BISHOP OF LICHFIELD.

The musical score is written for two voices, Treble and Bass, in a 7/7 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of three systems of staves. The first system has two staves, the second has two staves, and the third has two staves. The melody is primarily in the Treble clef, with the Bass clef providing harmonic support. The piece concludes with the word 'A - men.' written above the final notes of the Treble staff in the third system.

"This do in remembrance of Me."

BREAD of Heaven, on Thee we feed,
For Thy flesh is meat indeed;
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living Bread;
Day by day with strength supplied
Through the life of Him Who died.

Vine of Heaven, Thy Blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
LORD, Thy wounds our healing give,
To Thy Cross we look and live;
JESUS, may we ever be
Grafted, rooted, built in Thee. Amen.

With fasting, and with prayer,
Beseeching of Thy love that Thou

Not for our land alone we pray,
Though that above the rest;
The realms and islands far away,
Oh, let them all be blest!

Endue the Bishops of Thy flock
With wisdom and with grace,
Against false doctrine, like a rock,

SOULS in heathen darkness lying,	Still the earth hath cruel places,
Where no light has broken through,	Wrath, and hate, and vengeance grim,
Souls that JESUS bought by dying,	Still GOD looks on human faces
Whom His Soul in travail knew,	Heavenward turned, but not to Him.
Thousand voices	Slaves who know not
Call us o'er the waters blue.	Comfort in their anguish dim.

Christians, say they, none has taught us	Haste, oh, haste to spread the tidings,
Of the love so deep and dear,	Let no shore be left untrod,
Of the precious price that bought us,	No lost brother's bitter chidings
Of the nail, the thorn, the spear,	Haunt us from the furthest sod ;
Ye who know Him	Tell the heathen
Guide us from our darkness drear.	All the precious truth of GOD. Amen

In His dear Name to Thee we pray
For all who err and go astray,
For sinners, wheresoe'er they be,
Who do not serve and honour Thee.

There are who never yet have heard
The tidings of Thy blessed Word,
But still in heathen darkness dwell.
Without one thought of Heaven or hell ;

And some within Thy sacred fold
To holy things are dead and cold,
And waste the precious hours of life
In selfish ease, or toil, or strife :

And many a quickened soul within
There lurks the secret love of sin,
A wayward will, or anxious fears,
Or lingering taint of bygone years.

Oh, give repentance true and deep
To all Thy lost and wandering sheep
And kindle in their hearts the fire
Of holy love and pure desire.

That so from Angel-hosts above
May rise a sweeter song of love,
And we, with all the Blest, adore

Thou wilt hear the orphan's prayer.
Life's temptations are before us,
We must mingle in the strife;
If Thy goodness watch not o'er us,
All unsafe will be our life.

For Orphans.

So we claim Thee for our FATHER ;
 For we have a right to be,
 By the gift of our dear Brother,
 Loving children unto Thee.
 Poor and lowly is our station,
 Yet Thou never wilt despise
 This our lowly adoration,
 On Thy Throne above the skies.

Holy FATHER, to Thy keeping
 All our cares we can confide ;
 Toiling, resting, waking, sleeping,
 We will in Thy love abide.
 While Thy sheltering Wings are o'er us,
 Fatherless we cannot be ;
 And we have a home before us
 Which will last eternally. Amen.

"A Father of the fatherless."

OUR FATHER, when we kneel to say
 That blessèd Name to Thee,
 Of all Thy children there are none
 More dear to Thee than we.

What though no parent's loving care
 Be granted us on earth,
 FATHER and home are ours in Heaven
 By right of our new birth.

GOD'S SPIRIT dwells within our hearts,
 His Angels guard our feet,
 And saints and Angels will rejoice
 Our coming home to greet.

Then glory to our FATHER be,
 Glory to GOD the SON,
 And glory to the HOLY GHOST,
 Eternal THREE in ONE. Amen.

"Thou art the helper of the fatherless."

THOU Who with dying lips
Thy Mother didst commend
Unto the tender care
Of Thy belovèd friend,
Thou Who by Lazarus' grave
In human grief didst groan,
Turn, Lord, Thine Eyes on those
Left in this world alone.

Thou Who didst call Thy twelve
Their home and friends to leave,
And in Thy kingdom all,
Yea, more than all, receive,
To those bereft of all,
Thy pitying love extend,
And let them find in Thee
Father, and Home, and Friend.

Thou Who didst say of old,
"Thine orphans lend to Me,
Unto the fatherless
I will a Father be,"
Thy promises are sure,
Help us to trust Thee still ;
To those who need Thee sore
That faithful word fulfil.

Thou Who in Thy still rest
Our dear ones safe dost keep,
Thou Who shalt bring them back
One day from their long sleep,
Oh, keep us by Thy grace,
That we at last may be,
When that bright morning dawns,
At home with them and Thee! Amen.

LORD JESUS, GOD and Man,
For love of man a Child,
The Very GOD, yet born on earth
Of Mary undefiled.

LORD JESUS, GOD and Man,
In this our festal day
To Thee for precious gifts of grace
Thy ransomed people pray.

We pray for childlike hearts,
For gentle holy love,
For strength to do Thy Will below,
As Angels do above.

We pray for simple faith,
For hope that never faints,

For true communion evermore
With all Thy blessèd saints.

On friends around us here
O let Thy blessing fall;
We pray for grace to love them well,
But Thee beyond them all.

O joy to live for Thee!
O joy in Thee to die!
O very joy of joys to see
Thy Face eternally!

"O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever."

IN GOD's holy dwelling,
Spared to meet again,
Hark ! glad voices swelling,
Raise their yearly strain,
Children, bending lowly,
Join the Angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy,
Is the LORD most High !"

All things tell His glory—
Earth and Heaven above ;
And the gospel story
Tells His wondrous love :
How the FATHER gave us
His own SON to die ;
How the SON, to save us,
Left His Throne on high.

Oh, how blest to know Him,
And His love so true !
Oh, how sweet to show Him
How we love Him too !
For to us is given,
Here to taste His grace,
And the hope in Heaven
To behold His Face.

Then, within His dwelling,
Raise the yearly song ;
Let glad voices swelling
Still the strain prolong ;
Children, bending lowly,
Join the Angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy,
Is the LORD most High !" Amen.

"O bless our God . . . and make the voice of His praise to be heard."

COME, Christian youths and maidens,
Come, brothers, old and young,
Uplift your hearts and voices,
Be praise on every tongue.
In God's own House we gather,
Our yearly feast to hold ;
Come, join our joyful anthem,
Ye brothers, young and old.

Come, sing with us the praises
Of God's preserving care,
Who safe from harm has kept us
Throughout another year ;
And crowned our lives with mercies
Unnumbered as the sand,
Which day by day have reached us
From His all-gracious Hand.

Come, sing with us the praises
Of God's Redeeming Love,
That song which never ceases
Around the Throne above ;
The voice of many Angels,
"Worthy the Lamb of God ;
For He was slain to save us
By His most precious Blood."

Come, praise Him for glad tidings
Heard in this hallowed place—
Glad tidings of salvation,
By free and sovereign grace ;
For gifts of Holy Scripture,
Known from our childhood's days ;
For call from Heaven to serve Him
In wisdom's happy ways.

Come, praise Him for the promise
Of strength in weakness given ;
For means of grace provided ;
For blessed hope of Heaven.
Oh, Christian youths and maidens !
Oh, brothers, old and young !
Uplift your hearts and voices,
And let His praise be sung. Amen.

LORD, we come to ask Thy blessing,
Humbly come on bended knee ;
Oh, receive our resolution
Which we offer unto Thee !

We have joined our hearts together,
In a bond of union true,
May our chain of prayer and promise
Strength and courage oft renew.

Childish hearts and youth's devotion
Little gifts they seem to be ;
But we know that they are precious,
Offered lovingly to Thee.

Weak the strength of human effort,
We, unaided, strive in vain ;
Thou must grant Thy grace and blessing
If we would true victory gain.

So we ask for Christian courage,
Zeal to keep our promise true,
Grace to draw by good example
Other hearts to join us too.

Bless and sanctify Thy children,
Meek and sinful though they be,
Oh, receive us in our spring-time,
We would give it, LORD, to Thee ! Amen.

Sol-diers true and faith - ful, Hear the trumpet's call,

The first system of the musical score for 'Soldiers True'. It features a vocal line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody begins with a forte (f) dynamic. Below the vocal line is a piano accompaniment consisting of two staves, treble and bass clef, also in F# and C. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

'Neath your Cap - tain's ban - ner Range ye, one and all.

The second system of the musical score. The vocal line continues the melody, and the piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are aligned under the vocal notes.

Not a-against the dev - il, Not a-against the world,

The third system of the musical score. The vocal line concludes the phrase, and the piano accompaniment provides the final harmonic support. The lyrics are aligned under the vocal notes.

 Ye betray your heart,
 Can ye bid the devil,

By the sign upon you,
 By CHRIST's life within,
 Close in deadly conflict
 With each pleasant sin.
 JESUS' eye is on you,
 Keep your solemn vow,
 Then a crown immortal
 Shall adorn your brow. Amen.

HERE, LORD, we offer Thee all that is fairest,
Bloom from the garden, and flowers from the field,
Gifts for the stricken ones, knowing Thou carest
More for the love than the wealth that we yield.

Send, LORD, by these to the sick and the dying,
Speak to their hearts with a message of peace,
Comfort the sad, who in weakness are lying,
Grant the departing a gentle release.

Raise, LORD, to health again those who have sickened,
Fair be their lives as the roses in bloom ;
Give of Thy grace to the souls Thou hast quickened,
Gladness for sorrow, and brightness for gloom.

We, LORD, like flowers, must bloom and must wither ;
We, like these blossoms, must fade and must die ;
Gather us, LORD, to Thy Bosom for ever,
Grant us a place in Thy House in the sky. Amen.

 He sends the snow in winter,
 The warmth to swell the grain,
 The breezes, and the sunshine,
 And soft refreshing rain ;
 All good gifts around us
 Are sent from Heaven above ;
 Then thank the LORD, oh, thank the LORD
 For all His love !

He only is the Maker
 Of all things near and far ;
 He paints the wayside flower,
 He lights the evening star ;
 The winds and waves obey Him,
 By Him the birds are fed ;
 Much more to us His children,
 He gives our daily bread.
 All good gifts, &c.

We thank Thee, then, O FATHER,
 For all things bright and good ;
 The seedtime and the harvest,
 Our life, our health, our food ;
 Accept the gifts we offer,
 For all Thy love imparts,
 And, what Thou most desirest,
 Our humble, thankful hearts.
 All good gifts, &c. Amen.

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps). The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system begins with a piano (pp) dynamic and a rallentando tempo marking. The piece concludes with the text 'A - men.' written below the final notes of the second system.

"He that plougheth should plough in hope."

WE plough the fields, and scatter
 The good seed on the land,
 But it is fed and watered
 By GOD's Almighty Hand ;

As labourers in Thy vineyard
Send us out, CHRIST, to be
Content to bear the burden
Of weary days for Thee :

We ask no other wages,
When Thou shalt call us home,
But to have shared the travail
Which makes Thy Kingdom come.

Be with us, GOD the FATHER !

And wing my words that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

Oh, give Thine own sweet rest to me,
That I may speak with soothing power
A word in season, as from Thee,
To weary ones in needful hour !

Oh, fill me with Thy fulness, LORD,

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

BLESSED art thou, who, passed before,
Hast found through death thy greatest gain ;
Whose opening life, so quickly o'er,
Is hidden where is no more pain.

Blessèd art thou whose childish feet
Stray where the living waters flow ;
For thee no glow of summer heat,
No chilling touch of winter's snow.

Blessèd art thou ; no storm can sweep
Where love so soon hath wafted thee ;
We toil in rowing on life's deep ;
But where thou art is no more sea.

The Shepherd hath Himself removed
The lamb which to His care was given ;
For He on earth Whom children loved
Hath called His child from earth to Heaven.

No cloud is there, no sound of woe,
But peace unearthly, pure and deep ;
We know thou art with CHRIST ; for so
He giveth His beloved sleep. Amen.

"One of the two which followed Him was Andrew."

JESUS calls us ; o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild, restless sea,
Day by day His sweet Voice soundeth,
Saying, " Christian, follow Me."

As of old Saint Andrew heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home, and toil, and kindred,
Leaving all for His dear sake.

JESUS calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, " Christian, love Me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
That we love Him more than these.

JESUS calls us : by Thy mercies,
Saviour, make us hear Thy call ;
Give our hearts to Thine obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all. Amen.

"The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedar trees; yea, the Lord breaketh the cedar trees of Lebanon."

THE Shepherd now was smitten;
The wolf was ravening near;
The scattered flock he threatened,
But knew not Whose they were.

In zealous fury seeking
To bind and crucify,
A sudden voice withheld him,
A loud and startling cry:

"Saul! Saul! why blindly daring
To persecute thy Lord?
'Tis JESUS Whom thou hatest,
Rebel not at My Word."

Then forth in prayer he stretcheth
Those hands prepared to slay;
"What would'st Thou with Thy servant?
My Lord and Master, say."

CHRIST's foe becomes His soldier,
The wolf destroys no more,
A gentle lamb, he enters
The sheepfold by the door.

O Voice of GOD ALMIGHTY,
What wonders hath it wrought!
It rends the lofty cedars,
It bends the haughty thought.

JESU, our Shepherd, cease not

 Earth, with all its sin and sadness,

St. Philip and St. James.—St. Barnabas.

If the flowers, that fade so quickly,
If a day, that ends in night,
If the sky, that clouds so thickly
Often cover from our sight—
If they all have so much beauty,
What must be GOD's land of rest,
Where His sons, that do their duty,
After many toils are blest?

There are leaves that never wither,
There are flowers that ne'er decay;
Nothing evil goeth thither,
Nothing good is kept away.

They that came from tribulation,
Washed their robes and made them white,
Out of every tongue and nation,
There have rest, and peace, and light.

Stood once again at Peter's side, The sin without the sorrow's smart,
And asked Him, " Lov'st thou Me ? " The shame without the tear !

How many times with faithless word Oh, oft forsaken, oft denied !
Have we denied His holy Name ! Forgive our shame, wash out our sin,
How oft forsaken our dear Lord, Look on us from Thy FATHER'S Side,
And shrunk when trial came ! And let that sweet look win.

Saint Peter, when the cock crew clear, Hear when we call Thee from the deep,
Went out, and wept his broken faith ; Still walk beside us on the shore,
Strong as a rock through strife and fear, Give hands to work, and eyes to weep,
He served his Lord till death. And hearts to love Thee more.

In the knowledge of his Lord.

Was it he beneath the fig tree
Seen of Thee, and guileless found ;
He who saw the good he longed for
Rise from Nazareth's barren ground ;
He who met his risen Master
On the shore of Galilee ;
He to whom the word was spoken,
"Greater things thou yet shalt see !"

None can tell us ; all is written
In the Lamb's great book of life,
All the faith, and prayer, and patience,
All the toiling and the strife ;
There are told Thy hidden treasures ;
Number us, O LORD, with them ;
When Thou makest up the jewels
Of Thy living diadem. Amen.

"Arise, He calleth thee."

BEHOLD, the Master passeth by ! Its echoes stirred his spirit still,
Oh, seest thou not His pleading Eye? And fired his hope, and nerved his will.
With low sad voice He calleth thee—

"Leave this vain world, and follow Me." GOD gently calls us every day ;
Why should we then our bliss delay ?
One heard Him calling long ago, He calls to Heaven and endless light ;
And straightway left all things below, Why should we love the dreary night ?
Counting his earthly gain as loss

For JESUS and His blessed Cross.

That "Follow Me" his faithful ear
Seemed every day afresh to hear :

Praise, Lord, to Thee for Matthew's call,
At which he rose and left his all :

Thou, Lord, e'en now art calling me—
I will leave all, and follow Thee. Amen.

Of bright and glorious Angels stand ;	Command to guard us on our way,
Sweet harps within their hands they hold,	And bid them every evening keep
And on their heads are crowns of gold.	Their watch around us while we sleep.
Some wait around Him, ready still	So shall no wicked thing draw near
To sing His praise and do His Will,	To do us harm, or cause us fear ;
And some, when He commands them, go	And we shall dwell when life is past
To guard His servants here below.	With Angels round Thy Throne at last.

SAINTS of GOD, whom faith united
 In the twelve apostles' band,
 Who for CHRIST in pain delighted,
 Who are now at CHRIST's Right Hand;
 Ye had many a bitter trial,
 Ye were scorned and set at nought,
 Fearing nothing but denial
 Of the Lord for Whom ye fought.

Called on earth to different stations
 In the battle of the Lord,
 Ye went on through tribulations,
 Faith your shield, and truth your sword;
 Far apart through toils and dangers
 Passed ye onward to your rest;
 In the land where none are strangers
 Now together ye are blest!

Leaves of autumn tell the story
 How our lives must also pass,
 And that this world's pomp and glory
 Fadeth like the summer grass;
 Earthly joys are vain and hollow,
 Earthly hopes but poor at best;
 CHRIST's true martyrs, we would follow
 In your steps, and gain our rest!

Him Whose love mankind created,
 Him Who came for man to bleed,
 Him Who hath regenerated
 Us and all His chosen seed,
 We, as we are onward pressing,
 To His glorious home on high,
 With His saints and Angels blessing
 Now and ever magnify! Amen.

"Jerusalem, which is from above."

O HEAVENLY Jerusalem,
Of everlasting halls,
Thrice blessèd are the people
Thou storest in thy walls.
Thou art the golden mansion,
Where saints for ever sing;
The seat of God's own chosen,
The palace of the King.
There GOD for ever sitteth,
Himself of all the Crown;
The Lamb, the Light that shineth,
And never goeth down.
Naught to this seat approacheth,
Their sweet peace to molest;
They sing their GOD for ever,
Nor day nor night they rest.
Sure Hope doth thither lead us;
Our longings thither tend;
No short-lived toil shall daunt us
For joys that cannot end.
To CHRIST the Sun that lightens
His Church above, below;
To FATHER and to SPIRIT
All things created bow.

THE eternal gifts of CHRIST the King,
The Apostles' glory, let us sing ;
And all, with heart of gladness, raise,
Due hymns of thankful love and praise.

For they the Churches' princes are,
Triumphant leaders in the war,
In heavenly courts a warrior band,
True lights to lighten every land.

Theirs is the steadfast faith of saints,
And hope that never yields nor faints,
And love of CHRIST in perfect glow
That lays the prince of this world low.

In them the FATHER's glory shone,
In them the Will of GOD the SON,
In them exults the HOLY GHOST,
Through them rejoice the heavenly host.

To Thee, Redeemer, now we cry,
That Thou would'st join to them on high
Thy servants, who this grace implore,
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

"And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live."

FROM hidden source arising,
A mighty river ran,
Through Eden's pleasant garden,
Where GOD created man.

Thence, parted into branches,
In four great streams it rolled,
To water fields and vineyards,
To wash down sands of gold.

And so, from highest Heaven,
The LORD, the Holy Dove,
In fourfold manner sends us
The tale of JESUS' love ;

The tale whose words are golden,
The tale whose flood Divine
Makes glad the LORD's own garden
With plenteous corn and wine.

Four are the sacred voices,
The story is but one ;
In fourfold wise they praise Him,
The sole-begotten SON.

For this Thy fourfold gospel,
All thanks, O LORD, to Thee,
In it Thyself revealing,
Eternal TRINITY ! Amen.

KING of Glory! Saviour dear!
Grant us grace to persevere;
Leader of the hosts of GOD,
May we tread where Thou hast trod!

They for Thee bore axe and wheel,
Fire, and beasts, and piercing steel;
Like them, may we suffer shame,
Pain or loss for Thy dear Name.

Once for Thee, the Crucified,
Many a faithful martyr died,
How can we, Thy children, show
All our love for all Thy woe?

Bearing calmly for our Lord
Thoughtless jest or spiteful word;
Curbing angry speech and tear,
Strong in Thee to persevere.

Persevere, Thy yoke is light;
Persevere, Thy crown is bright;
Persevere, and we shall sing
In the palace of our King! Amen.

FOR all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O JESU, be for ever blest.

Alleluia !

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might ;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight ;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.

Alleluia !

Who, bearing forth the cross o'er land and sea,
Shook all the mighty world, we sing to Thee.

Alleluia !

For the Evangelists, by whose pure word,
Like fourfold streams, the garden of the LORD
Is fair and fruitful, be Thy Name adored,

Alleluia !

For Martyrs, who with rapture-kindled eye,
Saw the bright crown descending from the sky,
And dying, grasped it, Thee we glorify.

Alleluia !

Oh, may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia !

Oh, blest communion ! fellowship Divine !
We feebly struggle ; they in glory shine !
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

Alleluia !

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia !

The golden evening brightens in the west :
Soon, soon, to faithful warriors cometh rest ;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia !

But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day !
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array !
The King of Glory passes on His way.

Alleluia !

"Fight the good fight of faith."

THE SON of GOD goes forth to war,	A glorious band, the chosen few
A kingly crown to gain,	On whom the SPIRIT came,
His blood-red banner streams afar ;	Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
Who follows in His train ?	And mocked the cross and flame.
Who best can drink his cup of woe,	They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
Triumphant over pain,	The lion's gory mane,
Who patient bears his cross below,	They bowed their necks, the death to feel ;
He follows in His train.	Who follows in their train ?

The martyr first, whose eagle eye	A noble army, men and boys,
Could pierce beyond the grave,	The matron and the maid,
Who saw his Master in the sky,	Around the Saviour's Throne rejoice,
And called on Him to save.	In robes of light arrayed.
Like Him, with pardon on his tongue,	They climbed the steep ascent of Heaven
In midst of mortal pain,	Through peril, toil, and pain ;
He prayed for them that did the wrong.	O GOD, to us may grace be given
Who follows in his train ?	To follow in their train. Amen.

"What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?"

WHO are these like stars appearing,
These, before GOD's Throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing,
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluia, hark! they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

Who are these in dazzling brightness,
Clothed in GOD's own righteousness,
These, whose robes of purest whiteness
Shall their lustre still possess,
Still untouched by time's rude hand?
Whence came all this glorious band?

These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,

Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the GOD they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
GOD has bid them weep no more.

These, the ALMIGHTY contemplating,
Did as priests before Him stand,
Soul and body always waiting
Day and night at His command:
Now in GOD's most holy place
Blest they stand before His Face.

LANGDON COLBORNE.

RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD.

GOD the FATHER, GOD the SON,
HOLY SPIRIT, Three in One,
See us kneeling at Thy Throne ;
Hear us, Holy TRINITY.

Risen JESU, Thee we greet,
Falling at Thy piercèd Feet,
For our joy is made complete ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thou the first-born from the dead,
Thou our now triumphant Head,
Thou Thy foes hath scatterèd ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thee no powers of death could hold,
Thou must conquer as foretold
By the prophecies of old ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thou Whom Magdalene did seek
On that first day of the week,
Who to her didst comfort speak ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thou Who Peter didst restore
To Thy favour as before,
For the great love that he bore ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

JESU, present with Thine own,
Forty days with them alone,
Ere ascending to Thy Throne ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thou, Thy earthly conflict o'er,
Reachest now the heavenly shore,
Where Thou ever wast before ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Thou Who dost our nature wear
That Thy triumph we may share,
And be ever with Thee there ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Grant that we may live to Thee
In all grace and purity,
So for ever Thine to be ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Grant that in the last great day,
When this earth shall pass away,
Thou may'st be our Strength and Stay ;
Hear us, Holy JESU.

Grant that when we rise again,
Purified from earthly stain,
We may ever with Thee reign ;
Hear us, Holy JESU. Amen.

PENITENTIAL.

ALL our sinful words and ways,
All our wasted hours and days,
All our pride and love of praise,
Forgive, O LORD, for JESUS' sake.

All our sloth and vanity.
All our sinful levity,
All forgetfulness of Thee,
Forgive, O LORD, for JESUS' sake.

Every time from truth we've erred,
Every bad or idle word
Which Thy holy Ears have heard,
Forgive, O LORD, for JESUS' sake.

All the help we need each day,
That we may not fall away,
Or from JESUS go astray,
Oh, give us, LORD, for JESUS' sake.

All the mischief we have wrought,
All forbidden things we've sought,
All the sin to others taught,
Forgive, O LORD, for JESUS' sake.

Faith, to see Thee ever near,
Hope, to check each foolish fear,
Constant strength to persevere.
Oh, give us, LORD, for JESUS' sake.

Every needful gift of grace,
Till we reach the holy place,
Where we shall behold Thy Face,
Oh, give us, LORD, for JESUS' sake. Amen.

JESUS, Lord most mighty,
Humbly we adore,
Thee the King of glory,
And Thy grace implore.
By Thy Blood redeemèd,
We Thy servants pray,
Spare us, Thou that takest
Human sins away.

Lord, have mercy on us !
CHRIST, have mercy on us !
Lord, have mercy on us !

By Thine unknown sorrows
Mercy we entreat :
Sinners yet are welcome,
To their Saviour's feet ;
Lord, with tears repenting,
We our guilt bewail,
For we know Thy mercy,
Lord, can never fail.
Lord, have mercy, &c.

By Thy wounds and bruises,
By Thy cross and grave,
Us in all our sorrows,
JESUS, hear and save.
By Thine exaltation,
Far above all height,
Evermore defend us,
Lord of power and might.
Lord, have mercy, &c.

In all tribulation,
In our day of peace,
Whensoe'er upon us
Earthly joys increase :
When Thy voice shall call us,
To the silent tomb,
When this world awaketh
To its day of doom.
Lord, have mercy, &c.

PENITENTIAL.

JESU, we are far away
From the light of heavenly day,
Lost in paths of sin we stray :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

Foolish, weak, and sad we lie ;
Guard us with Thy loving Eye,
Be our Helper, always nigh :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

Help us to bewail our sin,
And, in heavenly strength, begin
Daily victories to win :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

Keep us lowly that we may,
Ever watchful, turn away
From the snares our tempters lay :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

On our darkness shed Thy Light,
Lead our wills to what is right,
Wash our evil nature white :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

May Thy wisdom be our guide,
Comfort, rest, and peace provide
Near to Thy protecting Side :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

May we selfishness deny,
And the body mortify,
Doing deeds of charity :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

Make us earnest when we pray,
Diligent from day to day,
Meaning, doing, what we say :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

Fix our hearts on things on high,
Let no evil thoughts come nigh,
Purge from sin our memory :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

May Thy grace within the soul
Nature's waywardness control,
Guiding towards the heavenly goal :
Lord, in mercy hear us.

So at last from sin set free,
What we long for may we see,
And for ever blessed be,
Lord, in mercy hear us. Amen.

397.—SUPPLICATION.

REV. F. PEEL, Mus. Bac.

HOLY FATHER, hear our cry,
Saviour, intercede on high,
Let Thy SPIRIT sanctify
These our prayers and praises.

Never let us doubt Thy love,
May we still Thy mercy prove,
Let our Faith our fears remove
When past sins affright us.

Oh, remember not our sin,
Cleanse us all without, within ;
Be not angry ; Peace Divine,
Breathe on us Thy children.

Bid our fretful hearts be still,
Bring us captive to Thy Will,
With Thine own obedience fill
All who kneel before Thee.

From a cold and hardened heart,
Loth to choose the better part,
Keep us, for alone Thou art
Able to deliver.

From great pain and suffering,
Doubtful thoughts, and wandering,
Death's dark vale when entering,
Save us, Holy JESUS.

As we tread the narrow road,
Gentle Saviour, ease our load,
Thou hast passed it, shed abroad
Light on our last journey. Amen.

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

O THOU, Who art the Gift unpriced,
That for the poorest hath sufficed,
The Grace and Peace from JESUS CHRIST;
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

O Thou, Who for the awful fight
With more than mortal will and might
Hast ever armed the sons of light :
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

Arm those who kneel before Thee now,
Let the dear sign upon their brow
In every heart seal every vow :
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

Dread is the war they battle in,
But stronger Thou their souls within
Than all the powers of Adam's sin !
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

Oh, by their death in Him who died !
Their life in Him, the Glorified !
Keep them for ever at His Side,
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

So may they through the hosts of ill
Go on from strength to strength, until
They win the peaceful Holy Hill :
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

Through vigils late and labours long,
Through all world-weariness and wrong,
So guide them to Thy evensong,
GOD the SPIRIT, hear us.

Thou in Whom all knowledge lies,
Reading all with searching Eyes—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT guiding to the right,
SPIRIT making darkness light,
SPIRIT of resistless might—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, Who dost fear impart,
Giving love to every heart,
Making mortals what Thou art—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, falling like a dove
From the opened skies above,

With the FATHER's power and love—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, by Whose gifts of grace
JESUS blessed our fallen race,
Raising them from lowly place—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, showing us the way,
Warning when we go astray,
Pleading in us when we pray—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, Whom our failings grieve,
Whom the world will not receive,
Who dost help us to believe—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, guarding us from ill,
Bending right our stubborn will;
Though we grieve Thee, patient still—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, strength of all the weak,
Giving courage to the meek,
Teaching faltering tongues to speak—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, aiding all who yearn
More of truths Divine to learn,
And with deeper love to burn—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

HOLY GHOST, when sinners fall,
And when snares their souls enthrall,
Leading back with gentle call—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT.

SPIRIT, bidding terror cease,
When from sin we pray release,
Bidding us to go in peace—
Hear us, HOLY SPIRIT. Amen.

JESUS, Who didst suffer pain,
To release from error's chain
Man's lost Paradise to gain,
JESU, Saviour, hear us.

Let Thy ministers proclaim
Far and wide Thy saving Name,

Seek for those who careless roam,
Bring the wanderers safely home,
May Thy glorious Kingdom come,
JESU, Saviour, hear us.

Blessèd SPIRIT, heavenly LORD,
Speak with power the saving Word,
How the lost may be restored,
Blessèd SPIRIT, hear us.

Come and breathe new life within,
Rescue souls from death and sin,
Teach the careless Heaven to win,
Blessèd SPIRIT, hear us.

FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST,
Loving those who need Thee most,
Raise the fallen, save the lost,
We beseech Thee, hear us. Amen.

Traditional.

A CHILD this day is born,
 A Child of high renown;
 Most worthy of a sceptre,
 A sceptre and a crown.

CHORUS.
 Glad tidings to all men,
 Glad tidings sing we may,
 Because the King of kings
 Was born on Christmas-day.

Then was there with the Angel
 A glorious regiment
 Of heavenly-bright soldiers,
 All from the highest sent.
 Glad tidings, &c.

They praised the LORD our God,
 And our celestial King:
 All glory in the highest be,
 This heavenly host do sing.
 Glad tidings, &c.

All glory be to God,
 That sitteth still on high,

"A VIRGIN MOST PURE."

Traditional.

Carols.

A VIRGIN most pure, so the Prophet foretold,
Should bring forth a Saviour, Which now we behold,
To be our Redeemer from death, hell, and sin,
Which Adam's transgression had wrappèd us in.

CHORUS.

Aye and therefore be merry, set sorrow aside,
CHRIST JESUS our Saviour was born on this tide.

At Bethlehem city in Jewry it was
That Joseph and Mary together did pass,
All for to be taxèd with many one moe,*
Great Cæsar commanded the same should be so.
Aye and therefore, &c.

But when they had entered the city so fair,
A number of people so mighty was there,
That Joseph and Mary, whose substance was small,
Could find in the inn there no lodging at all.
Aye and therefore, &c.

Then were they constrained in a stable to lie,
Where horses and asses they used for to tie :
Their lodging so simple they took it no scorn,
But against the next morning our Saviour was born.
Aye and therefore, &c.

The King of all kings to this world being brought,
Small store of fine linen to wrap Him was sought,
But when she had swaddled her young SON so sweet,
Within a poor manger she laid Him to sleep.
Aye and therefore, &c.

Then GOD sent an Angel from Heaven so high,
To certain poor shepherds in fields where they lie,
And bade them no longer in sorrow to stay,
Because that our Saviour was born on this day.
Aye and therefore, &c.

Then presently after the shepherds did spy
Vast numbers of Angels to stand in the sky ;
They joyfully talkèd and sweetly did sing,
To GOD be all glory, our heavenly King.
Aye and therefore, &c.

To teach us humility all this was done,
And learn we from thence haughty pride for to shun :
A manger His cradle who came from above,
The great GOD of mercy of peace and of love.
Aye and therefore, &c.

"COME YE LOFTY."

SIR G. J. ELVEY.

Cheerful.

Carols.

COME ye lofty, come ye lowly,
Let your songs of gladness ring ;
In a stable lies the Holy,
In a manger rests the King :
See in Mary's arms reposing
CHRIST by highest Heaven adored :
Come, your circle round Him closing,
Pious hearts that love the Lord.

Come ye poor, no pomp of station
Robes the Child your hearts adore :
He, the Lord of all salvation,
Shares your want, is weak and poor :
Oxen, round about behold them ;
Rafters naked, cold, and bare,
See the shepherds, GOD has told them
That the Prince of Life lies there.

Come ye children, blithe and merry,
This one Child your model make ;
Christmas holly, leaf, and berry,
All be prized for His dear sake :
Come ye gentle hearts and tender,
Come ye spirits keen and bold ;
All in all your homage render,
Weak and mighty, young and old.

High above a star is shining,
And the wise men haste from far :
Come glad hearts, and spirits pining ;
For you all has risen the star.
Let us bring our poor oblations,
Thanks and love and faith and praise,
Come ye people, come ye nations,
All in all draw nigh to gaze.

Hark the Heaven of heavens is ringing ;
CHRIST the Lord to man is born !
Are not all our hearts too singing,
Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn !
Still the Child, all power possessing,
Smiles as through the ages past ;
And the song of Christmas blessing
Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

"HAIL, SWEET BABY, PURE AND HOLY!"

F. A. MANN.

After the last verse.

HAIL, sweet Baby, pure and holy !
Hail, fair SON of Mary blest !
Royal Infant ! in a manger
Thou art gently laid to rest.

Filled with awe and tender rapture,
Tears of joy Thy mother weeps,
Through the night Thy foster-father
By Thee faithful vigil keeps.

Hovering o'er the hallowed stable
Choirs of Angels carols sing,
Glory, glory in the highest,
Hail to Thee, O CHRIST our King !

Shepherds, leave your flocks, and hasten
To adore, on bended knee ;
Wrapped in swaddling clothes your Saviour,
Israel's Shepherd, ye shall see.

Children, year by year with gladness
Keep CHRIST's birthday feast anew,
Sing His praise with loving voices
Who was born a Babe for you.

Hail, sweet Baby, Child of Mary,
Hail King David's royal SON,
Singing carols round Thy cradle,
We adore Thee, HOLY ONE.

Sweetly sounding from the skies ?
Lo, the Angel host rejoices ;
Heavenly alleluias rise.

With their blessed alleluias
Hear what wondrous things they tell—
How lost man has now a Saviour,
Born to conquer death and hell.

"Glory in the highest, glory,"
Thus they chant their joyful strain ;
"Glory in the highest, glory ;
Peace on earth, goodwill to men."

Born Thy people to deliver,
JESU, from the death of sin ;
Born to make us Thine for ever ;
Still abide our souls within ?

SON of GOD, most holy JESU,
Endless glory be to Thee,
To the FATHER and the SPIRIT
Now and through eternity.

The piano introduction consists of two systems of grand staves. The first system features a treble staff with a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment of quarter notes. A 'PED.' (pedal) marking is placed below the first measure of the bass staff. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment.

The second system of the piano introduction continues the treble and bass staves with the same melodic and accompanimental patterns.

FOR ONE OR MORE TREBLE VOICES.

The first system of the vocal part is written on a single treble staff. Below the staff are three numbered verses. The piano accompaniment for this system is shown on a grand staff (treble and bass) with chords and moving lines.

"INFANT BORN IN BETHLEHEM."

SAMUEL SMITH.

INFANT born in Bethlehem,
Born to save Jerusalem.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Of a lowly Virgin born;
Wound of serpent doth He scorn.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

In the manger see Him lie,
He Who reigns above the sky.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

To our flesh He entered in,
Like to us in all but sin.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Ox and ass behold His Face,
SON of GOD and King of grace.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Back for GOD He did us buy;
We for Him must live and die.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Eastern sages to their King
Gold and myrrh and incense bring,
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

On His birthday we rejoice,
Praise our GOD with heart and voice.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Entering in they bow before
Him Who reigns for evermore.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Glory to the Virgin-born,
Come to us on Christmas morn.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise to GOD Who sent His SON,
Praise the holy Three in One.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

414. "LET HEAVEN AND EARTH REJOICE AND SING."

JOSEPH W. SIDEBOTHAM.

LET Heaven and earth rejoice and sing; Wise men and kings rich gifts did bring Salute this happy morn; To Bethlehem straightway,
The Saviour, Which is CHRIST our King, Conducted by a leading Star,
And on this day was born. Where CHRIST our Saviour lay.

Come, let us join our hearts to GOD,	O LORD, to Thee all glory be,
And thus exalt His fame;	Whom Heaven and earth adore;
To save us all this Babe was born,	For our Redeemer we will praise
And JESUS is His Name.	This day and evermore.

415. "NO ROOM IN THE INN."

H. J. GAUNTLETT, Mus. Doc.

Slowly and sustained.

Carols.

NO room in the inn for the travellers weary,
 Though hungry and thirsty and footsore they be ;
 The children of David, in David's own city,
 They come to enrol at the Cæsar's decree.

No place but the stable for Joseph and Mary,
 Although they are owned of the true royal line ;
 They turn from the inn, from its warmth and its plenty,
 To rest for the night with the asses and kine.

Oh, had the host known, though the inn was o'ercrowded,
 Who sought in his hostel for shelter and rest,
 The fairest guest chamber had been for the strangers,
 And he had provided for them of his best !

For in the rude stable, when stars were all shining,
 The Lord of the Angels took up His abode,
 The Babe in the manger so calmly reposing,
 Was Israel's Messiah, the dear SON of God.

We join with the Angels in giving GOD glory ;
 From Christmas to Christmas the story repeat
 How JESUS was laid a fair Babe in the manger,
 And hasten with shepherds to kneel at His Feet.

All glory, all glory to GOD in the highest !
 All glory to JESUS for His lowly birth !
 With hearts full of joy we re-echo with gladness,
 Good will be to men, and sweet peace upon earth.

"RING THE BELLS."

ARTHUR H. BROWN.

Carols.

CHORUS.

RING the bells, the Christmas bells ;
 Chime out the wondrous story ;
 First in song on Angel tongues
 It came from realms of glory ;
 Peace on earth, goodwill to men,
 Angelic voices ringing—
CHRIST the Lord to earth has come,
 His glorious message bringing.
 Ring the merry Christmas bells ;
 Chime out the wondrous story ;
 Glory be to GOD on high,
 For evermore be glory.

Wise men hastened from the East
 To bring their richest treasure—
 Gold, and myrrh, and frankincense,
 And jewels without measure.
 Him they sought, although a King,
 They found in birthplace lowly,
 There within a manger lay
 The Babe so pure and holy.
 Ring the merry Christmas bells, &c.

Earthly crowns were not for Him ;
 He came God's love revealing ;
 On the Cross He died for us,
 His Blood forgiveness sealing,
 'Tis the Saviour promised long,
 Ring out your loudest praises ;
 Every heart this happy day
 Its grateful anthems raises.
 Ring the merry Christmas bells, &c.

CHORUS. ff

Hail, thou e - ver - bless - ed morn ! Hail, re - demp - tion's hap - py dawn !

Carols.

SEE amid the winter's snow,
 Born for us on earth below;
 See the tender Lamb appears,
 Promised from eternal years.

CHORUS.

Hail, thou ever-blessèd morn;
 Hail, redemption's happy dawn!
 Sing through all Jerusalem,
 CHRIST is born in Bethlehem.

Lo, within the manger lies
 He Who built the starry skies;
 He Who throned in height sublime
 Sits amid the Cherubim!
 Hail, thou ever-blessèd, &c.

Say, ye holy shepherds, say,
 What your joyful news to-day;
 Wherefore have ye left your sheep
 On the lowly mountain steep?
 Hail, thou ever-blessèd, &c.

"As we watched at dead of night,
 Lo, we saw a wondrous light;
 Angels singing peace on earth,
 Told us of the Saviour's birth."
 Hail, thou ever-blessèd, &c.

Sacred Infant, all Divine,
 What a tender love was Thine,
 Thus to come from highest bliss
 Down to such a world as this!
 Hail, thou ever-blessèd, &c.

Teach, oh, teach us, Holy Child,
 By Thy Face so meek and mild,
 Teach us to resemble Thee,
 In Thy sweet humility.
 Hail, thou ever-blessèd, &c.

"THE FIRST NOWELL."

Traditional.

Carols.

THE first Nowell the Angel did say
 Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay—
 In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
 On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

CHORUS.

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
 Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star
 Shining in the East, beyond them far,
 And to the earth it gave great light,
 And so it continued both day and night.
 Nowell, &c.

And by the light of that same star
 Three wise men came from country far ;
 To seek for a King was their intent,
 And to follow the star wherever it went.
 Nowell, &c.

This star drew nigh to the north-west,
 O'er Bethlehem it took its rest ;
 And there it did both stop and stay,
 Right over the place where JESUS lay.
 Nowell, &c.

Then entered in those wise men three,
 Full reverently upon their knee,
 And offered there in His presence
 Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.
 Nowell, &c.

Then let us all with one accord
 Sing praises to our heavenly Lord ;
 That hath made Heaven and earth of nought,
 And with His Blood mankind hath bought.
 Nowell, &c.

"THE STARS ARE SHINING BRIGHT AND CLEAR."

REV. E. W. BULLINGER.

Carols.

THE stars are shining bright and clear,
The hills are white with snow :
Our Christmas-eve has come again,
Our hearts with joy o'erflow ;
The Christmas carols, sweet and glad,
Are sounding on the air ;
And Christmas wreaths, in glistening show,
Make bright the house of prayer.

Not here across the snow was heard
The first sweet Christmas song ;
But where the crimson lilies bloom,
Judæa's hills among ;
Those hills where David long before
His father's sheep had kept ;
And where, o'er Rachel's lonely tomb,
The mourning Jacob wept.

And not by earthly choristers
Was that first carol sung ;
Not through the temple's shining courts
Its faultless music rung ;
No listening crowds had gathered there,
That wondrous chant to hear ;
Save watchful shepherds on the hills,
No human soul was near.

'Twas sung by countless multitudes
Of Angels pure and bright,
And o'er the bare and silent hills
There shone a glorious light ;
Such heavenly music ne'er was heard
Before by sons of men,
And never more shall song like that
Be heard on earth again

We know the tidings which they brought
Of CHRIST our Saviour's birth,
Their song of " Glory be to GOD,
Good-will and peace on earth ;"
In crowded church and quiet homes
We chant that carol still ;
'Tis heard from city streets and courts,
From vale and lonely hill.

For us the gracious Saviour came,
For us He lived and died,
For us was born a little babe,
For us was crucified ;
And so the Christmas carol, sung
By Angels long ago,
Is sweeter than all other songs
Which Christians sing below.

Carols.

In ex-cel-sis glo-ri-a, In ex-cel-sis glo-ri-a.

Verse 2.

Herds-men be-held, &c.

Verse 4.

Then, dear Lord, &c.

WHEN CHRIST was born of Mary free,
 In Bethlehem that fair citie,
 Angels sang there with mirth and glee,
 "In excelsis gloria."

CHORUS.

In excelsis gloria,
 In excelsis gloria,
 In excelsis gloria,
 In excelsis gloria,

Herdsman beheld these Angels bright,
 To them appearing with great light,
 Who said GOD'S SON is born to-night,
 "In excelsis gloria."

The King is come to save mankind,
 As in the Scripture truths we find,
 Therefore this song we have in mind,
 "In excelsis gloria."

Then, dear Lord, for Thy great grace
 Grant us in bliss to see Thy Face,
 That we may sing to Thy solace,
 "In excelsis gloria."
